Dear Mr. Shearouse

This is inmate Dwayne Starks SCDC#253926. Mr. Shearouse I wrote to you last week and I was just wondering if you understood what I was really trying to say. See my Post-Conviction relief appellate lawyer filed a Johnson Petition for writ of certiorari in the South Carolina Supreme Court and also a Petition to be relieved as Counsel and, as of the moment my Counsel filed these Petition I was without Counsel, I havnt been to school to study the law, so I didnt know that a Petition for rehearing had to be filed in an timely matter pursuant to Rule 221 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules. I sent you the letter my Post-Conviction relief Counsel sent me telling me that the appellate Court would contact me to let me know, I could send in a pro se brief but, like I said in my first letter the Court didnt contact me and, how was I to know, I had a time frame to file a petition. Mr. Shearouse I would like that letter I sent you last week, the letter Kathrina Hudgins sent me. Mr. Shearouse it's not right that the Court didnt contact me especially sense my Counsel petition to be relieved as Counsel.

Very truly yours,
Dwayne Starks

P.S.

I had to use Scott name on the envelope so I could write you back this week, cause I dont have any envelope.
