

The Supreme Court of South Carolina

Andra Jamison, Petitioner,

v.

State of South Carolina, Respondent.

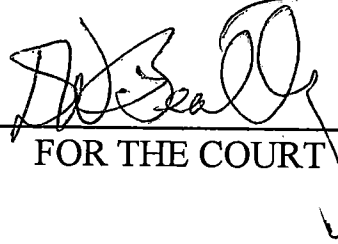

Appellate Case No. 2019-000031

ORDER

By order dated May 15, 2019, this Court informed Petitioner he could proceed pro se in this matter but that he could only do so after considering this Court's warnings about the dangers and disadvantages of proceeding pro se, also set forth in the order, and informing the Court, within twenty days, whether he still wished to proceed pro se or wished to continue to be represented by appointed counsel Adam S. Ruffin.

Petitioner has now filed a document entitled "Response to Order Dated May 15, 2019." Therein, Petitioner states he wishes to proceed pro se. Therefore, pursuant to our earlier order of May 15, 2019, Petitioner's request to proceed pro se is granted and Mr. Ruffin is hereby relieved as counsel.

The Commission on Indigent Defense, Division of Appellate Defense, shall remain associated for the limited purpose of obtaining and paying for any necessary transcript(s) and records and providing copies of the petition, appendix and briefs. Petitioner shall communicate with the Division of Appellate Defense for the purpose of coordinating these services. The Division of Appellate Defense shall mail Petitioner a copy of the transcript and any other records in its possession necessary for the preparation of the petition for a writ of certiorari and appendix and provide notice to this Court of the date of mailing. The petition for a writ of certiorari and appendix shall be due within thirty days of the date of mailing of the transcript to Petitioner.
