THE FOLLOWING EXHIBIT IS ON FILE WITH THIS COURT:

STATE’S EXHIBIT #7 (DVD)

1 A. Eight, yeah.

2 Q. Okay. And you know she was 25 years old at the time
3 that she died?

4 A. Yeah, I know it now.

5 Q. You know it now, of course. But that means that she 6 was actually, if my math is correct, about 17 years old?

7 A. She told me she was a lot older because she had a 8 child.

9 Q. That not what I asked you?

10 A. I'm just trying to help you.

11 Q. I'm just trying to do some simple math here. You 12 know she's 25 now? You say now you know it?

13 MR. SECOR: Object. Asked and answered. The point 14 has been made.

15 THE COURT: Sustained, counsel. Its been asked and 16 answered. The jury is observant. Please move to your 17 next area.

18 BY MR. REDMOND:

19 Q. You mentioned that, and I'm not going to get into the 20 whole history.

21 A. No, you can. I hope you can. You should.

22 THE COURT: Go ahead. Mr. Stewart, let him ask ---

23 THE WITNESS: Okay.

24 THE COURT: --- questions, and you answer them, sir.

25 BY MR. REDMOND:

1 Q. You mentioned that you were a community man. That's 2 your words not mine?

3 A. Yes. Yeah, I was.

4 Q. And you were trying to do the right thing?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. You also testified about having four baby mommas, I 7 think to use your term.

8 A. Um hum.

9 Q. Now, many of these children, I guess four of them?

10 A. Five.

11 Q. Five, I'm sorry. Five. How many did you have after 12 you began seeing Bellany Clyburn?

13 A. How many did I have after?

14 Q. Um hum?

15 A. After I see ---

16 Q. After you started dating Bellany Clyburn? How many 17 of those children were born after you began dating 18 Bellany?

19 A. Me and my wife had two after -- three -- three -- I 20 have two. I had four.

21 MR. SECOR: Objection. Relevance.

22 MR. REDMOND: He actually opened the door. I'm just 23 asking the question based on what he testified to on 24 direct. He said he was a community man.

25 THE COURT: Overruled.

1 BY MR. REDMOND:

2 Q. Please?

3 A. Okay, I have ---

4 Q. How many did you have after you met Bellany?

5 A. After I met Bellany how many did I have? One by her.

6 Two, three, four. I think four. Pretty sure it was four.

7 Q. All right. So four after you met Bellany.

8 A. Um hum.

9 Q. Thank you. Now, when you were testifying on directly 10 initially -- well, let me ask you. You've had a chance to 11 see the interview that you have to Pageland P.D, right? I 12 was actually -- do you recall me being in the building a 13 couple of weeks ago when you were looking at the video?

14 A. Yeah. Yeah. I wanted to see the original video. I 15 seen a copy.

16 Q. And you saw the original video?

17 A. Yeah, I seen it. Yeah.

18 Q. Now, as I recall in looking at that video I didn't 19 see you break down once?

20 A. Because -- I'll wait until you get through.

21 Q. No, I'm asking you. You didn't break down at all?

22 A. That was eight, nine hours later. I had already been 23 doing all the crying.

24 Q. But even when you started talking about Bellany ---

25 A. Um hum.

1 Q. --- its been three years later?

2 A. Um hum.

3 Q. And you mentioned ---

4 A. Um hum.

5 Q. --- or were asked about how long were y'all together, 6 something.

7 A. Um hum.

8 Q. And you boo whoed and wailed until I'm sure they 9 heard you in the next building?

10 A. Yeah. Yeah. Yeah. And you know.

11 Q. But you didn't do that on the tape?

12 A. No, I didn't.

13 Q. Okay?

14 A. Because of who was interviewing me. Because of who 15 was interviewing me, Larry Brown.

16 Q. Well, you know what? That's the interesting thing.
17 All this stuff that you have to say now let's be honest 18 with ourselves.

19 A. That's what I'm doing. That's what I'm doing.

20 Q. Most of what you testified to today ---

21 A. Um hum.

22 Q. To today is not even on that tape, is it?

23 A. Good point you said that. I know. I know.

24 Q. Please.

25 MR. REDMOND: Your Honor, if you can explain to him.

1 I understand that, but I just want an answer.

2 THE COURT: Just one moment.

3 THE WITNESS: My ear ain't even on the tape. My ear
4 ain't even on the tape. My ear. That's the same ear.

5 THE COURT: Yes, sir. Mr. Stewart, just a moment,
6 sir. Let's do this for our court reporter's health. One
7 person ask the question, and one person answer it. Now, 8 if Mr. Redmond asks you a question, sir, you give us a yes 9 or no answer and then you may explain if you wish.

10 THE WITNESS: Okay. I want to explain what you mean 11 by that tape. Well, you said -- did I get ---

12 BY MR. REDMOND:

13 Q. Okay. Can I ask -- let me ask you this.

14 A. Ask the question again.

15 Q. Isn't your testimony today different than what you 16 said on the tape a few hours after you killed Bellany?

17 A. No, it's not.

18 Q. It's the same, okay.

19 A. It's the same.

20 Q. That's fine.

21 A. It's the same.

22 Q. So I guess, and let me just ask you. Today -- well, 23 let me ask you this. When you left the first time to 24 avoid the police, I don't know if you testified to it 25 today but I'm going to tell you, do you recall talking

1 about some papers being served? Being aware of some 2 papers being served? And in fact you also said, isn't it
3 true, that your wife I think made you aware that there
4 were some papers ---

5 A. No.

6 Q. --- that were trying to be served?

7 A. No.

8 Q. You never said that on the tape?

9 A. See, you're saying on the tape that I said some 10 papers, but that ain't what I said. I said my wife told 11 me don't go to the apartment. And she didn't want me at 12 no apartments. That's my wife, you know. Of course, she 13 don't want me there. You know she don't want me there.
14 That's what she said. Nothing about no papers.

