Notice Regarding Transcript

Comes now appellant who is in receipt of the correspondence from the court of appeals clerk dated August 14, 2019 and received August 17, 2019 by Appellant. Appellant notifies this court and all parties to this appeal that there is no transcript to be ordered because there was no hearing requested by the Appellant when he filed his Presentment to Compel Arbitration/Motion to Stay Proceedings. Judge Diane S. Goodstein, the Judge of record provided her incorrect opinion in a letter which directed the clerk of common pleas court to enter a statement of judgment/order as the decision by the court to which the notice of appeal was directed to be appealed by the Appellant therefore, no transcript will be requested from the Court of Common Pleas as required under Rule 207 of South Carolina Appellate Court Rules. Any orders entered by this court to dismiss this case based off of a failure to file transcripts will be in error by this court.

Conclusion

For the reasons specified above, Appellant will not be requesting, ordering nor receiving a transcript from Dorchester County Common Pleas Court regarding their decision on appeal.
