3 are the factors that can help differentiate the groups of 4 offenders who go on to reoffend and those that don't.

5 Q And Dr. Gehle, when you're describing these, these groups
6 in this research, was, was, was this a large study?

7 A Yes. Thousands of people, many studies.

8 Q And has the data been updated throughout its existence?

9 A Yes.

10 Q And what was Mr. Griffin's score on the Static-99R?

11 A He has a score of four.

12 Q And what does a score of four on the Static-99R indicate 13 to you about Mr. Griffin's risk for re-offense?

14 A Well, his score of a four means that -- so when I take -- 15 when I get that score I can look at various different like 16 ways to look at it. So it is -- if we look at --- people with 17 a score of four, 11 percent of them went on to reoffend within 18 five years. It also makes him 1.94, almost two times more 19 likely to commit another sex offense compared to just the 20 average sex offender. So the average score on the static is 21 two, and they range from negative three to 12, and hardly 22 anybody scores over a seven. So a seven is a very, very high 23 score, and his is four.

24 Q And did you also look at dynamic risk factors as part of 25 your evaluation in this case?

and those factors typically do not change with treatment.

2 They're just based on the person's history and demographics.

3 Q And Dr. Gehle, when you were -- when you were conducting
4 this actuarial assessment of Mr. Griffin, what actuarial
5 assessment did you use?

6 A I used the Static-99R.

7 Q And what is the Static-99R?

8 A It's an instrument that is designed to assist in the 9 estimation of sexual and violent recidivism for sex offenders.

10 It's the most widely used measure of sexual recidivism, and it
11 estimate -- the estimates were derived from new charges and 12 reconvictions of groups of individuals. So we're comparing 13 Mr. Griffin to groups of sex offenders.

14 Q So Dr. Gehle, could you -- how, how does the Static-99R
15 measure risk? Could you explain or give an explanation of it?

16 A Well, they looked at, the researchers that compiled this 17 looked at a large sample of sex offenders, and they looked at 18 a variety of different demographic information and historical 19 information, so their age, what kind of -- how many crimes
20 they have committed, have they had non-sexual violent crimes,
21 how many sentencing dates, what type of victims, male victims,
22 stranger victims, non-family victims, any contact offenses or 23 noncontact offenses, things like that. They looked at that,
24 at that whole group of sex offenders and then they wanted to 25 see who went on to reoffend. So they wanted to see with that

1 you by this Court and thus arrive at a verdict which speaks
2 the truth in this case. In fact, the word verdict, which has
3 as its Latin derivative, means a true saying. Thus, when you
4 have accomplished these responsibilities, you will have
5 satisfied your oath as jurors, and you will have discharged
6 your duty to this Court.

7 Now, there are two possible verdicts in this case, ladies
8 and gentlemen: one, Respondent is a sexually violent predator
9 or Respondent is not a sexually violent predator. There is no
10 significance whatsoever in the order in which I state these 11 possible verdicts. It is simply that one must be stated 12 first. All 12 of you, ladies and gentlemen, must agree on the 13 Verdict. Your verdict must be unanimous. Your verdict cannot 14 be based on sympathy, passion, prejudice, emotion or any other 15 consideration not in evidence in this case.

16 Now, Mr. Foreman, when the jury agrees on the verdict you 17 will sign your name as foreperson on the line underneath the 18 jury verdict. If you will then knock on the door and let the 19 bailiff know, my deputy know that you all have reached a 20 verdict we'll get you back into the courtroom as quickly as 21 possible.

22 During your deliberations should you have any questions,
23 Mr. Foreman, you all as a jury, it will be your responsibility
24 to reduce that question to writing, knock on the door, let my 25 bailiff know, my deputy know that you have a question. He'll

1 get it to me, and after consulting with the attorneys I'll
2 make a decision on how to appropriately answer that question.

3 Now, at this time let me ask this question before you all
4 step to the jury room. Anyone on the jury not feeling well?
5 Everyone feeling okay? Okay. I'm going to ask that all of 6 you, all of you at this point step to the jury room, but do
7 not, do not begin your deliberations until you're instructed 8 to do so. The law requires that I consult with these 9 attorneys to make sure that I have not left anything out of 10 the instructions that I have given to you. So at this time 11 I'm going to ask you step to the jury room. Do not begin your 12 deliberations until you're instructed to do so.

13 (Whereupon, the following takes place outside the 14 presence of the jury.)

15 THE COURT: All right. Any, any exception or objection
16 to the charge from the State?

17 MR. MORROW: Nothing from the State, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: Mr. Falk.

19 MR. FALK: Your Honor, I do have a concern in that this 20 is a reasonable doubt case, and you used the verdict that 21 speaks the truth language, which is the language that was used
22 in a criminal case in Beaty where they said was inappropriate 23 in a criminal case and that's really speaking to my burden of 24 proof here, and I'm making my objection to the language. I'd 25 ask that you recharge or a curative instruction.

Extracts from the
Charter of AMORC

MAY 3
T MAY 2
(MAY) 3

Month  (MAY) 3
Tradition - Ethics - Humanism

AMORC unreservedly and unequivocally condemns practices that violate human dignity, individual integrity, and personal property. AMORC also strongly objects to the tarnishing of traditional and philosophical values by those acting as impostors, who are bringing these values into disrepute in the eyes of public institutions and public opinion. For this reason, the ethical principles that AMORC has always held are restated in this Charter:

1. AMORC is legally constituted and registered as a public-benefit, educational organization, and consents to answering for its activities to the relevant public authorities.
2. It conducts its activity in the field of endeavor applicable to it in a peaceful fashion, and refrains from anything that might undermine public order or the authority of the State.
3. It never lays down one single ideology or dogma for its members, and respects the plurality of religious and philosophical beliefs.
4. It refrains from all political activity and discussion, and allows each of its members freedom of opinion in this field.

5. It does not use any method of persuasion or manipulation that might subvert the free will and choice of the individual.
6. It never presents the views or the work of any of its officers to its members as the only articulation of the truth.
7. It allows each of its members to remain completely free to leave the organization at any time, without being harassed in any manner whatsoever.
8. It opposes any form of racial or ethnic segregation.
9. It categorically condemns the indoctrination of children, as well as any breach of the laws on schooling and education.

Note: the Charter comprises 19 clauses.

 to live permanently in harmony. It is therefore the peace of the rose as well as that of the cross. shots
 Peace is to look at life as a gift, despite its tests and its ups and downs. It is also to be able to accept a far from perfect body, sometimes one that suffers, then old age, and finally the more departure to the beyond. Medicine
 Peace is first of all to accept fear, then to be able to surmount
 it. It is when our urges and our emotions are at last controlled, and leave our heart still, like a day without wind. It is when the warrior that slumbers within us has laid down his or her arms. What
 If we have lost harmony, let us find it again. Let us be aware