15 Q. Okay.

16 A. Okay. We just want to make that clear.

17 Q. Okay. So you never mentioned anything about 18 papers ---

19 A. No, sure haven't. And never knowing you had none.

20 Q. Well, the video is in evidence.

21 A. Yes, that's right. And we need to play it if you 22 need to see it.

23 Q. Actually not a bad idea?

24 A. That sure ain't.

25 Q. Now, you said ---

1 A. I would like to see it.

2 Q. I'm going to get straight to the attack itself 3 because that's where the story really gets ---

4 A. Good.

5 Q. --- altered?

6 A. Good.

7 Q. When you on the tape talk about Bellany coming 8 outside isn't it true that you said, and you even 9 gestured, that you put your hand up to her to ---

10 A. No. No. No. I didn't ---

11 Q. You put your hand up to your neck and threatened to 12 kill her to get her back into the apartment?

13 A. No.

14 Q. Is that not what you said?

15 A. No. No, it's not. Look at the tape. Look at the 16 tape. I said, "Open the door," and I made a gesture with 17 my hand, "before I kill you." But that was outside. We 18 were outside. I just testified about that. That's on the 19 tape.

20 Q. But you made the gesture?

21 A. No, you said I made it to her -- on her is what you 22 said.

23 THE COURT: I'll tell you what, gentlemen. Mr.

24 Redmond, I realize that you may have more questions, but

25 we're getting ready to end this because we're at ten

1 minutes, and if you have anything further or any one more
2 area of substance that you want to approach.

3 Please, gentlemen and Mr. Stewart, you can't just 4 give and take and talk over one another because we're 5 trying to keep a record here.

6 THE WITNESS: Yes, sir. Yes, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: So let's go ahead and hear your final 8 area if you have one and ask your question.

9 MR. REDMOND: Yes, Your Honor. If I may.

10 BY MR. REDMOND:

11 Q. So let me ask you this. Let's just clarify this 12 whole thing. Your testimony right now is that what you 13 testified to today is what you said on the tape on 14 January 1st 2010?

15 A. Not all of it.

16 Q. Not all of it?

17 A. Right cause all the questions ain't been asked.

18 Q. Okay. Is everything that you said about how the 19 murder of Bellany Clyburn took place correct? In other 20 words, is it the same thing you testified to today?

21 A. I can't be 100 percent sure, but what I'm saying is I
22 have -- well, I can explain my answer because the Judge
23 just said. So what I'm trying to tell you is what I 24 didn't say is what Bellany did.

25 I just said what I did. I never said what Bellany

1 did in the tape. I never told what happened to me or 2 where [REDACTED] was or where [REDACTED] was. I never told. [REDACTED] 3 was standing beside me when she was stabbing at me.

4 Q. Okay. And I think you said that you had stabbed -- 5 you made a gesture that she even hit you in the chest with 6 the knife?

7 A. No. No. No. She hit me in the chest with the knife
8 when I was on my knees when we first got in the apartment.

9 Q. Anyway, you were hit in the chest?

10 A. No. She didn't hit me. She put it in my chest. She 11 just stuck it there. That's why you don't see a big 12 puncture hole.

13 Q. Well, the jury will be able to remember what your 14 testimony was?

16 Q. This the picture of you with your shirt off, State's 17 Exhibit Number One?

18 A. Yes, it is.

19 Q. State would move to introduce into evidence at this 20 time?

21 THE COURT: Is there objection? All right. In 22 evidence without objection.

23 (WHEREUPON, State's Exhibit No. 1 was previously 24 admitted into evidence.)

25 MR. REDMOND: And that will conclude the State's 1 cross examination.

2 THE COURT: All right. Very good. And is there 3 re-direct?

4 MR. SECOR: One question.

5 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

6 BY MR. SECOR:

7 Q. Did you love Bellany Clyburn?

8 A. Oh, yes. Yes, I did. Yes. Yes, I did. I did.
9 Sure did. Sure did.

10 Q. Thank you, sir?

11 COLLOQUY

12 THE COURT: Very good. Sir. I'm going to let you 13 return to your seat. Please watch your step. All right, 14 ladies and gentlemen, what we're going to do now is we're 15 just going to stand down and take our lunch break. And 16 What I ask you to do is this. Be back in the jury room at 17 2:15. It's one o'clock now. That's an hour and 15 18 minutes for lunch.

19 And at that point we will resume and conclude the 20 trial. Let's again, please, don't discuss the case with 21 whomever you have lunch and keep an open mind. Just enjoy 22 your lunch. We will see you at 2:15. We will remain where 23 we are while you depart the courtroom. Have a nice lunch.

24 (WHEREUPON, the jury panel was excused from the 25 courtroom at 1:01 p.m.)

1 THE COURT: All right. Defense will rest at this 2 point?

3 MR. YOUNG: Yes, sir, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: All right. Will there be rely evidence
5 from the State?

6 MR. REDMOND: Your Honor, we were just discussing 7 that. If I may have -- I guess I can let the Court know
8 immediately after the lunch break. If there is reply it 9 will be extremely brief cause I'm not even sure it will be 10 necessary based on everything.

11 THE COURT: All right. Well, gentlemen, then let's 12 go ahead and stand down. We will be back shortly after 13 2:00 in case we need put anything on the record. We'll 14 take an hour for lunch. Court is now in recess until 15 two o'clock.

16 (WHEREUPON, Court was in recess at 1:10 p.m. and 17 reconvenes at 2:00 p.m.)

18 THE COURT: All right. We're all in place now.
19 Ladies and gentlemen, what I would propose to do is that 20 we bring the jury out. I'm told that the Defendant -- the 21 Defense rests, and then there is no reply from the State.
22 And thus we would proceed into closing. Also by agreement 23 of counsel the Court will charge on the law first and then 24 be followed by the Defense closing argument to be followed
25 by the State's closing argument. Meaning that the State

1 has waived opening. We will proceed in that fashion. Any 2 objection from the State?

