SC Court of Appeals

Dear Honorable Clerk,

This Prose petitioner humbly seeks direction due to the ambiguity of the future deliberations on my behalf. Specifically, I received correspondence from your office dated March 1, 2019, stating that my case would be submitted before this honorable court for consideration "Without Oral Argument".

In the Court's most recent correspondence, dated June 18, 2019, it was stated that IF selected, Oral Argument will be held before the Court in Mid September or October.

With all due respect, I ask the Court for enlightenment pertaining to the following questions:

- 1). If my case is NOT selected for Oral Argument, how will the Court proceed in my case ?
- 2). Me being a Prose litigant, will counsel be appointed to me, will I be required to appear before the Court, or Both??

I apologize for ANY inconvenience my request might cause the Court, however, due to my disadvantage I have no alternative but to seek guidance from the source.

I Thank You for your time in this Urgent matter.

Respectfully,

c c . File
