Dear, South Carolina Court of Appeals

SC Court of Appeals

I request a appeal because I feel like the judge didn't have to give me MAX on my plea deal because I was doing so good in society I had recommendation letters from my Bondsman, The manager from my job my girlfriend and her mother and the Bondsman who managed my ankle monitor. This incident happened in 2015 that same year I bonded out I got put on a ankle monitor for the incident ever since then I didn't get in any trouble for 4 years. During those 4 years I took anger management and parenting classes I got certificates for both classes.

I started working in the restaurants I became one of the top chefs for Carraba's and P.F. Chang's and have a friendship with both managers. I have a 4 year old daughter a 2 year old son and a daughter to be born in the beginning of August and beautiful girlfriend soon to be wife.

And anybody can tell you I'm the best DAD and Husband in the world. I've paid my bondsman off and kept my bill clear with my ankle monitor. All I wanna do is just have another chance back in society for the sake of my kids my wife and my parents.

I'm a whole different person than I was 4 years ago I just wanna be a successful young man in society that takes care of his family. I have a good heart and want to be there to raise all 3 of my children with my wife. I would really appreciate if y'all would take this letter in consideration and give me probation for the charge. I have really self-improved I'm working on getting my G.E.D. from the bottom of my heart I would really appreciate it. I will not let you guys down.

Sincerely, Kenneth Jenkins
