RE: Ex Parte: Hartford Fire Insurance Company and Hartford Casualty
Insurance Company (The Havens/River Crossing/Tanglewood/Woodlands)
Appellate Case No. 2019-001053
Our File: 4760-11126

Dear Debbie:

Thank you so much for speaking to me in regard to this matter. As discussed, Appellants' Joint Motion for an Extension of Time to File Initial Briefs was granted by the Court of Appeals on September 24, 2016. The Motion explicitly requested an extension for all Appellants' Initial Briefs and Designations of Matter while the parties attempted to consolidate the arguments to the extent feasible in a joint brief. The Court of Appeals in their Order Granting the Extension extended the time for serving and filing "appellants' joint brief and designation of matter."

On September 26, the consolidated appeal was certified for review by the Supreme Court. As I understood it, you kindly agreed that the Order would be revised to accurately reflect that the extension until November 4 would be for all of the Appellants' Initial Briefs and Designations of Matter, including any separate briefs as well as any joint brief that may be filed by some of the Appellants. As discussed, Hartford which intends to file its own separate Initial Brief and Designation of Matter, would also have until November 4 to file its own Initial Brief and Designation of Matter.

Thank you so much for taking the time to speak to me. If I am incorrect on the extension, please let me know. I appreciate all of your time.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours truly,
