Re: Scott Richard Rowan v. State of South Carolina
Appellate Case No. 2018-000813

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

I am forwarding to the Court the attached document I received from appellant in the above-referenced case, which is currently on Anders review at this Court. I believe he meant to send this document to the Court as a pro se submission under the Anders procedure.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

David Alexander
Appellate Defender

APPELLATE DEFENSE

Brief.

My name is Scott Richard Rowan Jr. and have had that name since birth. No where was I charged as Scott jr. I am even in prison and in there system my name is Scott Richard Rowan. Anyone looking up information on Scott Rowan and not knowing my birth day would have found my father's information. I even read my name off on the stand.

The Judge continually cut off my lawyer's mid sentence. Sayin he understand that, when they never ~~got~~ got to finish there sentences.

My lawyer asked the judge to set aside the jury's vote. The judge said there was enough evidence to uphold the vote. But I was the only one to have any kind of proof that I did not do it, and they were even lying on the stand and it's on record and was played back for the jury on there request. The judge even stoped an email to my lawyer by my wife's lawyer during the custody hearing of my son Scott Rowan 3rd. The email that I gave my wife and Jaelyn STD's.

The Judge would not let the doctor that performed my last STD test testify to the jury. There was so much going on at this trial that showed my innocents and all they had was there word no proof. I am innocent please help me.

Thank you, Scott Richard Rowan Jr.
