To whom it may concern:

This is Edward Anthony and I have a problem that needs to be cleared up at this time, and here are a list of some of them as well.

- (1) Starting on Exhibit (1), judge McIntosh write a letter to the Assistant Attorney General Julie Amanda Coleman of South Carolina. Now that was on November 23 2016, and still no correction has been made.
- (2) On Exhibit (2), the supreme courts sent it back down to the lower court of appeals in South Carolina, on March 26, 2019, and here is an error at hand.
- (3) Look at Exhibit (3) please, on February 04, 2019, and the highlighted paragraph. You see that I had 45 days to raise and argue any issues to consider on appeal. I have my letter to better help myself as well.. But the 45 days that I was promised in my case were never up when my case was transferred back down to the lower courts in error.
- (4) On Exhibit (5), March 27, 2019. My court appointed attorney Ms. LaNelle Cantey DuRant from the South Carolina Commission of Indigent Defense. Never told me, about the 45 days I was promised as you can see.

So in pro se to my response do I send the letter to the South Carolina court of appeals? I have my burden of proof to prove that there is an error in the law, because my Civil Rights have been violated, my conviction is VIOD.

Please In Thank You

Edward Anthony

Re: State of South Carolina v. Edward Anthony
CA # 2014-GS-02-01000

Ms. Coleman,

Please find the enclosed letters received from Mr. Edward Anthony, inmate number 363714 located at Trenton Correctional Institute, 84 Greenhouse Road, Trenton, SC 29847. The case was tried in 2015. The enclosed was received by my office after November 15, 2016.

To the extent the enclosed would constitute post-trial motions, they would be untimely and I would have no jurisdiction to hear them. Out of an abundance of caution the filing may constitute an application for post-conviction relief, I am forwarding the same to the Attorney General's Office to take such steps as they see necessary and/or prudent. By copy of this letter, I am notifying Mr. Anthony of this communication as well as his former trial attorney and the assistant solicitor at the time.

With kindest regards, I remain yours truly,

Re: Edward Anthony v. State
Appellate Case No. 2018-000628

Dear Petitioner:

Your counsel has submitted a petition for writ of certiorari indicating that this appeal is without merit and moves to be relieved as your counsel. Johnson v. State, 294 S.C. 310, 364 S.E.2d 201 (1988). The records of this Court reflect that counsel served you with a copy of the Petition and Appendix.

You may, within forty-five (45) days of the date of this letter, file with this Court a pro se response to the petition filed by your counsel. In this response, you may raise and argue any issues you believe the Court should consider in this appeal. Upon receipt of your pro se response or the expiration of forty-five (45) days, the matter will be submitted to the Court for its consideration.

If you do decide to file a pro se response, the response must be either typewritten or legibly hand printed, and must have at least a one inch margin on all sides. Further, you will need to only submit one copy of your response, and this copy should not be stapled or bound in any manner.

(3)

Very truly yours,

A handwritten signature in black ink, consisting of a large, stylized initial 'D' followed by a horizontal line that extends to the right and then loops back under the line.

Re: Your Case

Dear Mr. Anthony:

Enclosed is a copy of the order from the Supreme Court transferring your case to the Court of Appeals pursuant to Rule 243(l) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR). This is not a good thing or a bad thing. It is simply something the Supreme Court often does with PCR appeals.

If you have any questions or concerns about this order or your case, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

LaNelle Cantey DuRant
