Re: Shemuel Yisrael -V- Roy Hughes, Sr., et al
Appellate Case No. 2019-001108

Dear Madamn Clerk:

I, Shemuel Yisrael, the Appellant pro se, cannot afford the court reporters' fees for the court transcript for the following reasons:

- (1) I don't have any money. The required fee of $265.00, while being reasonable, is quite impossible for me to pay.
- (2) Due to the constant theft of my cars and trucks and business equipment as well as personal and real property by the respondents, I cannot possibly afford the cost of the court transcripts as well as life's other essentials.
- (3) The respondents, Town Of Yemassee, (#4), also, Yemassee Police Department, (#5), and, Yemassee Police Chief Gregory Alexander, (#6), are directly responsible for the crimes directed against me. Solicitors Stone and Murdaugh are criminally involved also. The appellant is preparing motions for order of protection and restraining orders.
- (4) It should also be noted the Appellants' vehicles and parking rights have been taken away for some unknown reason and that the appellant is living homeless and in hiding due fears of the respondents criminal acts of the past and present.
