Warrant No: 2017A1010205848
Appellate Case No: 2019-001218

August 5th, 2019

I, Kheal Gregory Aneis Brown am stating and explaining my reason why I should be granted Appeal and or re-judged by a different judge. He made his decision based on facts of an Attempted Murder charge, when I only pleaded guilty to Attempted Armed Robbery. Judge Roger M. Young gave the victim's family a chance to speak but they only said what the victim's advocates told them to say when the victim is 18 years of age and could have come to speak on his own behalf nothing was preventing him from appearing at the court appearance. Judge Young also ignored my family's right to speak on my behalf leading me to believe Judge Young made an unfair and one sided decision, being unfair to my mother who is struggling with stage 4 kidney cancer and my 3 year old daughter who will not really know her father following this unfair sentence I was given. I was also in the process of relieving my Public Defender "Megan S. Ehrlich" of her services because she neglected my case and lies to me on certain matter. She told me that this plea would be 2-10 years of Probation time and not time in prison. I am seeking appeal for unfair conviction.