3 MR. FOARD: None from the State, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: From the Defense?

5 MR. YOUNG: No, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: All right. Then I believe we're ready.
7 Please bring out the jury.

8 (WHEREUPON, the jury panel enters the courtroom at 9 2:04 p.m.)

10 THE COURT: All right. Welcome back, ladies and 11 gentlemen. I trust you had a nice lunch, and if you 12 recall we were at the end of the testimony phase of the 13 case when we stopped this morning after our morning 14 session. And let me ask now, are there further witnesses 15 for the Defendant?

16 MR. YOUNG: No, Your Honor. The Defense rests.

17 THE COURT: All right. The Defense rests. Is there 18 reply witnesses for the State?

19 MR. FOARD: None from the State, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: All right. Good very. Then that means 21 that all of the testimony in the case has concluded, and 22 we're now at the point in the case where we will have 23 closing arguments by counsel and the charge on the law by 24 the Court. And I will tell you that pursuant to a 25 discussion with the attorneys over the lunch hour we have

1 made a determination that I will actually charge first.

2 The Court will give you the charge of the law first,
3 and then you will hear arguments of counsel. So the way 4 we're going to proceed is charge on the law and then 5 closing argument from Defense and then closing arguments 6 from the State. State is given final argument; that is 7 the last argument because the State again bares the burden 8 of proof.

9 CHARGE OF THE COURT

10 All right. Let me ask. Let's do a little voice 11 check. Are you able to hear me in the courtroom, ladies 12 and gentlemen? Everyone over here? All right. Very 13 good.

14 As you are aware the State, seated at the table
15 closest to you, has charged the Defendant, Thomas Jeffery
16 Stewart, with one count of murder and the possession of a 17 weapon during the commission of a violent crime. And as 18 you know the Defendant has denied these charges against 19 him. He's entered a plea of not guilty. These charges 20 are based on an indictment, and of course, as was 21 explained to you at the beginning -- I hate to sound like 22 a broken record, but to say it again because of its 23 importance, the indictments are simply a set of 24 accusations against the Defendant.

25 They're not evidence in this case. The evidence

1 which you are to consider you've already heard which is 2 the testimony of the witnesses along with such exhibits as 3 may have been admitted in the record during the course of 4 the trial. And as you know there are many exhibits that 5 came into evidence, and we will provide all of those to 6 you whenever you begin your deliberations.

7 Now, I said to you a moment ago that the Defendant 8 pled not guilty, and you heard that. You're aware of that 9 because it happened here in the courtroom. But even 10 beyond that, even if the Defendant had not entered a plea 11 he comes into this courtroom clothed with a presumption of 12 innocence, and that presumption of innocence continues 13 with the Defendant and entitles him to a verdict of not 14 guilty unless and until that presumption is dispelled by 15 evidence that satisfied you, ladies and gentlemen of the 16 jury, beyond a reasonable doubt that the Defendant is 17 guilty of the offense charge and the State has proved each 18 and every element of the alleged crime beyond a reasonable 19 doubt.

20 Now, as I said to you at the beginning of the trial 21 please remember that you are the judges of the facts in 22 this case. And under the constitution that means you make 23 the decision as to what the facts are. And also discuss 24 with you that because you're the judge of the facts that 25 means you're going to have to gauge the credibility and

1 the believability of the witnesses who come before you if 2 you find that there is testimony that is inconsistent or 3 mutually exclusive.

4 There is no need for me to go over again those 5 factors that we discussed at the beginning of the trial.
6 I will simply say you constantly, every day, all of us in 7 our lives gauge people's credibility and believability.
8 You use those factors that have proved well for you
9 through your common sense here in the courtroom. But I
10 will tell you that in deciding the evidence in this case; 11 that is what are the facts of the case, you may believe as 12 much or as little of any one witness' testimony you think 13 proper.

14 You can believe the testimony of one witness against 15 a whole group of people or you can do just the opposite.
16 You can believe part of what a witness says and completely 17 disbelieve the rest. I further tell you that the fact 18 that certain testimony may not be directly controverted 19 does not mean that you have to accept it as true because 20 you must still first gauge the credibility and the 21 believability of the witness through which it comes. Keep 22 in mind throughout this process you have one objective, 23 and that is to search for and find the truth regardless of 24 from which side of the case or from which witness that 25 truth may come.

1 Now, there are two types of evidence that is put 2 forward in cases such as these. There is direct evidence 3 and there is circumstantial evidence. Direct evidence is 4 the testimony of a person who asserts or claims to have 5 actual knowledge of a fact such as an eyewitness witness 6 who testifies about what they say or heard or did. That 7 is direct evidence. Circumstantial evidence, on the other 8 hand, is proof of a set or chain of facts that then 9 indicate the existence of yet another fact. I will tell 10 you that the law makes no distinctions between the weight 11 or value to be given either direct or circumstantial
12 evidence. Nor is a greater degree of one required over 13 the other as to the certainty of the evidence.

14 It's up to you to weigh any and all evidence which is 15 put forth. And after weighing all the evidence, which is 16 what you should do; both direct and circumstantial, if 17 you're not convinced of the guilt of the Defendant on a 18 particular charge beyond a reasonable doubt then you must 19 find the Defendant not guilty of that charge.

20 Now, I talked to you a little bit about gauging 21 credibility and weighing the evidence, and of course, I've 22 been back in your jury room. Not while you've been back 23 there, but I've been back there before, and there is not a 24 set of scales to go back and weigh the evidence on. Well, 25 obviously, you know that. And the reason for that is

1 because it's entirely a mental process. But on that point
2 I will say this to you. That evidence that weigh with you
3 is evidence that convinces you of its truth. Again, 4 regardless of which side of the case or which witness -- 5 from which witness it may have come.

