

To: South Carolina Court of Appeals 8-20-19

Yes this is Marcus Haggins I do like to go with my appeal. With the error that was made on my sentence I should get a over turn on that sentence right. Plus I was appointed another lawyer. Because my first public defender did not give all of my information when I went in front of De Andrea G. Benjamin. On April 3, 2019. She did not tell my mental illness that I was PTSD an also my sickness or that I got bitten by a spider in the county Kershaw County jail. I did not receive this letter until Aug 7, 2019. Was when the mail room at Evans gave me this yellow envelop. You can call an ask them if you like because the letter was stamp an I sign for it.
