Re: State v. Roger Legette, Appellate Case No. 2019-000955

Dear Clerk Hitchins:

Attached please find a clocked copy of the Court Order relieving me and Ian Maguire, Esq., as court-appointed counsel for Roger Legette, effective June 4, 2019. I previously advised your staff on two earlier occasions that Mr. Maguire and I had been relieved as counsel by Judge Larry Hyman. Please update your records to reflect this information. Mr. Legette is representing himself. He is trying to comply with your deficiency letter and does not want to have his appeal lapse. He is in prison and it is very difficult for inmates to comply with tight time deadlines. I hope, for his sake, that you will keep that in mind.

Sincerely,

Diana Holt

ORDER

This matter was before the Court on June 4, 2019. During a hearing on this case the Defendant requested that the Court relieve his appointed counsel, Diana Holt and Ian Maguire. Counsel Holt and Maguire thereafter consented to being relieved as counsel for the Defendant. The Court granted the Defendant's request. Effective June 4, 2019, Diana Holt and Ian Maguire were relieved as counsel for Defendant Legette.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED

The Honorable Larry B. Hyman,
 Circuit Court Judge Presiding by
 Special Assignment of the SC
 Supreme Court.
