To Whom it may concern,

Court of Appeals I would like to inform you of why I'm asking for an appeal. First and for most I had a conflict of interest with my attorney a couple ways, one My attorney James Gaimore basically wanted to Point the finger at My Co-defendant. In which my Co-defendant was fighting a Attempted murder Charge against his step kids in which one wrote a Statement against him name Makayla Roeger. Also in my case noone wrote Statements at all or talked to the solizitor, but he "George Henry DeBusk Jr" made a false statement at my sentencing date. Stating My codefended said he was the driver of my vehical. That was false. Also the witness statements controdicted each other some Stated they saw 2 people go in the store others said 3. Video evidence clearly Shows only 2 people went in the store, neither my body size, also neither wearing what I was wearing which you can clearly see in the dash cam video once pulled over. My Co-defendants both are willing to write letters to the court informing them I only drove them to the store not knowing what was about to happen. In fact I was parked at My Co-defendants Aunt's house that's directly behind the store. I never knew what was going on until I was about to leave them and I seen them running. I have no Prior Charges besides traffiz tickets. IM writing to at least get my Charges dropped to something lesser. The Possession of cocaine charge was for a 20 bag in which they tested, so it was lesser than that but it only states Possesion not Possesion less than a gram, And I got the mat for that. I feel as if the biggest thing with my appeal is conflict of interest on my appointed attorney. Also the controditing witness statements, and George Debusk Statement he made at sentencing day. No Prior record at all, even out of State. Just hear me out please. Thanks for your time.

My Co-defendants are my Friends & his step kids do not like us everyone knows that. Do to accusations of the murder of there cousin Kris Williams a couple years ago in which I associated myself with the accused at that time.
