Dear Ms. Allen;

I am in receipt of your letter stating that my Appeal is to be submitted during the month of June 2019.

I noted that the Record, and the Final Briefs of both parties were to be used. I am concerned that two very important items that were submitted as a part of this Appeal were not mentioned; namely the Flash Drive of the several sessions of Magistrate Court (which were submitted this way because I was told by the Clerk that she would not give me a paper transcript—and most of the actual quotes on my Final Brief are directly from this device.

AND the REPLY to Respondent's Final Brief, which is an integral part of my Appeal as well.

*May I request of the Court that these two items be taken into account in their Judgement, as well?

THANK YOU for your consideration.

Respectfully,

CC Attorney Sean Thornton
