

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA
IN THE COURT OF APPEALS

APPEAL FROM ANDERSON COUNTY

THE HONORABLE J. Cordelle Maddox Jr Circuit Court Judge

APPELLATE CASE NO: 2018-001099

GAVIN V JONES

RECEIVED APPELLANT

MAY 17 2019

V
SC Court of Appeals

RESPONDENT

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA

Objection To Relax Motion

1

Appellant, Proceeding Prose in this matter objects to the Respondent motion to Relax Rule 208 (a) (2) and request for 30 day Extension and would briefly explain why

The Respondent comes before this Court as if he is unlearned in what it is to be a Lawyer. I tell you the truth this attitude comes from not being held accountable to the rules, S.C. Code of Law. But yet this Court makes me walk the line, Respondent was over two months without so much as a word. This is what I am dealing with in the case at hand, Solicitors, Judges ignoring S.C. Code of Laws, rules of Court. Because they feel no one will hold them accountable. Well Appellant strongly and humbly objects, the Respondent had over 90 days to file a extension with this Court.

I say this respectfully to the Court. The Attorney General not only have trained Attorneys on there staff, They have unlimited resources in which to mount a defense against a man who has to hand write his response because all S.C. Prisons are on State wide lock-down. This Court told me, I had ten (10) days to correct errors in my brief or I would be dismissed. Will this Court Grant a extension for the Respondent when they are 78 days out of Time. Without a word to this Court for a extension. I humbly say that I am not a Attorney, because the rules only pertain to me it seems. II

The Appellant humbly ask this Court to Deny the Motion to Relax and 30 day extension and Prays for such other and further relief as the Court Knows is just and Proper.
