Re: Common Pleas Case No. 2012-CP-37-00902
Appellate Court Case No. 2017-000294

Dear Judge Lockemy:

Above all, congrats for a life of contribution, thank you.

I also thank you for having taken time from your busy schedule to review my case, however, I am concerned that I haven't heard from the Court lately, (I started this in 2008).

Summarizing, I initiated a legal case in Seneca, South Carolina, against a medical doctor—a one Marion McMillan—who treated me twice for back problems, and then retained me to organize and effectuate marketing services on his behalf, specifically, to open a second practice on Hilton Head Island where I live, but, although at first he agreed to pay me, he then reneged, and passed the job over to his wife.

I rendered McMillan marketing services and his clinic in the amount of about $31,800 US Dollars, but in an effort to resolve this matter quickly, I cut my losses and was compelled to sue smooth Dr. McMillan in Magistrate Court for a fraction of what he owed or $7,500.00, but instead of paying his debt he fired his old attorney, hired a new one, countersued, and removed the case from Magistrate to Common Pleas.

His countersuit was based on empty evidence. In other words, he's been delaying and avoiding payment, and giving me grief which is pitiful, while I am getting relentlessly old; on Sept. 15, I'll be 79.

Sincerely,

PASTENE
