INSTRUCTIONS - READ CAREFULLY

In order for this application to receive consideration by the Court, it shall be in writing (legibly handwritten or typewritten), signed by the applicant and verified (notarized), and it shall set forth in concise form the answers to each applicable question. If necessary, applicant may furnish his answer to a particular question on the reverse side of the page or on an additional page. Applicant shall make clear which question any such continued answer refers.

Since every application must be sworn under oath, any false statement of a material fact therein may serve as the basis of prosecution and conviction for perjury. Applicants should, therefore, exercise care to assure that all answers are true and correct.

If the application is taken in forma pauperis, it shall include an affidavit (attached at the back of the form) setting forth information which establishes that applicant will be unable to pay the fees and costs of the proceedings. When the application is completed, the original shall be mailed to the Clerk of Court for the County in which the applicant was convicted.

In a Criminal case, the 6th and 14th Amendments to the United States Constitution guarantee a defendant a fair trial by a panel of impartial and indifferent jurors.

In cases where a juror's impartiality is questioned after trial, it is appropriate to conduct a hearing in which the defendant has the opportunity to prove actual juror bias.

Personally, appeared before me the undersigned Notary Public, the affiant.

Cliffon Rogers Jr. who being duly sworn Stated as follows:

1. My name is Cliffon Rogers Jr. and I am over the age of eighteen years old.
2. I am a resident of Georgetown, South Carolina
3. That this affidavit is true and accurate, and it is based on my own personal knowledge provided by these persons named.
4. I am Jody Wards older brother.
5. I lived with my girlfriend Patty Weatherford in Greenacres mobile home park in the years 1997-2000. We rented from Mrs. Marissa and Mr. James David Cooper. I knew Mrs. Marissa Cooper from paying rent to her every month and that is also how she knows me. I don't know why she failed to disclose this information to the Judge/Court that I knew her as well as she knew me through this business relationship.
6. Marissa Cooper was a juror in my brother's case. She failed to disclose important information to the court and she should have never been allowed to be seated in on his trial.
7. I have no idea why Mrs. Marissa Cooper could be seated in my brother's jury trial, as we had a long business relationship as well as a long personal relationship prior to his March 2004 trial.

John Curtis McCoy, Petitioner, v. State of South Carolina, Respondent.

Prior History: [4] Appeal from Spartanburg County. Appellate Case No. 2010-178927. J. Derham Cole, Post-Conviction Relief Judge.

Disposition: REVERSED AND REMANDED.

Core Terms

Juror, juror misconduct, newly discovered evidence, summary dismissal, new trial, one year, concealment, discovery, sufficient reason, material fact, voir dire, allegations, untimely, inmate's, genuine

Case Summary

Procedural Posture

Petitioner inmate brought a post-conviction relief (PCR) petition against respondent State. The Spartanburg County trial court (South Carolina) summarily dismissed the application. The inmate appealed.

Overview

This was a second PCR petition. The inmate alleged recently discovered juror misconduct. The trial court summarily dismissed the petition, finding that the claim was untimely because it was not filed within one year of trial. The trial court also found that the claim was successive because it could have been raised in the first PCR application and that the inmate failed to prove a claim based on newly discovered evidence. The appellate court found that summary dismissal was error. Under S.C. Code Ann. § 17-27-45(A), the one-year period began the date the remittitur was sent by the appellate court not the date of conviction. Further, the discovery rule in § 17-27-45(C) allowed one year after the discovery of material facts not previously presented and heard that required vacation of the conviction or sentence to file a PCR application. The inmate argued he did not discover the misconduct until November 2009, and he promptly filed his second PCR application after making that discovery. Because this claim was not conclusively refuted by the record, summary dismissal was error. There was also find a fact issue as to whether the claim was successive under S.C. Code Ann. § 17-27-90.

Outcome

The judgment was reversed and the case was remanded for an evidentiary hearing.

HN1 [2] Criminal Law & Procedure, Postconviction Proceedings

A post-conviction relief (PCR) application ordinarily must be filed within one year after a conviction or, if a direct appeal is taken, one year after the remittitur is sent to the trial court. S.C. Code Ann. § 17-27-45(A) (2003). However, § 17-27-45(C) provides that if a PCR applicant discovers material facts not previously presented and heard that require vacation of his conviction or sentence, he may file a PCR application within one year after the date of actual discovery or after the date when the facts could have been ascertained by the exercise of reasonable diligence.

discovered evidence standard, as it does not lend itself to properly evaluating a claim of juror misconduct. In addition, the Clark framework is not conducive for determining whether a PCR applicant is entitled to a hearing where intentional juror concealment is alleged. The standard test governing newly discovered evidence is properly applied when relief is sought based on evidence discovered post-trial that is material to the accused's guilt or innocence. However, juror misconduct discovered post-trial is not properly considered "newly discovered evidence"; rather, it is a separate basis for a new trial. Because juror misconduct is a separate basis for a new trial, it is governed by a separate standard. Provided a claim is timely raised, a new trial is warranted on the basis of juror misconduct if it is shown that (1) the juror intentionally concealed information, and (2) the information concealed would have supported a challenge for cause or would have been a material factor in the use of the party's peremptory challenges.

HNS Criminal Law & Procedure, Postconviction Proceedings

In the context of post-conviction relief allegations involving juror misconduct, the standard five-pronged newly discovered evidence test, as set forth in Clark, has no application and should not be used as the basis for summary dismissal. Rather, juror concealment claims are governed by the analysis set forth in Woods, and such case-by-case determinations are most appropriately made after a hearing, which allows the factual circumstances to be more fully developed.

Opinion

[*366] [*625] ON WRIT OF CERTIORARI

JUSTICE KITTREDGE: Petitioner John Curtis McCoy appeals the summary dismissal of his second post-conviction relief (PCR) application, which alleged recently discovered juror misconduct, on the grounds it was successive, untimely, and failed to prove a newly discovered evidence claim. We reverse and remand this matter for an evidentiary hearing. Further, for the benefit of the bench and the bar, we clarify the proper legal standard for claims involving juror misconduct.

I.

Petitioner was indicted for first-degree burglary and assault and battery with intent to kill. Petitioner's case was called to trial on June 14, 2005. During voir dire, at defense counsel's request, the trial [*625] judge asked the potential jurors if they were related by blood or marriage to any person employed in the Seventh Circuit Solicitor's office. Seven potential jurors responded affirmatively; however, Juror 84, who ultimately served on the final jury panel, did not respond or disclose that her cousin was married to the Seventh Circuit Solicitor. The defense exercised only four of its ten peremptory strikes during the jury selection process. At the conclusion of his trial, Petitioner was convicted of both offenses.

[*367] Following the dismissal of his direct appeal and first PCR application, Petitioner reviewed a fellow inmate's case in November 2009 and discovered the inmate's trial took place the day after Petitioner's. The inmate's trial was before a different trial judge but in the same courthouse. During voir dire for the inmate's trial, Juror 84—the same juror who served on the final panel in Petitioner's trial—advised the court that her cousin

A post-conviction relief (PCR) applicant must allege all available grounds for relief in his original application; any ground not raised in the original application may not be the basis for subsequent applications unless the court finds a ground for relief asserted which, for sufficient reason, was not raised in the original application. S.C. Code Ann. § 17-27-90.

A post-conviction relief (PCR) court may grant a motion by either party for summary disposition of the PCR application when there is no genuine issue of material fact and the moving party is entitled to judgment as a matter of law. S.C. Code Ann. § 17-27-70(c). When considering the State's motion for summary dismissal, where no evidentiary hearing has been held, the PCR judge must assume facts presented by the applicant are true and view those facts in the light most favorable to the applicant. Where an applicant alleges facts that would establish an exception to either the statute of limitations or the prohibition against successive PCR applications and those facts are not conclusively refuted by the record before the PCR court, a question of fact is raised which can only be resolved by a hearing.

