RE: Gould v. Worldwide Apparel LLC, et al. Case No. 2016-002469

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

Respondent's Return to Appellant's Motion for Costs in the above matter is currently due Friday August 23, 2019. However, due to out of country travel previously scheduled, I must request a thirty (30) day extension of time in which to assess the motion, advise, and respond to this motion. If this request is granted, we have calculated the new deadline as September 22, 2019. I enclose a check in the amount of Fifty Dollars for the filing of this request.

By copy of this letter, this request is being served on Appellant's counsel, and have asked if they have any objection to this extension request. If a more formal motion is required, please let me know and I will prepare one forthwith. Thank you in advance for your kind consideration of this request.

Very truly yours,

John E. Schmidt, III
