ATTORNEYS FOR PETITIONER

ATTORNEY FOR RESPONDENT

It is respectfully submitted this Court should deny the Respondent's attempt to file a so-called "Supplemental Brief of Respondent", in a matter that has been fully briefed and "Ready for Consideration", in C-Track, for approximately 179 days. In his motion, Respondent has articulated no specific reason whatsoever for the extraordinary relief he is requesting – to file a "Supplemental Brief" far out of time and after the normal briefing process has concluded. Indeed, he offers nothing specific to go beyond the only accepted supplemental procedure -- Rule 208(b)(7), SCACR – which only allows supplemental citation of authority without argument. Additionally, while Respondent's use of the phrase "current facts and information" teases the curiosity, there is no mechanism short of remand to address factual issues in this particular matter at this appellate level.