The time limitation in S.C. Code Ann. § 17-27-45(A) provides that, where a defendant appeals his conviction, the one-year period for a post-conviction relief (PCR) petition begins the date the remittitur is sent by the appellate court-not the date of conviction. Further, § 17-27-45(C) allows one year after the discovery of material facts not previously presented and heard that require vacation of the conviction or sentence to file a PCR application.

S.C. Code Ann. § 17-27-90 permits an applicant to file a subsequent post-conviction relief (PCR) petition application only if the applicant demonstrates a sufficient reason why the claims asserted therein were not asserted previously.

Summary dismissal of a post-conviction relief application without a hearing is appropriate only when it is apparent on the face of the application that (1) there is no need for a hearing to develop any facts and (2) the applicant is not entitled to relief.

Where a post-conviction relief (PCR) applicant alleges juror misconduct, the Supreme Court of South Carolina rejects application of the Clark five-pronged newly was not raised in the original application. S.C. Code Ann. § 17-27-90.

HN3 [¶] "The [PCR] court may grant a motion by either party for summary disposition of the [PCR] application when . . . there is no genuine issue of material fact and the moving party is entitled to judgment as a matter of law." S.C. Code Ann. § 17-27-70(c). When considering the State's motion for summary dismissal, where [7] no evidentiary hearing has been held, the PCR judge must assume facts presented by the applicant are true and view those facts in the light most favorable to the applicant. Leamon v. State, 363 S.C. 432, 434, 611 S.E.2d 494, 495 (2005) (citing S.C. Code Ann. § 17-27-80). Where an applicant alleges facts that would establish an exception to either the statute of limitations or the prohibition against successive PCR applications and those facts are not conclusively refuted by the record before the PCR court, a question of fact is raised which can only be resolved by a hearing. Cf. Delaney v. State, 269 S.C. 555, 556, 238 S.E.2d 679, 679 (1977).

As to the timeliness issue, we conclude the PCR judge misconstrued section 17-27-45(A) in finding Petitioner was required to file his claim within one year after his trial, rather than one year after the remittitur was sent from his direct appeal. HN4 [¶] The time limitation in § 17-27-45(A) provides that, where a defendant appeals his conviction (as Petitioner did), the one-year period begins the date the remittitur is sent by the appellate court—not the date of conviction. Further, the PCR judge apparently overlooked the discovery rule in section 17-27-45(C), [8] which allows one year after the [627] discovery of "material facts not previously presented and heard that require[] vacation of the conviction or sentence" to file a PCR [370] application. Petitioner argued he did not discover the juror's misconduct until November 2009, and he promptly filed his second PCR application after making that discovery. Because Petitioner's claim that he is entitled to the benefit of the discovery rule is not conclusively refuted by the record, the PCR judge erred by summarily dismissing Petitioner's claim.

We also find a genuine issue of fact exists as to whether Petitioner's claim is successive under HN5 [¶] section 17-27-90, which permits an applicant to file a subsequent PCR application only if the applicant demonstrates a sufficient reason why the claims asserted therein were not asserted previously. Petitioner avers he has demonstrated sufficient reason why his claim was not included in his first PCR application in that the juror's misconduct was not discovered until after his first PCR application was dismissed. However, the State contends the juror's misconduct could have been discovered earlier through the exercise of due diligence, and, therefore, Petitioner has failed [9] to state a "sufficient reason." Based on this factual dispute, a hearing is necessary to resolve this critical issue.

Although Petitioner's PCR claim may ultimately prove to be untimely, successive, or perhaps unsuccessful on the merits, the PCR judge erred in granting the State's motion for summary dismissal because genuine issues of material fact exist as to whether Petitioner's PCR claim is successive or untimely. See Leamon, 363 S.C. at 434, 611 S.E.2d at 495 (citing S.C. Code Ann. § 17-27-70(b)-(c)) (noting HN6 [¶] summary dismissal of a PCR application without a hearing is appropriate only when it is apparent on the face of the application that (1) there is no need for a hearing to develop any facts and (2) the applicant is not entitled to relief).

B.

For the benefit of the bench and bar, we address the frequent but erroneous application of the standard newly discovered evidence framework in summarily dismissing PCR claims involving juror misconduct. HN7 [¶] Where a PCR applicant alleges juror misconduct, we reject application of the Clark five-pronged newly discovered evidence standard, as it does not lend itself to properly evaluating a claim of juror misconduct. [371] In addition, the Clark framework [10] is not conducive for determining whether a PCR applicant is entitled to a hearing where intentional juror concealment is alleged.

The standard test governing newly discovered evidence is properly applied when relief is sought based on evidence discovered post-trial that is material to the accused's guilt or innocence. See, e.g., State v. South, 310 S.C. 504, 507, 427 S.E.2d 666, 668 (1993) (noting that to obtain a new trial based on newly discovered evidence, the evidence must be material to the issue of guilt or innocence). However, juror misconduct discovered post-trial is not properly considered "newly discovered evidence"; rather, it is a separate basis for a new trial. See, e.g., State v. Sheppard, 155 Vt. 73, 582 A.2d 116, 118 (Vt. 1990) (noting evidence of juror misconduct is not properly considered newly discovered evidence because it has no bearing on the issue of innocence or guilt and does not concern the substance of the State's case or an accused's defense).

Because juror misconduct is a separate basis for a new trial, it is governed by a separate standard. Provided a was married to the Seventh Circuit Solicitor.

A few days after making this discovery, Petitioner filed his second PCR application, arguing he was denied his Sixth Amendment right to a trial by an impartial and objective jury. In support of his claim, [3] Petitioner submitted an excerpt of the voir dire transcript wherein Juror 84 revealed her relationship to the Solicitor and a copy of defense counsel's requested voir dire from his own trial, which included the specific question to which Juror 84 failed to respond. Petitioner argued that Juror 84's concealment deprived him of information material to his intelligent use of peremptory challenges, which, in turn, deprived him of his constitutional right to trial by an impartial jury. Petitioner averred that, if he had been aware of the juror's relationship to the Solicitor at trial, his use of peremptory challenges would have been different. Petitioner further argued he could not have previously raised this issue because the juror's concealment of her relationship to the Solicitor, in and of itself, rendered the information unavailable to him until four years after trial when he discovered the information in a fellow inmate's case file. As noted, this occurred after both his direct appeal and first PCR application were dismissed. Petitioner further contended his claim fell within the "discovery rule" exception to the one-year limitation period and was therefore timely.

The State filed [4] a motion to dismiss Petitioner's PCR application, arguing it was successive and barred by the statute of limitations. Regarding successiveness, the State claimed Petitioner failed to present sufficient reason why he could not have raised the current allegations in his previous PCR application. Further, the State contended the application was untimely because it was not filed within the one-year limitation period applicable to PCR actions. The State also contended Petitioner's claim "that he has discovered evidence that he was not tried by a fair and impartial jury lack[ed] merit" because [68] Petitioner failed to provide any corroborating information or demonstrate how his allegations satisfied the five-pronged test for newly discovered evidence.¹

To obtain a new trial based on after discovered evidence, the party must show that the evidence:

(1) would probably change the result if a new trial is had;

(2) has been discovered since trial;

[626] The PCR judge granted the State's motion for summary dismissal, finding Petitioner's claim was untimely because it was not filed within one year of trial. The PCR judge also found Petitioner's claim was successive because it could have been raised in his first PCR application and failed to prove a claim based on newly discovered evidence. Specifically, the PCR judge found that, because Petitioner failed to "offer any detail as to how this information would have affected his trial had it been known at that time, or how and when it was discovered," Petitioner failed to establish "sufficient reason" why the current allegations could not have been raised in his previous PCR application. We granted certiorari to review the PCR judge's summary dismissal of Petitioner's claim.

