THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA,

RESPONDENT,

v.

JUSTIN BRADLEY CAMERON

APPELLANT.

Petition for Extension
Initial Brief of Appellant

The Initial Brief of Appellant in the above captioned direct appeal is due for service and filing on today's date. Due to ongoing health issues, undersigned counsel has been unable to complete this brief by today's date. Counsel has discussed her situation with opposing Counsel, William M. Blicht, Jr., Senior Assistant Attorney General, and he has graciously consented to this request. Counsel has served Mr. Blicht with a copy of this petition by mail on today's date. (In compliance with In Re: Extensions in Criminal and Post-Conviction Relief Cases, S. C. Sup. Ct. Order dated March 18, 2009) (Davis Adv. Sh. No. 13 at 1). Counsel no longer has an associate in her law firm, and therefore, can not have another lawyer in her firm certify the necessity of the extension. Counsel assures this Honorable Court, however, that she would not seek this extension were it not necessary due to her current medical status. She will do her best not to require a further extension at this stage of this appeal.

Re: State of South Carolina v. Justin Bradley Cameron
Appellate Case No. 2018-001493

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

The Initial Brief of Appellant in this case is due today. I have tried my best not to need another extension in this matter, but my ongoing problems with my hip have made that impossible. Just this past Friday, I had an allergic reaction to one of the new medications they have started me on and that prevented me from getting any work done over the weekend. At this point, I am still awaiting a new surgery date which can't be set until an issue with my blood work is resolved. I have discussed this request with William M. Blicht, Jr., Senior Assistant Attorney General, and he has graciously consented to my request.

As always, I would note that I no longer have associates in my firm and therefore, have no other lawyers in my office to sign off on the necessity for this request. Your office has a note from my surgeon on file. If the Court should require an updated report from my orthopedic surgeon, I will be happy to request one. Despite the fact that he has already consented to this request, a copy of this petition will be sent to Mr. Blicht in today's mail. Thank you very much for your time and assistance in this matter. I remain,

Sincerely,

Tara Dawn Shurling
Attorney and Counselor at Law
