RE: Bagley v. SCDPPPS, 2019-000934

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

Pursuant to Rule 208(7), SCACR, Supplemental Citations, please be advise that a pertinent and significant authority case has come to my attention after my initial brief was served and filed. The following citation, State v. Burdette, WL3437783 (SC July 31, 2019), which is novel or critical to the issues regarding extraordinary circumstances, S.C. Code Ann. §16-3-10, 2§16-3-20, and §16-3-50, of S.C. Code Ann., and error of law, along with an exception regarding a fundamental-misscarriage of justice, and it pertains to pages 1 through 6 of my initial brief. Additionally, the reason for the supplemental citation is to assist the Court to act on any error of law appearing in the record; findings of fact clearly erroneous; improper fact contributed to the jury verdict; preserved in the record of the case; and support on record on appeal transcript of proceedings 90-GS-40-5849, excerpts pp. 397-414.

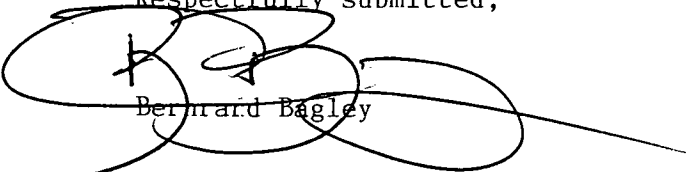

In addition, State v. Bagley, Unpublished Opinion 92-UP-165 (Ct.App. 1992), to assist the Court regarding my Statement of the Case in my initial brief.

Enclosed for filing is my Reply Brief of Appellant in the above case. Also enclosed are the following:

1. Proof of Service; and
2. Certificate of Counsel.

Thank you for your attention regarding this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

Bernard Bagley