II.

A.

Petitioner argues his second PCR application should not have been summarily dismissed and asks this Court to reverse and remand this matter for a hearing. We find summary dismissal was error because genuine issues of material fact exist as to whether Petitioner's claim is successive or barred by the statute of limitations.

HN1 [] A PCR application ordinarily [6] must be filed within one year after a conviction or, if a direct appeal is taken, one year after the remittitur is sent to the trial court. S.C. Code Ann. § 17-27-45(A) (2003). However, section 17-27-45(C) provides that if a PCR applicant discovers "material facts not previously [69] presented and heard that require[] vacation of [his] conviction or sentence," he may file a PCR application "within one year after the date of actual discovery . . . or after the date when the facts could have been ascertained by the exercise of reasonable diligence."

HN2 [] A PCR applicant must allege all available grounds for relief in his original application; any ground not raised in the original application may not be the basis for subsequent applications unless the court finds a ground for relief asserted which, for sufficient reason,

(3) could not have been discovered before trial;

(4) is material to the issue of guilt or innocence; and

(5) is not merely cumulative or impeaching.

Id. at 387-88, 434 S.E.2d at 267 [5] (citing Hayden v. State, 278 S.C. 610, 299 S.E.2d 854 (1983)).

claim is timely raised, a new trial is warranted on the basis of juror misconduct if it is shown that (1) the juror [11] intentionally concealed information; and (2) the information concealed would have supported a challenge for cause or would have been a material factor in the use of the party's peremptory challenges. See State v. Woods, 345 S.C. 583, 587-89, 550 S.E.2d 282, 284 (2001) (finding that a juror's intentional failure to disclose a relationship gives rise to an inference of bias and rejecting the State's argument that a new trial should be warranted only where an individual shows he was prejudiced by the juror's failure to disclose information); State v. Kelly, 331 S.C. 132, 145-46, 502 S.E.2d 99, 106-07 (1998) (recognizing that trial judges and attorneys cannot fulfill their duty to screen out [628] biased jurors without accurate information and finding that the first inquiry in the juror disqualification analysis is whether the juror intentionally concealed information during voir dire). Further, HNS [] evaluating the merits of a juror misconduct claim is a fact-intensive inquiry, which is most appropriately conducted after a hearing. See State v. Sparkman, 358 S.C. 491, 496, 596 S.E.2d 375, 377 (2004) [*372] ("Whether a juror's failure to respond [during voir dire] is intentional is a fact intensive determination [12] that must be made on a case-by-case basis.").

End of Document

Therefore, HNS [] in the context of PCR allegations involving juror misconduct, the standard five-pronged newly discovered evidence test, as set forth in Clark, has no application and should not be used as the basis for summary dismissal. Rather, juror concealment claims are governed by the analysis set forth in Woods, and such case-by-case determinations are most appropriately made after a hearing, which allows the factual circumstances to be more fully developed.

III.

For the reasons stated above, we find the PCR judge erred in summarily dismissing Petitioner's application because genuine issues of material fact exist as to whether his claim is successive or time-barred. Thus, we reverse the dismissal of Petitioner's second PCR application and remand the matter for a hearing. If, upon remand, the court determines Petitioner's claim is not untimely or successive, the court shall consider the merits of the second PCR application.

REVERSED AND REMANDED.

This matter comes before the Court by way of an application for post-conviction relief filed by Jody L. Ward (Applicant) on May 21, 2018. Respondent made its Return, requesting the application be summarily dismissed.

I. PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Applicant is confined in the South Carolina Department of Corrections pursuant to orders of commitment of the Georgetown County Clerk of Court. Applicant was indicted at the July 2003 term of the Georgetown County Grand Jury for two counts of murder (2003-GS-22-01030, -01031). Margaret Ann Kneece, Esq., and J. Wesley Locklair, III, Esq. represented Applicant. J. Gregory Hembree, Esq., and Robert B. Bryan, Esq., of the Fifteenth Circuit Solicitor's Office, prosecuted the case. On March 15, 2004, Applicant proceeded to trial before the Honorable Paula H. Thomas and a jury. The jury found Applicant guilty as indicted on March 18, 2004. Judge Thomas sentenced Applicant to imprisonment for concurrent terms of life.

Applicant filed a timely notice of appeal and a direct appeal was perfected by Robert M. Dudek, Esq. filing a brief pursuant to Anders v. California, 386 U.S. 738 (1967). The South Carolina Court of Appeals dismissed Applicant's appeal by unpublished opinion. State v. Ward, Op. No. 2007-UP-048 (S.C. Ct. App. filed Jan. 26, 2007). Applicant thereafter filed a petition for writ of certiorari in the Supreme Court of South Carolina, but thereafter requested to withdraw the petition by letter dated June 29, 2007. The Remittitur was issued on July 6, 2007.

First PCR Application: 2007-CP-22-00915

Applicant filed his first application for post-conviction relief on July 11, 2007 (2007-CP-22-00915). He broadly alleged ineffective assistance of counsel in the original application, but ultimately proceeded on the following grounds by amendment filed April 9, 2008:

1. Ineffective assistance of counsel, in that:
 - a. Counsel failed to object to the solicitor's comments on lack of remorse in his closing argument;
 - b. Counsel failed to object to the solicitor's vouching for the State's witnesses and injecting his personal opinions;
 - c. Counsel failed to object to the solicitor's comments regarding the Applicant's credibility and the defense's theory; and
 - d. Counsel failed to request jury instructions on manslaughter and involuntary manslaughter

Respondent made its return on October 5, 2007, and an evidentiary hearing into the matter was convened on May 1, 2008, before the Honorable Steven H. John. Applicant was present at the hearing and represented by Bobby G. Frederick, Esq. Christina J. Catoe, Esq., of the South Carolina Attorney General's Office, represented Respondent. Applicant testified on his own behalf; J. Wesley Locklair, Esq., and Margaret Ann Kneece, Esq. also testified. By written order dated May 15, 2008, and filed May 19, 2008, Judge John denied and dismissed the application. Applicant timely filed a motion to alter or amend the judgment pursuant to Rule 59(e), SCRPC, which was denied by order filed August 13, 2008.

Applicant filed a timely notice of appeal and a petition for writ of certiorari was filed by Robert M. Pachak, Esq. on Applicant's behalf, who raised the following issues:

1. Whether defense counsels were ineffective in failing to object to numerous errors in the solicitor's closing arguments such as to render petitioner's trial being unfair?
2. Whether defense counsels were ineffective in failing to request or put on the record requests to charge on the lesser included offenses of voluntary and involuntary manslaughter.

Respondent filed its Return on February 13, 2009. On August 20, 2009, the Supreme Court of South Carolina denied the petition by letter order. Ward v. State, S.C. Sup. Ct. filed Aug. 20, 2009. The Remittitur was issued on September 8, 2009.

Second PCR Application: 2009-CP-22-01074

Applicant filed his second application for post-conviction relief on July 13, 2009 (2009-CP-22-01074). He alleged the following grounds for relief in his application:

1. Ineffective assistance of counsel, in that:
 - a. Counsel failed to convey a plea offer.

Applicant argued the allegation arose from the then-recent decision in Davie v. State, 381 S.C. 601, 675 S.E.2d 416 (2009) (decided March 9, 2009). Respondent made its return and motion to dismiss on August 12, 2009, arguing Davie was inapplicable. On October 9, 2009, the Honorable Benjamin H. Culbertson issued a Conditional Order of Dismissal, and then a Final Order on January 13, 2010, dismissing the matter with prejudice.