6 Now, ordinarily -- I want to talk with you just a 7 little bit again about expert witnesses. Ordinarily, the 8 rules of evidence don't permit witnesses to come in and 9 give opinions or conclusions. But an exception to this is 10 what we call the Expert Witness Rule. And this is for a 11 witness who by some level of education or experience or 12 knowledge in a particular education or art or science or 13 profession may come in and on a relevant and material 14 matter state an opinion with regard to something that 15 maybe within that expert's purview.

16 You should consider that expert opinion just as you 17 would any other evidence in the case. And you give it the 18 weight that you believe it is entitled to. If you decide 19 that it is not based on sufficient reasoning or education, 20 experience, then you should disregard the testimony of the 21 expert witness. Again, I say to you that an expert 22 witness testimony should not be given any greater weight 23 than any other witness simply because the person is 24 determined to be an expert. But I say to you that you're 25 not required to follow an expert's opinion. You simply --

1 is given to you for the purposes of assisting you in 2 finding matters of fact that are within that expert's 3 purview if you deem it to be helpful. So you give it the 4 weight you believe it is entitled to.

5 Now, during the trial you also heard by videotape the 6 testimony from children. And where a witness is a child 7 you must determine as with any other witness whether that 8 testimony is believable. And in deciding believability
9 you may consider not only matters that I've already 10 discussed with you about believability or credibility, but 11 you may also consider the age of the child, the child's 12 ability to observe and remember facts, and the child's 13 ability to understand what was happening and to answer 14 questions.

15 Because young children may not fully understand what 16 is happening in a particular situation it's up to you to 17 decide whether the child understood the seriousness of 18 appearing as a witness on the videotape and whether the 19 child understood the questions and whether the child has a 20 good and valid memory. Whether the child understand the 21 difference between lying and telling the truth. In 22 addition young children may be influenced by the way 23 questions are posed. So it's up to you to decide whether 24 the child understood the questions that were asked and 25 then answered truthfully.

1 Now, the same constitution that makes you the judge 2 of the facts makes me the judge of the law here in the 3 courtroom. And I will tell you from just like as you do 4 from living in a small town or a small county most of your 5 life and being out on the street and around people I know 6 that there is a lot of bad information about what the law
7 is on any particular subject out on the street. And so 8 I'm asking you, ladies and gentlemen, to set aside what 9 preconceived notion you may have of what the law is or 10 even what you or I think might be a better idea of what 11 the law should be and just accept the law as I give it to 12 you in this charge, apply it to the facts as you find it 13 in this case if you do. And if you do that you're going 14 to find a verdict which is just and which is true and 15 which is fair.

16 I will tell you that this charge I'm giving you I've 17 gone over it with the attorneys, and I have reviewed the 18 law that I'm giving to you, and if I should make a mistake 19 which I am not doing. I do not believe I'm doing, then of 20 course, that error would be preserve because our court
21 reporter is taking this down. And there will be another 22 day and time that that can be addressed by another court
23 if necessary. But I say to you for today's purposes I am 24 giving the law correctly. Please accept it as I give it 25 to you, and apply it to the facts as you find them.

1 Now, in a criminal prosecution of this type, as I've 2 already said. In fact I've said it many times. The 3 State, seated at the table closest to you. The 4 prosecution has burden of proof at all times. The Defense 5 doesn't have a burden of proof, and the Defendant is 6 presumed innocent. And in this State, according to our 7 constitution, the prosecution must prove its case to the 8 standard of proof we call beyond a reasonable doubt.
9 That's the standard. Beyond a reasonable doubt before a 10 finding of guilt may occur. And if the State fails to 11 meet this high burden then the Defendant is entitled to an 12 acquittal.

13 And so you say, "well, all right then. What is a 14 reasonable doubt?" Well I'm going to start by telling you 15 what it's not. It's not an imaginable or a fanciful doubt 16 or a weak doubt. It's a substantial doubt. It's a doubt 17 for which the words imply. A doubt for which you can give 18 or assign a reason based on the testimony and the evidence 19 in this case. And you and I know that a reasonable doubt, 20 it's not any sort of a doubt. You and I know that a 21 reasonable doubt may arise from any number of everyday 22 life experiences we have. Such as what tie to wear to an 23 event or what pair of shoes to wear. That is not a 24 reasonable doubt.

25 A reasonable doubt is a doubt that makes an honest,

1 sincere, conscientious juror in search of the truth
2 hesitate to act. Proof beyond a reasonable doubt is proof
3 that leaves you firmly convinced of the Defendant's guilt.
4 If you have a doubt for which you can give or assign a 5 reason as to the guilt of the Defendant based on the 6 evidence in this case then he's entitled to a verdict of 7 not guilty.

8 Now, I tell you a reasonable doubt may arise from the 9 evidence that's in the case or from the lack or absence of 10 evidence in the case. And you the jury must make the 11 determination of whether or not reasonable doubt exists as 12 to the guilt of the Defendant in these two cases.

13 I will say to you the very fact, however, that the 14 jury goes back in the jury room and engages in a full and 15 free discussion on the issue of guilt or non-guilt this 16 these cases with a conversational ebb and flow on those 17 issues doesn't automatically mean that reasonable doubt 18 exists in this case or in any other case for that matter.

19 Now, let's talk about criminal intent. Criminal 20 intent is a necessary element of each crime that must be 21 proved by the State beyond a reasonable doubt. Criminal 22 intent is always a matter that must be determined by the 23 jury from the circumstances that surround the situation.
24 Now, you and I know that there is no way to prove intent 25 to some mathematical certainty. And there is no way that

1 medical science lets us open up someone's mind and look in 2 and determine what they had in mind at a particular 3 moment.

