RE: Amanda Griffith v. ISL Development, LLC and Steven P. Stewart
Appeal of Steven Stewart
Appellate Case No.: 2019-000738
Our File No: 2016-1248

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

This letter is to follow up my e-mail to the Court on Friday, September 6, 2019.

This is to request an additional extension of time within which to file Appellant's Initial Brief in the above case, because of the exigent circumstances presented by Hurricane Dorian. As explained in my attached e-mail, the combined results of the Labor Day holiday and the Governor's mandatory evacuation closed my law office for the full week of September 2nd – September 6th, 2019. Whereas I have drafted a substantial portion of the Brief, I was unable to complete my drafting because of the interruptions presented by the storm.

I request an additional thirty days. Whereas that much time may not be required for this Brief alone, my overall law practice schedule has been significantly impacted because of the storm's interruption.

Please also note from the email chain that opposing counsel does not oppose this request.

I am enclosing my check in the sum of $50.00 as the required filing fee for this request. Please advise me of the Court's disposition of this request at your first convenience.

The Honorable Jenny Abbott Kitchings
Clerk, South Carolina Court of Appeals

Ms. Carter – I just got back into town and just received Capers' message regarding his request for an extension, and I have no objection to anything he needs in this regard.

Capers – I am glad that you are safe and secure. Fortunately, I do not have any damages to my office either! I will talk with you next week.

Thanks and best regards -----Pat (cell 843-834-3426)

Subject: RE: Griffith vs. ISL Development and Stewart: Appellate Case No. 000738

Dear Ms. Carter:

This is to follow up our telephone conversations of this morning with you. I had spoken earlier with Jason in the office of the Supreme Court Clerk of Court, and I understand that Jason has spoken with Ms Kitchings about this issue.

I represent the Appellant Steve Stewart in the case of Griffith vs. ISL Development and Stewart, App. Case No. 000738. We have been granted one extension to file our initial brief, which is due on Monday, Sept. 9, 2019.

This is to request an additional thirty day extension because of the exigent circumstances presented by Hurricane Dorian. As you know, the Governor ordered an evacuation of coastal counties, including Charleston, effective on Labor Day, Monday September 2d. We were obligated to honor the Governor's order by releasing our support staff in our law office. The result is that we have been closed for a week as of today. Fortunately my office was not damaged and my computer /word processor/internet capacities were restored as of this morning. However, because of the circumstances presented by the storm I have been incapable of completing Appellant's initial brief; and neither do I have the staff to make this request of the Court in a more formal manner. I will send a formal request on Monday September 9th, with the required filing fee.

I have attempted to contact my friend and colleague, opposing counsel Pat Flynn about this request, but have been unable to reach him.

Thank you for your consideration, and with kind regards to all,

Capers Barr