Applicant filed a timely notice of appeal and a pro se petition for writ of certiorari, which raised the following issues:

1. "Did the lower court [err] by determining in its Final Order of Dismissal that the Petitioner's post-conviction relief action was barred by the statute of limitations and impermissibly successive when the Respondent's waived / abandoned / relinquished any such known legal right as a matter of law?"
2. "Did the lower court [err] by determining in its Final Order of Dismissal that the Petitioner's post-conviction relief action was barred by the statute of limitations and impermissibly successive, where court's findings and facts and conclusions of law in the conditional order of dismissal wasn't barring Petitioner as to [the] statute of limitation and being impermissibly successive?"

The Supreme Court of South Carolina dismissed Applicant's appeal on March 15, 2010, for failure to show an arguable basis the lower court determination was improper. Ward v. State, S.C. Sup. Ct. Order filed March 15, 2010. The Remittitur was issued on March 31, 2010.

Third PCR Application: 2010-CP-22-00733

Applicant filed his third application for post-conviction relief on May 4, 2010 (2010-CP-22-00733). He alleged the following grounds for relief in his application:

1. "Seeking relief based on New Rule of Law[;] See [State v. Belcher, 385 S.C. 597, 685 S.E.2d 802 (2009)]"
 - a. "The jury instructions in my case are unconstitutional under Belcher's opinion."

Respondent made its return and motion to dismiss on June 1, 2010, arguing Belcher did not have retroactive applicability. On June 15, 2010, the Honorable Benjamin H. Culbertson issued a Conditional Order of Dismissal, and then a Final Order on July 29, 2010, dismissing the matter with prejudice.

Applicant filed a timely notice of appeal and a pro se petition for writ of certiorari which raised the following issues:

"Did the circuit court err in holding that Petitioner was not entitled to the benefit of Francis v. Franklin, [471 U.S. 307 (1985)]; and Sandstrom v. Montana, [422 U.S. 510 (1979)] on collateral review to invalidate his conviction due to improper burden-shifting instruction at his trial on malice charge?"

Respondent filed its return on August 17, 2010. On August 18, 2011, the Supreme Court of South Carolina denied the petition by letter order. Ward v. State, S.C. Sup. Ct. Order filed Aug. 18, 2011. The Remittitur was issued on September 7, 2011.

Federal Habeas Petition: 0:11-3277-RBH-PJG

Applicant subsequently filed a pro se Petition for Habeas Corpus under 28 U.S.C. § 2254 on February 2, 2012 (C.A. No. 0:11-3277-RBH-PJG). In his Petition, Applicant set forth the following grounds for relief, as restated in the Report and Recommendation:

1. "The Trial Court and subsequent reviewing court's erred in ruling Petitioner waived his right to counsel when Weaver interrogated Petitioner, after Law Enforcement knew Petitioner was attempting to contact his attorney prior to Petitioner meeting with the Assistant Sheriff Weaver. Law enforcement also was aware that Petitioner had invoked his right to counsel upon his arrest and therefore under the facts of the case the statements should have been suppressed."
2. "The State Courts erred in failing to find defense counsels ineffective in failing to object to numerous errors in the solicitor's closing argument that such argument rendered Petitioner's trial as being unfair and a denial of due process?"
3. "The PCR Court and subsequent reviewing court's erred in failing to find counsels rendered ineffective assistance of counsel, when counsel(s) failed to convey plea offers to Petitioner prior to trial?"
4. "The State PCR Court and subsequent reviewing courts erred in failing to find Petitioner's jury instructions were unconstitutional under State v. Belcher?"
5. "The State PCR Court erred in failing to find counsel ineffective for failing to object to the solicitor's improper closing that denied Petitioner his right to a fair trial."
6. "The State Supreme Court erred in failing to find counsel rendered ineffective assistance when counsel improperly told the jury if any mistakes are made a 'higher court' will take care of the error and thus counsel's improper argument tipped the scales in favor of the State and lessened the State burden of proof."
7. "The State Supreme Court erred in failing to find counsel ineffective for failing to object to the unconstitutional burden shifting jury instructions given during trial. This decision as unreasonable and contrary to clearly established federal law."

Respondent filed its Return and Motion for Summary Judgment on May 11, 2012. The Honorable Paige J. Gossett, United States Magistrate Judge, issued on February 15, 2013, a Report and Recommendation that Respondent's motion for summary judgment be granted. Ward v. Warden of Lieber Corr. Inst., 0:11-3277-RBH-PJG, 2013 WL 1187133 (D.S.C. 2013). Applicant timely objected. The Honorable R. Bryan Harwell, United States District Judge, denied Applicant's Petition on March 20, 2013 and accepted the Report and Recommendation for summary judgment. Ward v. Warden of Lieber Corr. Inst., 0:11-03277-RBH-PJG, 2013 WL 1187112 (D.S.C. 2013). Applicant gave timely notice of his appeal to the Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals, which dismissed Applicant's appeal on August 14, 2013, for want of a certificate of appealability. Ward v. Warden of Lieber Corr. Inst., 538 Fed.Appx. 257 (4th Cir. 2013). Applicant thereafter filed a petition for writ of certiorari in the Supreme Court of the United States, which denied the petition on March 24, 2014. Ward v. McCabe, 134 S.Ct. 1543 (2014).

Motion for New Trial of May 16, 2012

On May 16, 2012, Applicant filed pro se a "Motion for New Trial Based on After Discovered Evidence" pursuant to Rule 29(b), SCCrimP. Applicant filed the motion based upon a purported letter from another person claiming to have hired the victims to kill Applicant. By Order dated and filed July 31, 2012, the Honorable Benjamin H. Culbertson denied the motion for a new trial.

Applicant timely filed a notice of appeal and a pro se brief, which raised the following issues, as restated in the Initial Brief of Respondent:

1. Whether the court erred by denying appellant's Motion for New Trial based on After Discovered Evidence S.C.Crim.R 29(b), Motion for Appointment of Counsel, and Motion for Private Investigative, and expert Funds/Expenses, Under Due Process and Equal Protection of Law, U.S. Const. Amend. XIV § 1., and Ake v. Oklahoma, 470 U.S. 68 (1985)?
2. Whether the court erred by denying appellant's Motion For Reconsideration, And Motion To Arrest of Judgment Of Order denying Motion For New Trial, In a violation of Due Process And Equal Protection of Law, U.S. Const. Amend. XIV §1, And in a violation of Ake v. Oklahoma, 470 U.S. 68 (1985) Since appellant Is a Mental Health Patient, And IT being a Conflict of Interest Within the Clerk of court's Office, and since the Lieber Mailroom held the Affidavit Of Rondie J. Ward that Clearly supported the Motion For New Trial?
3. Whether the court erred by denying Motion For New Trial, based on After Discovered Evidence S.C.R.Crim.P Rule 29(b); Motion For Appointment Of counsel; Motion For Private Investigative and expert Funds/Expenses; Motion For Reconsideration And Motion To Arrest of Judgment that resulted in an abuse of discretion amounting to an error of Law? ; as the abuse of discretion is both error of the rulings and resulting prejudice as well as denial of access of courts just because Appellant is an indigent status and pro se litigant for clerk to misabuse [her] authority, and correctional mailroom to hold affidavit?