4 So the law states that criminal intent maybe inferred 5 from the circumstances shown to have existed both before
6 and after the fact. And this is how you the jury make a 7 determination of whether or not the element requiring 8 intent, criminal intent, is present. I tell you that 9 criminal intent is a state of mind that operates jointly 10 with an act or omission in the commission of a crime.

11 Criminal intent is a mental state of conscious wrong 12 doing. So it's up to you the jury to determine whether 13 the State has proved the element of criminal intent in 14 this case based on the circumstances shown to have 15 existed. I tell you that the State must prove criminal 16 intent beyond a reasonable doubt just as the State must 17 prove every element of the accusations beyond a reasonable 18 doubt.

19 Now, during the course of the trial, of course you in 20 the courtroom here you heard this, the Defendant took the 21 stand and testified and made certain explanations. But I 22 charge you it's not incumbent upon the Defendant to prove 23 his explanations or anything else for that matter. The 24 Defendant's plea of not guilty placed the burden of proof
25 on the State to prove his guilty beyond a reasonable doubt

1 before the Defendant can be found guilty. And you must 2 gauge the credibility and the believability of the 3 Defendant just as you would any other witness in the case.

4 Now, furthermore, a statement alleged to have been 5 made by the Defendant was admitted into evidence in this 6 case. You may recall you saw it on videotape. And as 7 well as there may have been other oral admissions that 8 were testified to or oral statements testified to. So 9 while the Court has determined these statements were 10 admissible; that is they came into testimony, I instruct 11 you that you make the ultimate decision of whether or not 12 the Defendant made the statement.

13 And if the Defendant did make the statement you must 14 then determine whether the statement was made by the 15 Defendant voluntarily and of his own free will. This 16 means the statement was not caused by pressure or force or 17 fear or threats or coercion, intimidation or by hope or 18 promise of lenience or reward of any kind. In determining 19 whether a statement is voluntary you should consider both 20 the characteristics of the Defendant and the details of 21 the question.

22 Some of the factors you just consider are: The age
23 of the Defendant. The Defendant's education or perhaps 24 lack of it. The Defendant's mental ability or capacity.
25 The Defendant's I.Q. or his intelligence as you perceive

1 it. The Defendant's background and environment. The 2 place and length of detention. The nature of the 3 questioning. And the advice or lack therefore to the 4 Defendant of his constitutional rights, including but not 5 limited to, the right to remain silent; that any statement 6 can be used against him in a Court of law. The right to 7 have a lawyer present. That if he could not afford a 8 lawyer one would be appointed to represent him without 9 cost. And that he could stop making his statement at any 10 time.

11 You must carefully consider all the surrounding 12 circumstances before you give any weight to an alleged 13 statement by the Defendant. The State has the burden of 14 proving beyond a reasonable doubt that the alleged 15 statement was voluntarily, and if you determine it was you 16 made then give the statement any further consideration you 17 deem proper. You must decide what weight if any should be 18 given to that statement. But if you determine the alleged 19 statement was not freely and voluntarily the statement of 20 the Defendant then you should not consider that statement 21 at all.

22 All right. Now, let me define for you the charges; 23 that is the criminal charges which have been levied in 24 this case. I charge you first on the crime of murder.
25 The Defendant is charged with murder as you are aware. In

1 order to prove murder the State must prove beyond a
2 reasonable doubt that the Defendant killed another person 3 with malice aforethought. Malice is hatred or ill will or 4 hostility towards another person. It is the intentional 5 doing of a wrongful act without just cause or excuse and 6 with intent to inflict an injury or under circumstances 7 that the law will infer an evil intent.

8 Now, malice aforethought doesn't require that the 9 malice exist for any particular amount of time before the 10 act is committed, but the malice must exist in the mind of 11 the Defendant just before and at the time the act is 12 committed. Therefore, there must be a combination of 13 previous evil intent and the act itself.

14 Malice aforethought may be either expressed or it
15 maybe inferred. The terms, 'expressed' and 'inferred' 16 don't mean different kinds of malice, but they merely mean 17 the manner in which malice may be shown to exist; that's 18 either by direct evidence or by inference from the facts 19 and circumstances shown to have existed.

20 Express malice is shown when a person speaks ill will 21 or expresses hatred for another or when the person
22 prepares beforehand to do an act which was later 23 accomplished. For example, any act of preparation that 24 goes to show that the deed was within the mind; that is 25 within the Defendant's mind. Well, that would be

1 expressed malice.

2 But malice may also be inferred from conduct showing 3 a total disregard for human life. Now, that was the 4 charge of murder, but I want to say to you, ladies and 5 gentlemen, that many greater offenses which murder, of 6 course, is a greater offense also have what we call lessor
7 included offense. Now, it sounds a little bit 8 complicated, but it's really not. What it means is that 9 the -- a Defendant who is indicted for a greater crime
10 such as murder may be convicted by the jury of a lessor 11 charge if the jury finds that the facts proven actually 12 fit that lessor charge and not the greater charge. And 13 that the elements of the lessor charge have each been 14 proved beyond a reasonable doubt.

15 I will tell you that specifically the greater charge
16 will include an additional element that is not necessary
17 for the lessor charge. Now, included within the offense 18 of murder is the lessor included offense of voluntary 19 manslaughter. And if you find that the State has failed
20 to prove beyond a reasonable doubt that the Defendant 21 committed a murder then you must consider whether the 22 State has proved beyond a reasonable doubt that the 23 Defendant committed a crime of voluntary manslaughter.

24 Now, in order to prove voluntary manslaughter the 25 State must prove beyond a reasonable doubt that the

1 Defendant took the life of another person in the sudden 2 heat of passion based on a sufficient legal provocation.
3 Both the heat of passion and the sufficient legal 4 provocation must be present at the time of the killing to 5 constitute voluntary manslaughter. Sudden heat of passion 6 may for a time affect a person's self-control and 7 temporarily disturb a person's reason. The sudden heat of 8 passion must be the type that would make an ordinary 9 person unable to coolly reflect on his actions and would 10 produce an uncontrollable impulse to do violence.

