Re: Aracelis Santos v. Harris Investment Holdings, L.L.C.
Case No.: 2018-CP-08-01008; Appellate Tracking Numbers 2019-00169 & 2019-001170

Dear Ms. Allen,

I am in receipt of your letter of August 13th regarding deficiencies in ordering transcripts. As you can see from the enclosed, I reported to the Court on July 25th that I ordered the pertinent transcripts of record. However, I made an error in omitting Appellate tracking number 2019-001170 from my July 25th letter. The two cases, 2019-001169 and 2019-001170, are the same case with the same parties, the dispute being, in part, over whether they were or were not improperly joined. In my letter ordering the transcripts, I inadvertently omitted reference to the 1170 tracking number.

Since ordering the transcripts we learned that I misidentified two of the court reporters, and that error has also been corrected. Unfortunately, I am out of time, so I will have to ask my assistant, Rebekah, to furnish you the particulars of the re-requested transcripts, which she accomplished electronically. She will furnish those details to you and opposing counsel. When I say "out of time," I report at 5:30 a.m. tomorrow morning for an open heart procedure that will require me to be hospitalized for an extended period of time. I hope, therefore, the Court will hold this matter in abeyance for at least four weeks, because I may receive the transcripts while hospitalized. I currently have less than 12 hours to complete a number of pre-surgical tasks required by the hospital. I appreciate any leniency the Court can extend under these extenuating circumstances. If you require a formal motion with a filing fee, please let my assistant, Rebekah Lambooy know, and she can arrange to have that done by one of several lawyers who have volunteered to cover for me. With kind regards, I am

Very truly yours,

BELK, COBB, INFINGER & GOLDSTEIN, P.A.