4. WHETHER THE COURT ABUSED ITS DISCRETION AMOUNTING TO AN ERROR OF LAW: BY FAILING TO GRANT AN EVIDENTIARY HEARING WHICH AMOUNTED TO A DEPRIVATION OF LEGAL RIGHTS OF APPELLANT, BY DENYING HIM FULL ACCESS TO THE COURTS JUST BECAUSE HE IS AN INDIGENT PRO SE LITIGANT, AND MENTAL HEALTH PATIENT, THE RULING WAS AN ERROR AND APPELLANT WAS/DID RESULT IN PREJUDICE TO DENYING MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL BASED ON AFTER DISCOVERED EVIDENCE PURSUANT TO S.C.Crim.P. 29 (b), MOTION FOR APPOINTMENT OF COUNSEL, AND MOTION FOR INVESTIGATIVE AND EXPERT FUNDS/EXPENSES, UNDER DUE PROCESS AND EQUAL PROTECTION OF LAW, U.S. CONST. AMEND. XIV §1, is for all?
5. WHETHER APPELLANTS DUE PROCESS AND EQUAL PROTECTION WAS VIOLATED BY COURT DENYING APPELLANTS MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL, MOTION FOR APPOINTMENT OF COUNSEL, AND MOTION FOR PRIVATE INVESTIGATIVE, AND EXPERT EXPENSES, WHICH RESULTED IN AN ABUSE OF DISCRETION AND APPELLANT WAS THEREBY PREJUDICE BECAUSE IT WAS CLEAR AND CONVINCING EVIDENCE THAT WAS SUBMITTED TO SUPPORT AN EVIDENTIARY HEARING, AND MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL BECAUSE THE AFFIDAVITS OF APPELLANT, LETTER MICHAEL ABNER, AND SWORN AFFIDAVIT OF RONDIE J. WARD, AND AFFIDAVIT OF ASHTON WARD SUPPORTED NEW TRIAL MOTION U.S CONST. AMEND. XIV §1, IS FOR ALL?
6. WHETHER THE COURT ABUSED ITS DISCRETION BY DENYING APPELLANT[']S MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION, AND ARREST OF JUDGMENT, DUE TO CONFLICT OF INTEREST WITHIN CLERK OF COURT AND A DENIAL OF ACCESS OF COURT DUE TO INDIGENT MENTAL HEALTH PATIENT WHO CANNOT AFFORD LEGAL COUNSEL AND AFFIDAVIT OF RONDIE J. WARD BEING DENIED TO FILE THAT SAYS "MICHAEL ABNER DID TELL ME THAT HE PAID THEM BOYS TO KILL JODY,"?

Respondent filed its initial brief on August 7, 2013. On September 22, 2014, attorney Natasha M. Hanna, Esq., moved for leave to file a new motion for a new trial based on after discovered evidence and to suspend the appeal, arguing new evidence regarding juror bias and concealment was discovered during the course of the proceedings. Respondent filed its return in opposition to the motion on September 29, 2014. The South Carolina Court of Appeals denied the motion on October 8, 2014, indicating the appeal would not prohibit the lower court from proceeding with matters not affected by the appeal. The Court of Appeals thereafter affirmed by unpublished opinion the denial of the motion for a new trial. State v. Ward, Op. No. 2014-UP-402 (S.C. Ct. App. filed Nov. 12, 2014). Applicant thereafter moved for rehearing en banc, which was denied by order filed January 23, 2015. State v. Ward, S.C. Ct. App. filed Jan. 23, 2015. The Remittitur was issued March 3, 2015.

Motion for New Trial of October 28, 2014

On October 28, 2014, Applicant filed pro se a “Motion for New Trial Based on After Discovered Evidence” pursuant to Rule 29(b), SCCrimP. Applicant filed the motion based the alleged discovery of juror misconduct. The State filed its response in the form of a motion to dismiss on September 8, 2017. Applicant proceeded to a hearing on his motion on October 2, 2017. Applicant was represented at the hearing by Tristan Shaffer, Esq., and Scott Hixson, Esq., of the Fifteenth Circuit Solicitor’s Office, represented the State. By Order dated and filed December 7, 2017, the Honorable Larry B. Hyman, Jr. granted the State’s motion to dismiss and denied the motion for a new trial, finding in pertinent part:

The alleged new evidence cited in the Defendant’s motion was known to the defendant and counsel or could have been ascertained by the exercise of reasonable diligence prior to and at the time of trial in 2004 and certainly within one year after conviction. The claims are based on common last names with extended family relatives or based on personal relationships with named individuals the Defendant or Defendant’s family knew personally prior to trial. Juror background information and the State’s witness list was provided to the Defense during voir dire which occurred prior to jury selection. That information continued to remain unchanged and available for one year after conviction and is not new “evidence” as to the defendant’s guilt.

Order Granting State's Motion to Dismiss at 3.

Applicant timely appealed the order of the lower court. That appeal remains pending before the South Carolina Court of Appeals. See App. Case No. 2018-000402.

II. CURRENT APPLICATION

In his fourth and current post-conviction relief application, Applicant alleges he is being held unlawfully for the following reasons:

1. Newly-discovered evidence of juror misconduct, in that:
 - a. Seven witnesses rented a lot from Juror #19, Marissa Cooper.

In support of the above allegation, Applicant additionally cites to McCoy v. State, 401 S.C. 363, 737 S.E.2d 623 (2013).

Before this Court are the Georgetown County Clerk of Court records regarding the subject convictions, Applicant's records from the South Carolina Department of Corrections, the opinions of the Court from each of Applicant's prior appeals, the final orders of Applicant's previous PCR and federal habeas actions, the orders dismissing Applicant's motions for a new trial in general sessions, and the records of this current PCR action

III. FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Res Judicata

The Court finds the application is barred by the doctrine of res judicata. Res judicata prohibits subsequent actions by the same parties on the same issues. Bell v. Bennett, 307 S.C. 286, 414 S.E.2d 786 (Ct. App. 1992). A final judgment on the merits in a prior action bars subsequent consideration of those issues in a new action. Foran v. USAA Casualty Ins. Co., 311 S.C. 189, 427 S.E.2d 918 (Ct. App. 1993). Res judicata also bars any issues that could have been raised in the former action. Id.; see also Foxworth v. State, 275 S.C. 615, 274 S.E.2d 415 (1981).

Applicant had a full opportunity to litigate all his allegations in his motion for a new trial filed October 28, 2014. Applicant's allegations as to juror Marissa Cooper, among two other jurors, were raised to, considered, and rejected by Judge Hyman after a hearing on the merits of the motion. The finality of the previous Court rulings should be respected, and the Court shall summarily dismiss the application as barred by the doctrine of res judicata.

Newly-Discovered Evidence

The Court finds Applicant's assertion that his juror misconduct allegation constitutes newly-discovered evidence, such that he should be entitled to an evidentiary hearing, is without merit. The Uniform Post-Conviction Relief Act states that a person may institute a post-conviction relief action if "there exists evidence or material facts, not previously presented and heard, that requires vacation of the conviction or sentence in the interest of justice." S.C. Code Ann. § 17-27-20(A)(4). If the applicant contends there is evidence of material fact not previously presented, the post-conviction relief application must be filed within one year after the date of actual discovery of the facts by the applicant or after the date when the facts could have been ascertained by the exercise of reasonable diligence. S.C. Code Ann. §17-27-45(C). An applicant requesting a new trial based on after-discovered evidence after a conviction must show that the evidence:

- (1) Is such as would probably change the result if a new trial was had;
- (2) Has been discovered since the trial;
- (3) Could not by the exercise of due diligence have been discovered before the trial;
- (4) Is material to the issue of guilt or innocence; and,
- (5) Is not merely cumulative or impeaching.

Hayden v. State, 278 S.C. 610, 611, 299 S.E.2d 854, 855 (1983) (citing State v. Caskey, 273 S.C. 325, 256 S.E.2d 737 (1979)).

