Re: Ballard v. Admiral Insurance Company, et al
Appellate Case No. 2019-000367

Dear Ms. Allen:

I received a copy of the Court's letter to Adele J. Pope, Esquire, indicating that her Respondent's Initial Brief and Designation of Matter are delinquent. Although I represent the Estate of Gloria P. Corley in this action and do not represent Mrs. Pope, individually, I am aware that Mrs. Pope is a sole practitioner and is currently traveling with limited connectivity.

Mrs. Pope's individual Initial Brief and Designation were filed on August 5, 2019, as mine on behalf of the Estate were delivered to the Court by the same courier and at the same time. Because Mrs. Pope may not return to her office in time to make a timely response to the Court's letter, I enclose file-stamped copies of her Brief and Designation, both with Proofs of Service, showing August 5th file stamps.

I hope this might clear up any confusion as to the filings Mrs. Pope has made individually. Again, I represent only the Estate of Gloria Corley and write solely as other counsel of record in this matter in hopes that I can clear up the issue in Mrs. Pope's absence.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Adam T. Silvernail
