IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS)
FIFTEENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT)

CIVIL ACTION NO. 2019-CP-26-01732)

ORDER
RECEIVED
JUL 11 2019
SC Court of Appeals

After hearing arguments from all attorneys on July 10, 2019, this Court understands that there may have been a misinterpretation of its Order for a Preliminary Injunction dated June 21, 2019. Therefore, this Court is not holding the Defendant in Contempt of Court pursuant to the Plaintiff's Rule to Show Cause. However, this Court is being extremely lenient with this ruling as the Complaint specifically makes clear in paragraphs 1, 7, 40, 42, and 43 that all municipalities in Horry County are included in this action. Additionally, there are specific references to all the municipalities throughout the Order for Preliminary Injunction, as well as specific references to all municipalities within Horry County throughout oral arguments. Additionally, the caption states "for itself and a class of similarly situated Plaintiffs."

For clarification, this Court is hereby making it clear that it's Order for a Preliminary Injunction dated June 21, 2019, includes not only Myrtle Beach but also Atlantic Beach, Aynor, Conway, Loris, North Myrtle Beach and Surfside Beach during the pendency of this action. As to Myrtle Beach, the Preliminary Injunction Order dated June 21, 2019, is already in full force and effect, and shall remain so for the pendency of this action. As to the remaining above mentioned municipalities, this Order for Preliminary Injunction shall take full force and effect on August 10, 2019, for the pendency of this action. All of the reasons as outlined in the Court's Order for Preliminary Injunction dated June 21, 2019, are incorporated herein and made a part hereof by specific reference thereto. Additionally, this Court believes that a bond as required by Rule 65 is not necessary and/or required for these parties.

Furthermore, after careful and deliberate consideration, the Defendant's Motion to Reconsider is hereby denied. Lastly, the parties are hereby ordered to provide the Court with a Scheduling Order within fifteen days from the date of this Order. If the parties cannot agree on a Scheduling Order then this Court will issue its own Order.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