Applicant has failed to allege facts sufficient to support his claim of newly discovered evidence. Each of Applicant's allegations involve "facts" that were, or could have been, discovered before his trial. As noted above in the excerpted portion of Judge Hyman's order, the relationships of the jurors to other members of the community, including those related to Applicant, were known or knowable to Applicant at the time of trial. Furthermore, as the juror misconduct allegation formed the basis of the motion for a new trial filed October 28, 2014, even if the Court generously applied the after-discovered evidence time provision in S.C. Code Ann. § 17-27-45(C), and assumed Applicant knew nothing of the allegations before that date, the present application was filed well beyond one year from that filing.

Before the Court will hold an evidentiary hearing, Applicant must make a prima facie showing that he is entitled to relief. Welch v. MacDougall, 246 S.C. 258, 143 S.E.2d 455 (1965); Blandshaw v. State, 245 S.C. 385, 140 S.E.2d 784 (1965). Applicant has failed to make such a prima facie showing that he is entitled to relief based on the information set forth and, therefore, he is not entitled to an evidentiary hearing in the matter. Accordingly, the Court shall summarily dismiss the matter with prejudice.

Statute of Limitations

The Court finds the application must be summarily dismissed for failure to comply with the filing procedures of the Uniform Post-Conviction Procedure Act. S.C. Code Ann. § 17-27-10 to -160. Specifically, the act requires as follows:

An application for relief filed pursuant to this chapter must be filed within one year after the entry of a judgment of conviction or within one year after the sending of the remittitur to the lower court from an appeal or the filing of the final decision on appeal, whichever is later.

S.C. Code Ann. § 17-27-45(A).

The South Carolina Supreme Court has held that the statute of limitations shall apply to all applications filed after July 1, 1996. Peloquin v. State, 321 S.C. 468, 469 S.E.2d 606 (1996). A motion for summary judgment may properly be used to raise the defense of statute of limitations. McDonnell v. Consolidated School District of Aiken, 315 S.C. 487, 445 S.E.2d 638 (1994). In addition, S.C. Code Ann. § 17-27-70(c) authorizes the Court to “grant a motion by either party for summary disposition of [an] application when it appears from the pleadings ... that there is no genuine issue of material fact and the moving party is entitled to judgment as a matter of law.”

Applicant was convicted on March 18, 2004, and the remittitur from his direct appeal issued on July 6, 2007. The current application was not filed until May 21, 2018—well after the one-year statutory filing period expired. Furthermore, as noted above, even if the Court generously applied the time provision set forth in section 17-27-45(C), such that the appropriate starting point was October 28, 2014, the application was filed well beyond one-year from that date, as well. Therefore, the Court shall summarily dismiss the application as barred by the statute of limitations.

Successive

The Court finds the application must also be summarily dismissed because it is successive to Applicant’s previous PCR application. Courts disfavor successive applications and place the burden on applicants to establish that any new ground raised in a subsequent application could not have been earlier raised in a previous application. Foxworth v. State, 275 S.C. 615, 274 S.E.2d 415 (1981); Arnold v. State, 309 S.C. 157, 420 S.E.2d 834 (1992). Section 17-27-90 of the South Carolina Code states:

All grounds for relief available to an applicant under this chapter must be raised in his original, supplemental, or amended application. Any ground finally adjudicated or not so raised, or knowingly, voluntarily, and intelligently waived in the proceeding that resulted in the conviction or sentence or in any other proceeding the applicant has taken to secure relief, may not be the basis for a subsequent application, unless the court finds a ground for relief asserted which for sufficient reason was not asserted or was inadequately raised in the original, supplemental, or amended application.

Under this statute, successive post-conviction relief applications are forbidden unless an applicant can indicate a “sufficient reason” why new grounds for relief were not raised or were not properly raised in previous applications. Aice v. State, 305 S.C. 448, 409 S.E.2d 392 (1991). Any new ground raised in a subsequent application is limited to those grounds that “could not have been raised ... in the previous application.” Id. at 450, 409 S.E.2d at 394. If the applicant could have raised these allegations in a previous application, then the applicant may not raise those grounds in successive applications. Id. Applicant bears the burden of showing the allegations could not have been previously raised. Land v. State, 274 S.C. 243, 262 S.E.2d 735 (1980).

Applicant’s current allegations were or could have been raised in the proceedings based on Applicant’s prior applications for post-conviction relief; thus, the current application is successive and barred under S.C. Code Ann. § 17-27-90. Applicant has failed to establish any sufficient reason why he could not have raised his current allegations in his previous applications for post-conviction relief. Therefore, he has failed to meet the burden imposed upon him, and the Court shall dismiss the application as successive to Applicant’s previous PCR application.

CONCLUSION

Pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 17-27-70(b), the Court intends to dismiss this application with prejudice unless Applicant provides specific reasons, factual or legal, why the application should not be dismissed in its entirety. Applicant is granted twenty (20) days from the date of service of this Order upon him to show why this Order should not become final. Applicant shall file any reasons he may have with the Georgetown County Clerk of Court and shall serve opposing counsel at the following address:

Office of the Attorney General
Johnny E. James, Jr., Esquire
PCR Division – 15th Circuit
P.O. Box 11549
Columbia, South Carolina 29211

Applicant is cautioned that his response to this order must be actually received by the Georgetown County Clerk of Court and opposing counsel within twenty (20) days, and that the Court will not consider any issues raised in his response if not so timely filed and served.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED this _____ day of _____, 2018.

"APPLES AND ORANGES" NOTHING IN JUDGE
HYMAN ORDER ADDRESSES THE "BUSINESS
RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN #19 MARISSA COOPER
AND (17) ~~OTHERS~~ STATE WITNESSES."

AS THE BUSINESS RELATIONSHIP ASPECT OF "SEPARATE AND DISTINCT ISSUE" WAS NOT DISCOVERED BY THE APPLICANT
UNTIL APRIL 18, 2018 SOME (5) MONTHS
AFTER HEARING ON FAMILY / PERSONAL RELATIONSHIP ASPECTS HAD BEEN HOLD.

SO THE RES JUDICATA THEORY FAILS ON SEVERAL POINTS A) THERE IS A LEGAL FACTUAL DIFFERENCE BETWEEN JUROR MISCONDUCT ON ONGOING BUSINESS RELATIONSHIP TO ~~OTHERS~~
AND EXTENDED FAMILY / PERSONAL RELATIONSHIP.
DIFFERENT ELEMENTS AND CASE LAW DEFINITIONS.

B) There is absolutely no probative evidence in the record that the Applicant was aware of the Business Relationship between Marissa Cooper and (7) Seven of the ~~other~~ STATE witnesses until April 18, 2018

Applicant assents he can prove he did NOT know of the Business Relationship aspect of Juror misconduct claim until well after the Dec. 2017 hearing on the family / personal aspect Juror misconduct issue, until April 18, 2018.

The RES JUDICATA is both "FRIVOLOUS" AND borders upon "Felonious" AS A FALSE AVOWMENT OF Rule 11 SCRP.

THIS ISSUE HAS NOT been RAISED.