11 Sufficient legal provocation must be the type that 12 would make a person of ordinary reason and caution to 13 become enraged or lose control temporarily. The 14 provocation needed for voluntary manslaughter must come 15 from some act of or related to the victim.

16 Words alone, however vulgar and insulting they may 17 be, are not enough sufficient legal provocation where 18 death is caused by the use of a deadly weapon the words 19 must be accompanied by some overt, threatening act which 20 could have produced the heat of passion.

21 The exercise of a legal right, no matter how 22 offensive it is to another is never sufficient legal 23 provocation for voluntary manslaughter. And if the heat 24 of passion had cooled or if there was sufficient time 25 between the provocation, if any, and the killing for the

1 passion of a reasonable person to have cooled the killing 2 would not be voluntarily manslaughter.

3 In deciding whether a reasonable person would have 4 had enough time to cool off you should consider all the 5 factors and circumstances that surround the killing. You 6 may consider the nature of the provocation if any. The 7 Defendant's mental and physical state. And the 8 circumstances and the relationship between the parties.

9 I also tell you that in determining whether an act 10 which caused death was impaled by heat of passion or by 11 malice all surround circumstances and conditions are to be 12 taken into consideration including previous relations and 13 conditions connected with the tragedy as well as those 14 existing at the time of the killing.

15 Now, let's go back to the greater offense versus the 16 lessor offense. If you find that the Defendant is guilty
17 of one of the charges. In other words has committed a 18 homicide; that is has caused the death of another person, 19 and that's either manslaughter or murder, one of the two.
20 But you cannot determine which of the charges it is then 21 you must resolve that doubt in favor of the Defendant and 22 find him guilty on the lessor charge of voluntary
23 manslaughter. Of course, you can't find the Defendant 24 guilty on any charge unless the State proves all the 25 element of that particular charge beyond a reasonable

1 doubt.

2 Now, let's also talk about the possession of a weapon
3 during the commission of a violent crime. The Defendant 4 is charged with this as well. And it is with the 5 possession of a weapon during the commission of or the 6 attempt to commit a violent crime. And in order to prove 7 this the State must prove beyond a reasonable doubt the 8 Defendant visibly displayed a knife or a weapon during the 9 commission of a violent crime. A knife means an 10 instrument or tool with a sharp cutting blade whether or 11 not fastened on a handle which can be caused to inflict a 12 cut, a slash or a wound.

13 In order to find the Defendant guilty of the 14 possession of a weapon during the commission of a violent 15 crime you must first find the Defendant guilty of either 16 committing a violent crime or attempting to commit a 17 violent crime. I charge you that under South Carolina law 18 murder and voluntary manslaughter are both classified as 19 violent crimes.

20 All right, now. The Defendant has raised the issue 21 of self-defense in this case, and let's talk about that.
22 Self-defense is a complete defense. And if it's 23 established then you must find the Defendant not guilty of 24 any charge. The State has the burden of disproving 25 self-defense by proof beyond a reasonable doubt. Just to

1 make sure we understood that. It's not the Defendant's 2 position to prove it. It's the State's position to 3 disprove it.

4 And if you have a reasonable doubt of the Defendant's 5 guilt after considering all the evidence, including the 6 evidence of self-defense, then you must find the Defendant
7 not guilty. On the other hand if you have no reasonable 8 doubt of the Defendant's guilt, after examining all the 9 evidence, including the evidence of self-defense, then you 10 must find the Defendant guilty.

11 And the following elements are required to establish 12 self-defense, okay. So let's listen carefully.

13 First, the Defendant must be without fault in 14 bringing on the difficulty. If the Defendant's conduct 15 was a type which would reasonably calculated to and did 16 provoke a deadly assault the Defendant would be at fault 17 in bringing on the difficulty and would not be entitled to 18 an acquittal of self-defense.

19 So again, the Defendant must be without fault in 20 bringing on the difficulty. And if the Defendant 21 voluntarily participated in some sort of mutual combat for 22 purposes other than protection the killing of the victim 23 would not be self-defense. This is true even if during 24 the combat the Defendant feared death or serious bodily 25 injury. However, if before a killing is committed the

1 Defendant withdraws and tries in good faith to avoid 2 further conflict, and either by word or act makes that 3 fact known to the victim he would be without fault in 4 bringing on the final difficulty.

5 For mutual combat there must be a mutual intent and 6 willingness to fight between the parties. This intent may 7 be shown by the acts and conduct of the parties and the 8 circumstances that surround the combat. In addition it 9 must be shown that both parties were armed with a deadly 10 weapon.

11 Secondly, so the first was without fault. Secondly, 12 the second element of self-defense was that the Defendant 13 was actually in imminent danger of death or serious bodily 14 injury or that he actually believed he was in imminent 15 danger of death or serious bodily injury. If the 16 Defendant was actually in imminent danger it must be shown 17 that the circumstances would have warranted a person of 18 ordinary firmness and courage to strike the fatal blow to 19 prevent death or bodily injury to himself.

20 If the Defendant believed he was in imminent danger 21 of death or serious bodily injury it must be shown that a 22 reasonably prudent person of ordinary firmness and courage
23 would have had the same belief under the same 24 circumstance. In deciding whether the Defendant actually 25 was or believed he was in immediate danger of death --

1 excuse me. Of death or serious bodily injury you should 2 consider all the facts and circumstances that surround the 3 situation including the physical condition and 4 characteristics of the Defendant and of the victim.

