TO: THE HONORABLE JUDGES OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA COURT OF APPEALS

COME NOW Appellants, by and through their undersigned counsel, pursuant to Rule 263(b), SCACR, and move for their initial reply brief (conditionally filed/served contemporaneously herewith) to be accepted as duly filed/served.

1. By order of this Court filed August 28, 2019, the deadline for Appellants' initial reply brief was September 5, 2019.

2. By motion filed/served September 3, 2019, Appellants requested that this deadline be extended through September 16, 2019, owing to then-approaching Hurricane Dorian.

3. Upon information and belief, the Court has not yet acted upon Appellants' motion.

4. Appellants counsel had anticipated being able to complete the brief so that it would be filed/served by September 16, 2019, but on account of work-related and other time commitments, and the disruption caused by Hurricane Dorian (to include the work backlog in its wake), he has been unable to do so, and he humbly asks that the Court consider the circumstances as sufficiently out of the ordinary to merit granting the dispensation requested herein, which he most respectfully submits is consistent with the interests of justice and will not unduly prejudice any other party.

WHEREFORE, Appellants respectfully request that—whether by granting them an extension of the deadline through today or allowing them to file/serve their initial reply brief today out of time—this Honorable Court allow them through to today, September 19, 2019, to file/serve their initial reply brief or otherwise accept their initial reply brief out of time as duly filed/served today. Further, Appellants respectfully request that this Court hold their present initial reply briefing deadline in abeyance until it acts upon this motion.

Respectfully submitted,

YOUNG CLEMENT RIVERS, LLP