THIS ISSUE HAS NOT been Ruled upon

JUST BECAUSE this Juror has been EXPOSED her INTENTIONAL FAILURE to DISCLOSE FAMILY / personal Relationships in voir dire HAS absolutely NO NO RELEVANCE to her ALSO FAILING

TO DISCLOSE her Business Relationship
EXCEPT THAT PUR TO SCHE 406 SHE HAS A HABIT, ROUTINE OF INTENTIONAL NON DISCLOSURE OF "Relationships" TO ~~SEVERAL~~ WITNESSES;

THE STATE RES JUDICATA ~~COULD~~ DEFENSE
IS BECAUSE SHE ~~FOR~~ INTENTIONALLY FAILED TO DISCLOSE FAMILY Relationships THEN THAT CONSTITUTES A "RULING" FROM COURT SHE FAILED TO DISCLOSE BUSINESS Relationships

THE RES JUDICATA DEFENSE FAILS.
PUR TO LAWLOR V. NATIONAL SCAFFOLD SERVICE 349 US 342 (1955)

NEXT. THE RESPONDENT STATES APPLICANT CANNOT MEET (S) PROVE TEST OF NEWLY DISCOVERED EVIDENCE PUR TO

HAYDEN V. STATE 279 S.E.2. 854 (1983).
TO RELY ON STATE CONDITIONAL ORDER IS ERROR OF LAW.
AS THE APPLICANT IS NOT REQUIRED TO MEET
(S) PROVE HAYDEN V. STATE TEST, HIS

BURDEN IS TO SHOW PUR TO MCCOY V. STATE
MANISSA COOPER (1) INTENTIONALLY FAILED TO DISCLOSE A BUSINESS Relationship TO (7)
~~WITNESSES~~ (2) HAD HE KNOWN SHE WITNESSES

HAD A BUSINESS Relationship to (7)
OF STATE WITNESSES HE WOULD HAVE EXERCISED HIS STRIKES OR MOVE TO HAVE BEEN EXCUSED FOR CAUSE. AND RESPONDENT KNOWS THIS SO OBVIOUSLY THAT PORTION OF STATES
POSITION IS CONTRARY TO MCCOY V. STATE.

NEXT THE STATE SEEMS TO RELY UPON
JUDGE HYMAN RULING ON (FAMILY Relationships)
TO SHOW THE BUSINESS Relationship WAS
SOMEHOW "KNOWABLE" TO APPLICANT AT TIME OF TRIAL "

THIS IS "NONSENSICAL" AND BORDERS UPON
FRAUD UPON COURT; HE HAS ASSENTED
UPON OATH THE BUSINESS Relationship WAS DISCOVERED IN LAST YEAR (4/18/18) THIS MUST BE

DEEMED AS TRUE FOR PURPOSE OF SUMMARY
DISMISSAL ANDERSON V. LIBERTY LOBBY (984)
17-27-90.

NEXT, STATE RELIES "FRAUDULENTLY" UPON
THE STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS 17-27-45 A

HE HAS ASSENTED UPON HIS OATH HE DISCOVERED THE "BUSINESS Relationship" ON 4-18-18
WITHIN THE PAST YEAR per 17-27-45(C)

AS A MATTER OF LAW, this ALLEGATION MUST BE DEEMED TO BE TRUE AND IS SUPPORTED BY AFFIDAVIT OF
CLIFTON ROGERS JR ON APRIL 18, 2018
THAT IS WHEN THE EVIDENCE, (NOT RUMOR OR SPECULATION) WAS DISCOVERED. FACT.

SO, STATE STATUTE OF LIMITATION ~~ARGUMENT~~ ARGUMENT IS NOT SUPPORTED BY ANY EVIDENCE.
JUST BECAUSE MANISSA COOPER (AND JUDICIAL OFFICIALS) HAVE BEEN SUCCESSFUL
IN CONCEALING her business relationship
DOES NOT REFLECT UPON APPLICANTS
~~THEIR~~ DILIGENCE BUT RATHER her CONDUCT. AND RESPONDENTS,

IF ANYTHING AT DEC. 2017 HEARING THE
STATE OF SC SHOULD HAVE DISCLOSED
THIS JUROR FAILURE TO DISCLOSE her
"BUSINESS RELATIONSHIP" AND THE FAILURE TO DO SO IS ADDITIONAL MISCONDUCT IF THEY DIDN'T KNOW ABOUT HOW COUP APPLICANT KNOWN.
FINALLY, RESPONDENT ARGUES IT IS SUCCESSIVE
THAT ARGUMENT IS ALSO FRIVOLOUS. "SUFFICIENT REASONS" HAVE BEEN STATED WHY he HAS NOT RAISED THE JUROR CONCEALMENT
ISSUE. IN 2011 MOTION FOR A NEW TRIAL

IT WAS NOT RAISED BECAUSE IT WAS CONCEALED DEFINATELY BY JURY MAIRISSA COOPER AND MOST PROBABLY BY SOLICITOR, ATTORNEY GENERAL AND GEORGETOWN POLICE. (SCRE 406)

IT WAS NOT RAISED BECAUSE IT WAS NOT DISCOVERED UNTIL APRIL 18, 2018. FACT.

IN BANKS V. DRETKE 504 US 540 (2005) OUR US SUPREME COURT SAID "A RULE THAT PROSECUTION MAY HIDE, AND DEFENDANT MUST SEEK IS, INCOMPATIBLE WITH DUE PROCESS

THIS REASONING EQUALLY APPLIES TO JURY MISCONDUCT JUST BECAUSE SHE SUCCESSFULLY CONCEALED HER "BUSINESS RELATION" TO (7) WITNESSES DOES NOT MEAN STATE CAN PROFIT FROM HER CONCEALMENT OF BUSINESS RELATIONSHIP DURING LITIGATION UPON HER CONCEALMENT OF FAMILY / PERSONAL RELATIONSHIPS SHE ALSO FAILED TO CONCEAL. RESPONDENT SEEKS TO PROFIT FROM AND BASE A DEFENSE UPON THE FACT OF HER CONCEALMENT - INTENTIONAL FAILURE to (7) witnesses is "Sufficient Reason" per to AICE v. STATE 409 SEd 322 (1991)

to allow "Successive PCR"

thus He has established "Sufficient Reason" why He could not have raised this

JUROR MISCONDUCT ISSUE - IT WAS DISCOVERED WITHIN THE LAST YEAR ON

APRIL 18, 2018 (AFTER EARLIER JUROR
MISCONDUCT HEARING SAME JUROR ALSO FAILING TO DISCLOSE FAMILY RELATIONSHIPS)

that she ALSO has now been EXPOSED
ON INTENTIONAL CONCEALMENT OF BUSINESS
RELATIONSHIPS WITH (7) ~~JURORS~~ WITNESSES

THIS IS NEW EVIDENCE, DISCOVERED ON APRIL 18, 2018, "NOT PREVIOUSLY KNOWN OR DISCOVERABLE THRU DUE DILIGENCE TO BE RAISED AT EARLIER PCR BECAUSE JUROR
MAISSA COOPER AND Georgetown

Solicitor's and S.C. Attorney General has been successful at Concealing this Juror misconduct as part of overall pattern of Prosecutorial misconduct. see: (SCRE Rule 406).

The State Conditional Order of Dismissal must be denied as a matter of law. And be placed on the Docket to be heard at next term of P.C.R. for the following reasons.

In a criminal case, the 6th & 14th Amendments to the U.S. Constitution guarantee a defendant a fair trial by a panel of impartial and indifferent Jurors.

see: State v. Bryant, 354 S.C. 390, 581 S.E.2d 157 (2003)

Trial Handbook for S.C. Lawyers 4th Edition 2008 pg. 330
§6:3 Right of accused to challenge Potential Jurors in Criminal Cases.

In order to fully safeguard this protection, it is required that the jury render its verdict free from Outside influences of whatever kind and nature. In cases where a Juror's impartiality is questioned after trial, it is appropriate to conduct a hearing in which the defendant has the opportunity to prove actual Juror Bias.

Therefore, by that established this Court should appoint counsel asap. see: S.C.R.Civ.P. Rule 71.1(d) - Thereafter, the Court must appoint counsel promptly if the applicant is indigent.

see: S.C. Code Ann § 17-27-90: not asserted or was inadequately raised

The Law in S.C. is clear see: Finkley v. State, 273 S.C. 157, 255 S.E.2d 447 (1979). Our Post-Conviction Act is designed to incorporate all Rights available under Federal Habeas Corpus.

see: Accardi v. U.S., 599 F.2d 423 (Fed. Cir. 1979) U.S. Supreme Court clearly states the South Carolina (states must abide by laws of other states,

As this issue of "Juror Misconduct Test" has been met here the applicant meets. McCoy v. State, supra.

