S.C. SUPREME COURT

To Mr. Shearouse,

My name is Mikaela Porter, I am a news reporter for The Post & Courier.

I am requesting approval to bring a cell phone and laptop computer to South Carolina Supreme Court on June 11 for a hearing I am covering for the paper.

The case is 2018-000137, Preservation Society of Charleston, Historic Charleston Foundation, Historic Ansonborough Neighborhood Association, South Carolina Coastal Conservation League, Charleston Chapter of the Surfrider Foundation and Charleston Communities for Cruise Control, Petitions v. South Carolina Department of Health and Environmental Control and South Carolina State Ports Authority, respondents.

The hearing is scheduled for 10 a.m.

My cell phone number is 843-670-6364 and my email address is mporter@postandcourier.com.

My editor Robert Behre can be reached at 843-324-3618 or rbehre@postandcourier.com.

Please let me know if you need additional information for this request.

Thank you,

Mikaela Porter

While a cell phone may be brought into the Supreme Court Building, the cell phone may not be used in the courtroom, and must either be turned off or placed in silent mode while in the courtroom. The request to use a laptop during the arguments is denied. The requestor is reminded that video and audio of the proceeding will be available at www.sccourts.org/scvideo.
