

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Jacob Tisdale, Deceased Claimant, Appellant,

v.

Williamsburg County Department of Special Needs,
Employer, and State Accident Fund, Carrier, Respondents.

Appellate Case No. 2017-001135

ORDER

Appellant has filed a motion to recall the remittitur and reinstate this appeal, a petition to rehear this court's April 24, 2019 opinion affirming the decision of the Workers' Compensation Commission, and a motion to allow the late filing of the petition for rehearing. Because the remittitur was not sent by mistake, error, or inadvertence of this court, Appellant's motion to recall the remittitur is denied, and we decline to act on Appellant's remaining filings. See Wise v. S.C. Dep't of Corr., 372 S.C. 173, 174, 642 S.E.2d 551, 551 (2007) ("When the remittitur has been properly sent, the appellate court no longer has jurisdiction over the matter and no motion can be heard thereafter."); id. ("The only exception to this rule is when the remittitur is sent down by mistake, error or inadvertence of the [c]ourt.").