Furthermore, The United States Supreme Court explained more than 50 years ago in Lanlon v. National Screen Service Corp., 349 U.S. 322 (1955)

Res Judicata does not bar a claim, even if it involves the same Course of Wrongful conduct as alleged earlier, so long as the claims alleges New Facts or a worsening of the earlier conditions.

This issue has never been raised as Business Relationship on Juror Misconduct Juror #19 Marissa Cooper owned a mobile Home Park where 7 tenants paid her rent and she failed to disclose that to the Court therefore McCoy v. State, supra has been met, this has just recently discovered and could not be discovered, see: Affidavit attached.

Furthermore, this Juror #19 Marissa Cooper husband cousin was a States Main witness, is clearly different alleged facts as that's a "Personal Relationship" which has clearly New facts and clearly worsening of the earlier conditions.

So Res Judicata not applicable and theres only a (2) Two Prong Test under McCoy v. State, supra not a (5) prong Test as alleged by Respondents, clear ERROR of Laws.

Wherefore, the applicant respectfully ask this Court to Order an Evidentiary Hearing and appointment Counsel A.s.a.p.

RE JODY WARD v. STATE
2018 CP 22 0488 (PCR)

DEAR JUDGE SEALS,

THIS COURT CANNOT IN "GOOD CONSCIENCE"
SIGN (OR ENTERTAIN) THE FRIVOLOUS FINAL
ORDER, INTER ALIA, VIOLATIVE OF Rule 11(b)(2),

THAT PURPOSELY DOES NOT ADDRESS AFFIDAVITS
AND EVIDENCE FILED BY APPLICANT

THAT CREATE A "MATERIAL FACTUAL DISPUTE"

THAT MANDATES (A) APPOINTMENT
COUNSEL (B) EVIDENTIARY HEARING

AND 56. ANDERSON v. LIBERTY LOBBY (US 1986)

I.
TIMELINESS OF PCR (17-27-45(C))

(1) UNDER OATH NEITHER APPLICANT NOR HIS COUNSEL TRISTAN SHAFER (ESQ) AT TIME OF OCT 2017 Rule 29 (b) HEARING OR PRIOR TO
ONE YEAR OF MAY 2018 PCR, SUB JUDICE,
HAD KNOWLEDGE, INFORMATION OR BELIEF
AS REQUIRED BY Rule 11 (b) 2, 3 SCRP
THAT JUROR C BESIDES HER PERSONAL RELATIONSHIP
TO WITNESSES SUBJECT OF THE Rule 29 (b)

ALSO FAILED TO DISCLOSE 7 STATE WITNESSES

PAID HER RETainer money EVEN MONTH

~~IT~~ IT IS BEYOND OBVIOUS HAD APPLICANT
KNOWN OF THIS (7) X BUSINESS RELATIONSHIP

1. of 7.

Then him And his ATTORNEY TRISTAN SHAFER would HAVE RAISED ISSUE. APPLICANT AFFIDAVIT CREATES A MATERIAL FACTUAL DISPUTE.
— This is a "material FACT" in Question FOR COURT
AS A FACT FINDER to DETERMINE being DISPOSITIVE to timeliness of Filings

PUR 17-27-45 (C) that must ACCORDING to S.C. JURISPRUDENCE - PCR STATUTE be "Fleshed out And ADJUDICATED" AT PCR EVIDENTIARY HEARING - BECAUSE

APPLICANT AFFIDAVIT AND EVIDENCE on file with the clerk of court

"IF TRUE" would mean PCR PUR to
MCCOY V. STATE is timely filed 17-27-45

Rule 12(b)(6), 56, ANDERSON V. C. BOOTH LOBBY

US SUPREME COURT (P186) MANDATE

A EVIDENTIARY HEARING FOR COURT TO DETERMINE CREDIBILITY OF APPLICANT ①

II MERITS OF MCCOY V. STATE

AS to SECOND CRITICAL ELEMENT

Merits OF MCCOY V. STATE (2013) JUNE

MISCONDUCT, the PROOF is in the pudding. IT IS MANIFESTLY "SELF-EVIDENT"

① AND TRISTAN SHAFER (ESQ) APPLICANT COUNSEL will testify he DID NOT KNOW

A) NO EVIDENCE in the RECORD supports
"FRIVOLOUS - RIDICULOUS" ALLEGMENT
VIOLATIVE OF Rule 11 (b) (1) THAT BUSINESS RELATIONSHIP OF JUROR with
C1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7 OF STATE WITNESSES
WERE KNOWN OR COULD BE KNOWN TO
APPLICANT AT TIME OF OCT 2017 Rule 29(b)
WHICH FOCUSED ON HER ADDITIONAL
SEPARATE AND DISTINCT OF A ELEMENTS
OF PERSONAL RELATIONSHIP BY MARRIAGE TO ALL STATE WITNESS.

HOW COULD HE HAVE KNOWN? SHE
CERTAINLY DIDN'T DISCLOSE THE FACT
SCOTT HIXSON, CHIEF SOLICITOR CERTAINLY DID NOT DISCLOSE THE FACT HIS JUROR ADDRESS ON HIS FILE KNEW
7 OF HIS WITNESSES (ADDRESS ON HIS FILE)
DID NOT DISCLOSE BOTH JURORS AND WITNESSES WERE ALL FROM SAME TRAILER PARK

IF HE SOLICITOR DIDN'T KNOW (OCT 2017)
then how in World would Applicant know
she was OWNER/OPERATOR OF TRAILER PARK
AND (7) OF HER TENANTS (1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7)
WERE CALLED AS STATE WITNESSES?

OR DID SOLICITOR KNOW AT trial, ALL
PCR'S, AND 29(b) OF THIS BUSINESS
RELATIONSHIP AND CONCEAL IT?

* 17-27-450 PROOF OF TIMELINESS OF PCR *
AFFIDAVIT OF Applicant has been submitted
he DID NOT KNOW AT Rule 29(b)

(Tristan Shaffer will be called to testify even he) DID NOT KNOW

@ Rule 29(b) HEARING OF THE
SEPARATE - DISTRICT BUSINESS RELATIONSHIP
OF JUNON AND (7) STATE WITNESSES

Scott Hixson will be called to testify -
DID HE KNOW?

IN SO FAR AS BUSINESS RELATIONSHIP
IT WAS NOT RAISED, IT WAS NOT
RULED UPON, IT WAS NOT KNOWN AND IT WAS NOT DISCLOSED BY
JUNON OR SCOTT HIXSON

Thus Res Judicata, or collateral
estoppel DOES NOT APPLY -

The Applicant Affidavit AND Mr. Shaffer
Proposed Testimony Proves That Fraudulent
Argument Violative Rule 11 (b)(1)

© Finally, Merits of McCoy v. State
The SC Attorney General Attempts to Play This Court For A Fool - "That A Juror who MANAGES A mobile home PARK does not per se disqualify her Presiding over ANY TRIAL in which a dearizen of that PARK may be called to testify, nor does it appear to be A material factor in use of peremptory challenge."

Thus, per to SC 406 IT IS A FACT: she intentionally FAILED to DISCLOSE her BUSINESS Relationship with (7)

(1,2,3,4,5,6,7) of Her Rent-Paying Tenants
ARE STATE WITNESSES IS "Circumstantial Evidence" which would BE the whole
PURPOSE OF Having A PER Hearing.
So Court CAN Discern Truthfulness etc.