5 Now, the Defendant does not have to show that he was 6 actually in danger. It is enough that the Defendant
7 believed he was in imminent danger, and a reasonably 8 prudent person of ordinary firmness and courage would have 9 believed the same thing under the same circumstances. The 10 Defendant has the right to act on appearances even though 11 the Defendant's beliefs may have been a mistake. It is 12 for you to decide whether the Defendant's fear of 13 immediate danger of death or serious bodily injury was 14 reasonable and would have been felt by an ordinary person 15 in the same situation.

16 Now, evidence of prior difficulties between the 17 Defendant and the victim maybe considered in deciding 18 whether a threat existed and whether the Defendant had 19 reason to believe that a threat existed and how serious 20 that threat was and the Defendant's state of mind on the 21 particular occasion. Now, the relative sizes and ages and 22 weights of the Defendant and the victim may be considered 23 in deciding the apparent or actual need for force in 24 self-defense and the amount of the force that is needed.

25 Also, the reputation of the victim as a violent

1 person may be considered in deciding whether there was a
2 need for force, whether the Defendant had to believe -- 3 excuse me. Had reason to believe there was a need for 4 force and whether deadly force was reasonably necessary
5 and whether the victim had such a reputation.

6 And also prior instances of violence by the victim
7 may be considered in deciding whether the Defendant 8 actually believed he was in imminent danger of death or 9 serious bodily injury or was actually in imminent danger.

10 And the final element of self-defense is that the 11 Defendant had no other probable way to avoid the danger of 12 death or serious bodily injury than to act as the 13 Defendant did in this particular instance. We call this 14 the duty to retreat. Now, the Defendant has no duty to 15 retreat if by doing so the danger of being killed or 16 suffering serious bodily injury would increase.

17 Now, as I instructed you earlier a man does not have 18 the right to act in self-defense if he brought about the 19 difficulty. That principle is subject to the following
20 limitation I have: If after bringing on the difficulty 21 the aggressor withdraws in good faith from the conflict 22 and announces in some way to his adversary of his 23 intention to withdraw he's restored his right to 24 self-defense, and he may act accordingly.

25 I further charge you that being under a peace bond

1 does not deprive the Defendant of a plea of self-defense
2 if the Defendant's actions otherwise comport with the 3 requirements of the law of self-defense. I further charge
4 you that the jury may consider prior instance of violence 5 or unprovoked aggression by the victim in determining 6 whether the Defendant had a reasonable belief of imminent
7 danger. Such prior instances of violence or unprovoked 8 aggression by the victim need not have been committed 9 against the Defendant.

10 It is only necessary that the Defendant knew of such 11 prior instances of violence or unprovoked aggression by 12 the victim, and that such prior instances of violence of 13 unprovoked aggression were so closely connected at a point 14 of time or occasion with the homicide as to produce from 15 the Defendant a reasonable apprehension of great bodily 16 harm.

17 And then, further, in consideration of whether 18 self-defense is applicable here you should try as near as 19 you can to put yourself in the Defendant's situation at 20 the time of the stabbing. You should consider the 21 circumstances by which he was surrounded, and take into 22 consideration the person with whom he was dealing and all 23 the facts which surrounded him as you obtained from the 24 testimony. And as near as you can view the situation 25 accordingly.

1 Accordingly, unless the State shows that a person of 2 ordinary reason, coolness and prudence would not have 3 acted as the Defendant did under the circumstances that 4 surrounded him at the time of the stabbing then you should 5 find the Defendant not guilty. You are not to determine 6 if the Defendant made the wisest choice possible but only 7 a reasonable one under the circumstances as he perceived 8 them.

9 And then finally on the issue of self-defense a 10 person cannot be required to make an exact calculation as 11 to the degree or amount of force which may be needed to 12 avoid death or serious bodily harm. Therefore, in 13 self-defense the Defendant has the right to use the force
14 needed to avoids death or serious bodily harm. The force 15 used in self-defense does not have to be limited to the 16 degree or amount of force used by the victim.

17 The Defendant has the right to use so much force as 18 appear to be necessary for complete self-protection in 19 which a person of ordinary reason and firmness would have 20 believed to be needed to prevent death or serious bodily 21 harm.

22 All right. Now, ladies and gentlemen, I'm going to 23 conclude these comments and then you will hear from the 24 lawyers and you will retire to deliberate. And when you 25 do that I want to express to you the hope that each of you

1 will be mindful of your importance of your responsibility.
2 And I know you are. You may recall when we were together
3 on Monday I mentioned to you that you cannot be required, 4 you have an exemption, cannot be required to serve as a 5 juror more than one time in a three calendar year period 6 in the same court. And there is a reason for that.
7 Because it's a difficult duty. It's a difficult task. It
8 requires the proper performance. It requires each of us 9 to reach the height of freeing our minds of all outside 10 and improper influences because you and I are acting for 11 the community to see to it that every trial here is fair 12 and every verdict here is just.

13 Now, you probably noticed that the presiding officer 14 in the courtroom which in this case is me is referred to 15 as 'Your Honor'. And I know you know that's not some 16 title given to me individually. It's a title that is 17 assigned to the position that I'm privileged to hold 18 because this Court is entrusted with the honor of this 19 community, this county, this state and indeed this nation 20 to see that to it that every trial here is fair and every 21 verdict is just.

22 Now, in a few moments you're going to take the 23 preservation of the honor of this community, county, state 24 and nation with you in the jury room and decide this case.
25 Now, when I say that please understand I'm not telling you

1 how you should decide this case. That's not my point at 2 all. I'm simply saying this: As the presiding officer in 3 this courtroom it is of vital importance to me that 4 whatever verdict you reach will be the result of your 5 going back in the jury room and confining your 6 consideration to the evidence put forth in this courtroom.
7 And weighing that evidence fairly and impartially and 8 apply that evidence to the law that I've given you here in 9 this charge.

