RE: National Trust for Historic Preservation v. City of North
Charleston
Appellate Case No. 2019-000728

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

Please be advised that I represent the City of Charleston in the above-referenced matter. Pursuant to Rule 207(a)(1), SCACR, I am enclosing communications I exchanged by electronic mail with the court reporter assigned to the circuit court's hearing in the above-referenced matter.

Please note that a copy of this letter, including all enclosures, is also being provided to opposing counsel and the Office of Court of Administration. Pursuant to Rule 207(a)(7), SCACR, copies of these correspondence have also been emailed to Court Administration. Thank you for your careful attention to this matter, and please let me know if you should have any questions or concerns.

With kindest regards, I am,

Very Truly Yours,

Daniel S. ("Chip") McQueeney, Jr.

Subject: Hearing in Case No. 2018-CP-10-0851 on December 10, 2018

Ms. Creppon:

I apologize, but I wanted to verify that you were the court reporter who handled the hearing in the above-referenced case, entitled National Trust for Historic Preservation in the United States and City of Charleston v. City of North Charleston. The case is pending in Charleston County, but the hearing occurred in Lexington County before Judge Eugene C. Griffith, Jr., on December 10, 2018.

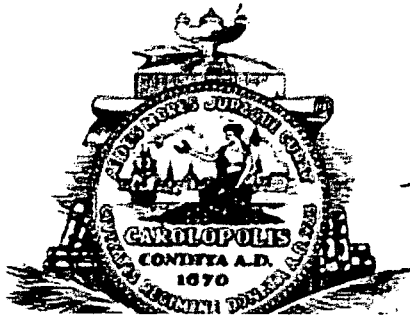

Pursuant to Rule 207(a)(1), I have copied all other counsel of record in the action, as well as the office of court administrator, to notify them of this communication. I represent the City of Charleston, which has not yet filed an appeal in the action.

Thank you for your help!
