RE: The State vs. Keshawn Cunningham
Appellate Case No. 2019-000796

Dear Keshawn:

Your father informed me that you wished to file an appeal of your sentence, which I did. I have also enclosed a copy of the clocked-in appeal that was filed with the South Carolina Court of Appeals. You should have already received a copy of the appeal paperwork I filed. I do not know of any appealable issues and I informed the Court of Appeals as such. In response, the Court of Appeals sent a letter to me, which I have enclosed. You need to send a letter to the Court of Appeals, at the below address, letting them know what your basis is for an appeal. You need to let them know what your issues are. You need to send this letter to:

South Carolina Court of Appeals
1220 Senate Street
Columbia, SC 29201

I am sending a copy of this letter to the Court of Appeals.

Sincerely,

Geoff Dunn
