Dear Helen R. Doyell

I AM in receipt of the letter for intent to Appeal for case list above. Please be advised that my reason includes that the hearing was very confusing and rushed because I AM not familiar with your court system. Therefore, I had one week notice to be able to plan how to get to court and no time to view with my Esquire so my hands were tied as to not being able to have trial. In addition, Mr Matthews did not get to discuss trial but to be able to view the video. However, I was trying to get out of the way of the officer who then pulled me over and cited me for a "Blue Light" offense that my attorney and I had discussed in conversation. Furthermore thank you for the quick response to my appeal. Also, MVI offered a special privileges notice. This is a misdemeanor in M
