RE: State v. Michael Eugene Kelley, II
Appellate Case No: 2019-001215

Dear Michael:

I hope you are doing as well as can be under the circumstances. Attached are two (2) letters received from the S.C. Court of Appeals related to your appeal. Please note the new caption and appellate case number that has been assigned and must be referenced on any pleadings filed in the future on your behalf. Also, read the letters closely for all requirements that will need to be complied with in any such filings. It is important to note that within 20 days of the date of this letter, you or your legal representative, must "inform the court in writing of any arguable basis that there are issues preserved for appeal". All correspondence and pleadings on this matter must be directed to the South Carolina Court of Appeals at P.O. Box 11629, Columbia, SC, 29211.

Lastly, please allow this letter to confirm your understanding that I do not represent you for this appeal and will not be taking any action on your behalf from this point forward. As we previously agreed, I merely filed the Notice of Appeal to protect your rights and opportunity to appeal the guilty plea in Spartanburg General Sessions Court and/or your sentence. I wish you the best.

Sincerely,

David A. Braghirol
