

Re: State vs. Candace Chaney
Appellate Case No: 2019-000626

Dear Ms Kitchings,

RECEIVED

5/27/19

MAY 20 2019

SC COURT OF APPEALS

This letter concerns my appeal. My public defender stated by letter that there is no basis for an appeal since I plead to a negotiated sentence. I hold myself accountable for my actions.

I do not wish to appeal my sentence, however, I do wish to appeal the terms of my sentence. My public defender didn't go over my case until right before court so the 85%, no parole, consecutive should be 5 year concurrent sentence and non-violent as stated on my sentencing sheet. I just need this corrected so it can be changed here.

I was rushed to sign right before court without my public defender correcting the terms. I am just asking for my percentage and paroleable status to be corrected.

I need this for work release and to better myself.

I have never been to prison before and would like to take advantage of my time and when my time is completed go home to my family and job. I plan to be more productive and make better decisions.

The sooner this error is corrected would be greatly appreciated. I am currently doing violent time for a non-violent crime.

Sincerely

Lance L. Chaney
