Appellate Case No. 2019-001501

SC Court of Appeals

James John Todd Kincannon Appellant,

v.

Ashely Suzanne Griffith, Moore Taylor Law
Firm, P.A., Vance Stricklin, and Amber Fulmer,.....

Respondents.

APPELLANT'S MOTION FOR LEAVE TO PROCEED IN FORMA PAUPERIS

-AND-

APPELLANT'S MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT OF MOTION FOR LEAVE TO PROCEED IN FORMA PAUPERIS

Appellant James John Todd Kincannon respectfully moves for leave to proceed in forma pauperis and further moves for a fifteen day extension to prepare and file the memorandum supporting the motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis as required by Rule 240(c)(2), SCACR. The grounds for the relief sought are as follows:

As to the Motion for Leave to Proceed In Forma Pauperis

1. Appellant James John Todd Kincannon, being duly sworn, states that does not have the funds available to pay the costs of filing the instant appeal or any motions that may be incident to this appeal, including this motion. Appellant hereby requests that the appeal and this motion, and any other necessary motions, be filed without costs.¹

2. Appellant James John Todd Kincannon, being duly sworn, states that his finances are accurately described in the attached Financial Declaration, SCCA Form 430 (12/09), filed in the circuit court in support of Appellant's motion to proceed in forma pauperis in that proceeding, a motion which was granted by the Hon. Alison Renee Lee on March 21, 2019.

3. Appellant James John Todd Kincannon, being duly sworn, states that his financial situation has not changed in any way since executing the Financial Declaration on March 19, 2019 and that all of the information therein remains accurate as of this writing. Appellant does not anticipate his financial situation changing in any material way during the pendency of this appeal.

As to the Motion for Extension of Time to File a Memorandum in Support

1. Rule 240(c)(2), SCACR requires the preparation and filing of a memorandum in support of each motion filed in a South Carolina appellate court that includes citations to authority supporting the relief sought and argument explaining to the appellate court why the authorities cited support the movant's request for relief.

2. Appellant is in the process of preparing a memorandum as required by Rule 240(c)(2) in support of the motion to proceed in forma pauperis and has diligently attempted to complete such memorandum to the best of his ability to file along with this motion but has been unable to complete the memorandum in the time allotted. Although the trial court granted Appellant's motion to proceed in forma pauperis, Appellant first learned of the necessity to file a second, separate motion with the Court of Appeals by letter from the clerk dated September 10, 2019 which granted Appellant ten days to respond. Appellant received the letter the afternoon of September 14, 2019, and since the five mailing days granted by Rule 6(e), SCRCP do not apply to appellate proceedings per Rule 263, SCACR, Appellant has had only five days to prepare this motion and the accompanying memorandum. That five day time period has proved insufficient for Appellant to prepare the memorandum because the law relating to in forma pauperis applications is, unfortunately, rather complicated, particularly with respect to federal constitutional matters which Appellant necessarily must address given the relative paucity of reported cases at the state level and vagueness of the state-level enactments governing in forma pauperis applications.

3. Appellant is further hampered by his disability status. Appellant suffers from untreated and severe attention deficit disorder (“ADD”), which cannot be treated because Appellant also suffers from bipolar disorder and Appellant’s psychiatric treatment providers have determined that ADD medication would dangerously exacerbate Appellant’s bipolar disorder and, therefore, Appellant’s ADD is untreated and causes him to be unable to prepare non-rudimentary legal filings on relatively short notice.

4. Accordingly, Appellant respectfully requests the Court grant him an extension of fifteen days to complete and file the memorandum supporting the motion to proceed in forma pauperis required by Rule 240(c)(2), SCACR. Appellant believes the foregoing constitutes good cause shown and Appellant further requests the extension as a disability accommodation pursuant to the Americans with Disabilities Act, as Appellant’s psychiatric condition is a qualifying disability and the accommodation requested is reasonable and will in no way prejudice court operations or opposing counsel.²

Verification

Appellant James John Todd Kincannon, first being duly sworn, hereby verifies under oath and penalty of perjury the accuracy of the foregoing statements of fact in this filing, all of which Appellant has personal knowledge of.

² Should the Court require any sort of documentation verifying that Appellant suffers from untreated attention deficit disorder and bipolar disorder, Appellant will arrange for his treatment providers to provide such documentation as quickly as possible upon receiving notice that the Court wishes the same to be provided.

1. A recent paystub should be attached to the Financial Declaration. To compute Principal Earnings from Employment, first determine whether you are paid semi-monthly, biweekly, or weekly. If you are paid semi-monthly, multiply the gross amount of your pay check by two. If you are paid biweekly, multiply the gross amount of your pay check by 26 and then divide by 12. If you are paid weekly, multiply the amount of your paycheck by 52 and divide by twelve. Round to the nearest whole dollar.
2. To compute Overtime, Tips, Commission, and/or Bonuses, take an average of your monthly earnings from overtime, tips, commission, bonuses, etc. from the past three years or the length of employment if employed less than three years (including this year).
3. To compute State, Local, and Social Security Tax deductions, use the same formula used to compute principal earnings in endnote 1 above, or consult or have your attorney consult an accountant.
4. Net monthly Income is equal to Total Gross Monthly Income minus Total Monthly Deductions.
5. Do not include any expense in the Monthly Expenses section that has already been included in the Deductions from Gross Monthly Income on page one of the Declaration.
6. Food Expense is to include the cost of groceries, toiletries, cleaning supplies, and casual eating out.
7. Auto Expenses are to include gasoline, oil changes, tune-ups, tire replacement, maintenance, and related items.
8. Maintenance for Household is to include appliance and household repairs, landscaping, house cleaning, pest control, pool service, alarm service, and other related items.
9. Clothing Expense is to include shoes and clothing purchases, clothing repair and alterations, and related items.
10. Laundry Expense is to include the cost of laundry service, dry cleaning, and related items.
11. Children's Incidental Expenses are to include allowance, summer camp, baby sitters, lessons, activities, participatory sports, and related items.
12. School Expense is to include tuition, supplies, field trips, dues, tutors, locker rentals, school lunches, and other related items.
13. Entertainment is to include movies, theater, vacations, sporting events, compact discs, digital video discs, and related items.
14. Adult Incidental Expenses are to include cosmetics, hair and nail care, books, magazines, newspapers, business dues, memberships, pets, charity, religious dues or tithes, gifts, bank charges, hobbies, and related items.
15. All Installment Loan Payments is the total amount itemized in Installment Loan Payments Section, which should include all loan payments not already listed as a monthly expense. Examples: home equity loan, credit cards, etc.
16. Indicate which spouse legally owes the payment (husband, wife, or joint).
17. Other property is to include automobiles (minus loan balance), boats (minus loan balance), furniture, furnishings, china, silver, jewelry, collectibles, and other personal property.
18. Itemize Financial Accounts such as checking, savings, credit union, money market, or certificate of deposit accounts in the Financial Accounts Section.
19. Itemize Publicly Held Stocks, Bonds, Securities, Stock Options and Mutual Funds (excluding retirement accounts) in the Publicly Held Stocks, Bonds, Securities, Mutual Funds Section.
20. Itemize each parcel of Real Estate in the Real Estate Section.
