

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Clara Brockington, Appellant,

v.

South Carolina Department of Social Services, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2019-000801

---

ORDER

---

On May 1, 2019, Appellant filed a notice of appeal from an order she received on April 21, 2018. Appellant has filed a motion, which this court construes as a motion to file the notice of appeal out of time. Because over a year has lapsed since receipt of the order on appeal, the motion to file out of time is denied. Rule 203(d)(2)(B), SCACR (providing the notice of appeal must be filed with the clerk of the appellate court within thirty days after receipt of the decision being appealed); see also Rule 203(b)(6), SCACR ("When a statute allows a decision of the administrative law court or agency (administrative tribunal) to be appealed directly to the Supreme Court or the Court of Appeals, the notice of appeal shall be served on the agency, the administrative law court (if it has been involved in the case) and all parties of record within thirty (30) days after receipt of the decision."). Accordingly, this appeal is dismissed and the remittitur will be sent as required by Rule 221(b), SCACR.<sup>1</sup>
