Appellate Case No. 2018-001842

June 25, 2019

TO: THE HONORABLE JUDGES OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA COURT OF APPEALS

RE: Respondents attorneys Motion for Final Extension of Time until June 28, 2019

Appellant has no problem with this extension; however, she would like to point out for the record that at no time has she seen any "extraordinary circumstances" for any of the requests for extension. However, she accedes to the Court of Higher knowledge and authority.

The Appellant would like to also add that she has taken these delays as a ploy for postponement and not in the interest of justice but definitely prejudicial in nature; and continues to show disrespect for Appellant's status as a PRO SE attorney. Appellant does not have an attorney but she does have a higher power that exceeds the three attorneys on this case or the forty-one attorneys with the Firm representing the Respondents.

Respectfully submitted
