Re: Appeals Case Number 2016-002016

Please route this letter to Mrs. V. Claire Allen

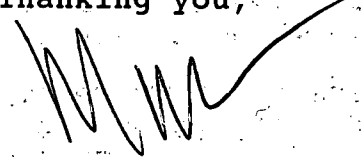

Dear Mrs. Allen:

I have noticed after looking at the C-Track system and the documents filed under Number 2016-002016, that there is one page missing from the paper Appellant Brief filed in the above case. There is a page 9 which contains the "Conclusion" of the brief, and also the Certificate of Service at the bottom of page 9.

I don't guess this really matters, since the paper brief is correct, but if someone looked at the C-track record instead the blue-backed paper brief, there would be a page left off. The scanning people used page 9 as the Certificate of Service, and placed page 9 in a different folder in the C-track system.

Could this please be corrected? All they have to do is to re-scan page 9, and place it at end of the brief. Copies are attached for your ready reference.

Thanking you,

Mell Woods

FINAL Brief for APPELLANT

Lancaster, SC 29721

CONCLUSION

Since the law was not followed in this case, appellant Mell Woods respectfully requests that this adverse possession case be remanded to the circuit court for a jury trial in the circuit court, and not the magistrate court. Or, in the alternative, that title to the land in question be adjudicated under SC Statute § 15-67-20 to be the land of appellant because of the three eviction cases filed.

Respectfully submitted,

This 10 day of June, 2019.
