

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Bank of America, N.A., Respondent,

v.

Simone Lambright; The United States of America acting by and through its agency, the Department of Housing and Urban Development, Appellants.

Appellate Case No. 2019-000602

ORDER

This appeal arises out of an order granting the appellant's motion to set aside entry of default. The appeal is dismissed because it is not immediately appealable. See Wetzel v. Woodside Dev., Ltd. P'ship, 364 S.C. 589, 615 S.E.2d 437, 438 (200) ("Normally, an order granting a motion to set aside an entry of default is not immediately appealable."). The remittitur will be sent pursuant to Rule 221(b) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules.
