To Whom it may Concern: I Michael Hudson

In writing in regards to my appeal in the Charges of Burglary First Degree and Domestic Violence High and aggravated, Kidnapping, and Assault first degree, I wish to appeal on the grounds that the arresting officer Nathaniel Shaver III whom also was my investigator over my case and one to sign and serve warrants. This officer was fired for tampering with evidence, conspiring to sell drugs, obstruction of justice ect. among a slew of other charges I would like appeal on this very important ground also was told later by Counsel that this is a huge factor because he is a major part because the evidence he presented is word he could lie and did lie on my evidence also no physical evidence was taken and was supposed to include, finger prints and/or blood samples which are RECEIVED to the case.
