ORDER

By order dated October 31, 2017, the South Carolina Court of Appeals dismissed this appeal based on petitioner's failure to timely serve the administrative law court with a copy of the notice of appeal. When no petition for rehearing or reinstatement was received, the Court of Appeals sent the remittitur on November 16, 2017.<sup>1</sup>

Petitioner has now filed a document dated April 10, 2019, seeking review from this Court. Since review of a decision of the Court of Appeals is sought by serving and filing a petition for a writ of certiorari under Rule 242 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR), this document has been construed as a petition for a writ of certiorari. The petition is dismissed for several reasons.

First, petitioner has failed to provide a proof of service showing that a copy of the petition has been served on opposing counsel as required by Rule 242(c), SCACR. This Court cannot consider this ex parte communication.

Second, under Rule 242(a) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR), this Court will only review a final decision of the Court of Appeals, and a decision is not final for the purposes of review until a petition for rehearing or reinstatement has been acted on by the Court of Appeals. Rule 242(c), SCACR. Since no petition for rehearing or reinstatement has been ruled on by the Court of Appeals in this matter, there is no final decision for this Court to review.

Finally, when no petition for rehearing or reinstatement was received by the Court of Appeals, the Court of Appeals sent the remittitur. Rule 221, SCACR. The sending of the remittitur ended appellate jurisdiction over this case. Wise v. S.C. Dept. of Corr., 372 S.C. 173, 642 S.E.2d 551 (2007).

Accordingly, the petition for a writ of certiorari is dismissed.

Re: Keith Myers #250863 v. SCDC
Appellate Case No. 2017-001843

Dear Mr. Myers:

This responds to your letter to Chief Justice Beatty dated February 26, 2019.

As you know, the administrative law court affirmed the decision of the South Carolina Department of Corrections and you appealed to the South Carolina Court of Appeals. That Court dismissed the appeal by order dated October 31, 2017. When you failed to make a timely petition for rehearing, the Court of Appeals sent the remittitur to the administrative law court ending appellate jurisdiction over the case. Wise v. S.C. Dept. of Corr., 372 S.C. 173, 642 S.E.2d 551 (2007).

In short, the decision of the administrative law court is the final decision in this matter, and do not understand what further action you are expecting to occur.

Very truly yours,

CLERK

South Carolina Department } Case No: 2017-001843
of Correction }
Respondent }

Appellant (Keith R. Myers, #250863) is asking the Honorable United State Court of Appeal Fourth Circuit ("USCA" or "Court") to except the appellant Motion to Appeal the final decision of the Supreme Court of South Carolina judge Beatty final Order under section 1-23-610; Standard of Review of the South Carolina Code (supp. 2015). Sets fourth the standard of review of a decision by the South Carolina Court of Appeal...

On Tuesday 30th of April 2019 the appellant received a letter of Order from the Supreme Court of South Carolina stating that their hold to the decision of the South Carolina of Appeal to dismiss the appellant Appeal base on the following grounds..

By Order dated October 31, 2017 the South Carolina Court of Appeal dismissed this appeal based on petitioner's failure to timely serve the Administrative Law Court with a copy of the Notice To Appeal. When no petition for rehearing or reinstatement was received the Court of Appeals, sent the Remittitur on the 16th of November 2017. Also it states...

First: Petitioner has failed to provide proof of service on opposing Counsel as required by Rule 242(c) SCACR.

Second: Under Rule 242(A) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rule (SCACR) this Court will only review a final decision of the Court of Appeal.

Finally: When no petition for rehearing or reinstatement was received the Court of Appeals, sent the Remittitur. Rule 242, SCACR.

It then states that, Accordingly, the petition for a writ of Certiorari is dismissed...

See Exhibit (A)

It was said that on the 31st of October 2017, the South Carolina Court of Appeal dismissed this Appeal based on petitioner failure to timely serve the Administrative law Court with a copy of the Notice to Appeal. And when petition for rehearing or reinstatement was received the Court of Appeal sent the Remittitur on the 16th of November 2017.

The appellant never received a letter from the South Carolina Court of Appeal stating that H/S (appellant) appeal was dismissed on the 31st of October 2017.

On the 30th of October 2017 the appellant received a letter from the South Carolina Court of Appeal stating that their ["SCAC" or "Court"] was returning $64.01 back into the appellant account for the Fee they told the appellant he would have to paid for filing Fee...

See Exhibit (B)

In October 2017 the appellant filed a Motion of Designation of Matter with the South Carolina Court of Appeals, on the 18th of October 2017 the South Carolina Court of Appeals, sent the appellant a letter letting him know that he had ten (10) days to file a Motion for Appellant Initial Brief and Designation of Matter outside of the filing deadline set by Rule 208 and 209 of the SCALR.

See Exhibit (c)

In which the appellant comply with the request and mailed out the Initial Brief and Designation of Matter on the 19th, 2017 of October.

Then on the 20th of October 2017, the appellant received a letter from the South Carolina Court of Appeal informing appellant that he has ten (10) days to correct all deficiencies in entirety or his Appeal would be dismissed.

See Exhibit (d)

Once again appellant comply with all the rules and send the South Carolina Court of Appeals, his Motion of Designation with all correction in entirety of all deficiencies and on the 8th of December 2017, the appellant received a letter from the South Carolina Court of Appeals, stating that they would no longer have jurisdiction on the case because it was Remittitur on the 16th of November 2017, Accordingly, no action will be on your 22nd of November 2017 filing, It did not state that the Appeal was Dismissed.

See Exhibit (E)

If the Appellant knew that he could have have to filed a Motion for rehearing or reinstatement after receiving that letter he would have, but when the South Carolina Court of Appeals, stated that there no longer has jurisdiction on the case and that no action will be on the appellant 22nd of November 2017 filing the appellant though that he had used up all his remedies/ Resources with the Appeal Court.

So the appellant wrote the Supreme Court of South Carolina when he didn't get a response from the Lower Court after a year and some months since his case was Remittitur to the Lower Court...

Then on the 8th of March 2019 the appellast received a letter from the Supreme Court of South Carolina stating that the Appeals Court of South Carolina dismissed my appeal and sent the remittitur to the administrative law court ending the final decision in this case...

See Exhibit (F)

The Appellant (Keith R. Myers, #250863) brings this claim pro se litigant before the United State Court of Appeal Fourth Circuit under: Gordon v LEEKE, 574 F 2d 1147, 1151 (4th cir.) 1978. and Boag v MacDougall, 454 US 364, 365 (1982)....
