Re: Frieda H. Dortch v. City of Columbia
Appellate Case No. 2019-000868

Dear Counsel:

This Court has received your notice of appeal, and the case has been assigned the appellate case number that appears above. Please use this number on all future correspondence relating to this matter.

All parties to this matter are advised that all filings must comply with the requirements of Rule 267 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR). The SCACR are available online at www.sccourts.org/courtreg. Additionally, any filings submitted by counsel admitted in South Carolina must include counsel's bar number.

The attention of the parties is directed to the order relating to the inclusion of personal data identifiers and other sensitive information in documents filed with the Supreme Court of South Carolina and the South Carolina Court of Appeals. The order can be found at www.sccourts.org/courtOrders/displayOrder.cfm?orderNo=2014-04-15-02. Please note that the responsibility for insuring that information is redacted or sealed as required by this order rests with counsel and the parties. This office will not review filings for redaction or to determine if materials should be sealed.

While your cover letter indicates that this appeal involves a challenge to a city ordinance on constitutional grounds, I do not see where this constitutional issue has been ruled on by the circuit court in the orders that you have provided. I ask that you please provide this Court with a copy of the ruling of the circuit court on the constitutional challenge to the ordinance within ten (10) days of the date of this letter.

Very truly yours,
