Dear Ms. Kitchings,

I am in receipt of Mr. Tillman's request for an extension to September 11, 2019. This reply may strike you as strange, but I am asking the Court to consider extending it to October. First, Mr. Tillman and I have had settlement negotiations that we are hopeful may resolve this case. Second, I am scheduled for open heart surgery on Tuesday, August 20th and the estimates for my hospital stay range from 2-7 days in I.C.U. and 7-30 days in the hospital. Naturally, I am hoping the shorter estimate is the accurate one, but it is possible that I still could be laid low when his brief is due on the 11th. My physicians have not discussed restrictions with me, but since stress caused this problem and since I will emerge with an artificial aorta, I am assuming, i.e. hoping, I will emerge immune from stress. Dum spiro spero. Please spread the word among the Bar as a cautionary tale—that stress really can take one down—even though I confess a small satisfaction in weighing now what I weighed in high school.

As always, I am grateful for the many courtesies your office and Mr. Tillman have extended to me. With kind regards, I am

Very truly yours,