10 And if you do that, and I have every confidence that 11 is what you will do, then you will reach a verdict that is 12 just and fair. I say to you, ladies and gentlemen, 13 everyone in this case is entitled to justice. Nothing 14 more and nothing less. We owe no sympathy to any party.
15 We owe no support to any party. And, again, I'm of the 16 confirmed opinion that what verdict you reach will 17 represent truth and justice for all parties.

18 Now, Madam Forelady and members of the jury, remember 19 that the verdict must be unanimous as to all issues. And 20 I will talk with you a little further after the lawyers
21 conclude their arguments about the specific verdict form 22 we will give you and the responses for that verdict form.
23 But at this time the Court recognizes Defense counsel for 24 closing statement.

25 MR. YOUNG: Thank you, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: Yes, sir. Mr. Young.

2 CLOSING STATEMENT BY MR. YOUNG

3 MR. YOUNG: There are a bunch of people in this 4 courtroom that think I'm wasting my breathe. They think 5 that what happened in here this morning means I should not 6 bother. But they don't know what I know, and Thomas
7 doesn't know what I know. I don't know what it feels like 8 to be accused of something you didn't do. Especially not 9 the most serious crime in South Carolina.

10 Thomas didn't murder Bellany Clyburn. What happened
11 was a tragedy and should never have happened. But it 12 wasn't murder. And Thomas doesn't know what I know about 13 you, and that is how serious you take your 14 responsibilities as jurors. How that oath meant something 15 to you. How when you agreed to look through all of this 16 evidence with an eye towards common sense and examine it
17 critically and hold the State to it's burden of proof
18 beyond a reasonable doubt, beyond any and all reasonable 19 doubt, that you would arrive at a just verdict.

20 Sometimes we get caught up in this fight about us, 21 them, us and them. Me and him. And I feel like I lost 22 the trust of my client. But I shouldn't cause I trust 23 you. The State wants you to convict Thomas Stewart of the 24 most serious crime in South Carolina when they know for a 25 fact that there are questions about the evidence. Those

1 questions can be answered. The answers are right here.
2 All we've got to do is test them. I understand that some 3 point in time S.L.E.D. had some five item limit policy
4 because of a backlog. Okay. Test it now. Test it today.
5 Don't convict a man for murder when you have those 6 questions.

7 Whose blood is on the carpet? Test it. Whose blood
8 is on the wall? Test it. Whose hand was the knife? Test
9 it. Whose blood is on the knife? Test it. We all know 10 I'm talking about the knife with Marker Number Two. The 11 bent bladed knife. Test it.

12 What happened to Bellany Clyburn was a tragedy. I 13 wrote in my prepared remarks about the crazy thing called 14 love. People do crazy things when they're in love.
15 Bellany and Thomas did crazy things. There is no doubt 16 about that. The State start its case with a description
17 of their relationship as a sorted tale. I had to look it 18 up. Sorry. But I don't think that their relationship was 19 loveless. I think take experienced joy at times. But at 20 times. Other times not. They weren't nice to each other 21 all the time. But there were times.

22 Their relationship wasn't dirty. It wasn't evil. It 23 doesn't deserve to be characterized that way. Wasn't one 24 that they should have had, but they did the best they 25 could with what they had. And at the end of the day,

1 ladies and gentlemen, the State's theory of the case, and 2 this may not be what they say. But my understanding from 3 what we heard so far is that because Bellany Clyburn went 4 and got a trespassing and a simple assault warrant out on 5 Thomas Stewart after the thing on the 27th and the other 6 thing on the 28th and the thing at the gym, that this 7 enraged Thomas -- well, first off, the Thomas knew about 8 these warrants and this protection order. And that 9 enraged Thomas to the point where he hatched a plan to 10 murder Bellany Clyburn. If you believe that, if that's 11 what you think this evidence shows after a critical 12 examination, then you should convict Thomas Stewart of 13 murder.

14 But that's not what happened. They want you to 15 believe that Thomas Stewart knew about these papers.
16 Well, had discussions with Thomas about the papers on 17 video. He wants you to watch it. There is one thing that 18 he said that was the same both times. There is absolutely 19 not one shred of evidence that Thomas knew about the 20 existence of these warrants or this protection order. The 21 State just wants you to take it on their; that it enraged 22 him to the point that he was homicidal.

23 So he takes -- so he goes to North Carolina. He 24 borrows a car that has a driver's side door that's tied 25 shut. The passenger side door doesn't work. A leaking

1 tire that you have to constantly put air back into or it
2 goes flat. And he drives this vehicle and parks it right 3 in front of Bellany Clyburn's apartment. And according to 4 some witnesses he waits in the car for, I don't know.
5 According to some witnesses 24 hours. Nobody every sees 6 him. Never gets out. Nobody ever notices him. He drives
7 through. Crystal comes over. At one point in time
8 Bellany leaves to go get a pizza. At night. In the dark.
9 Next to an S.U.V. I would think that homicidal, jealous
10 boyfriend might find that to be a fortuitous opportunity 11 seeings how he's laying in wait to kill her. That didn't 12 happen.

13 He fortuitous, unless, of course, he was hiding in 14 her closet upstairs. I know the State doesn't want you to 15 not believe anything that Thomas said. And that's okay.
16 They can want that and they can ask for it. But you've 17 taken an oath to tell them one thing. Prove it. All you 18 got to do is prove it. Prove what he said was a lie.
19 Look at the evidence. Can't be proven. What happened on 20 January the 1st 2010 was not murder. Thank you.

21 THE COURT: Okay. For the prosecution.

22 MR. FOARD: Thank you, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Mr. Foard.

24 CLOSING STATEMENT BY MR. FOARD

25 MR. FOARD: Counsel. Ladies and gentlemen, I'm

1 standing before you now, and the first thing I have to do 2 is I have to express my most sincere thanks to you for the 3 last four days because I am about to asking you to do 4 something that is remarkably difficult. And I'm going to 5 concede the point that counsel for defense just stated. I 6 am going to ask you to convict Thomas Stewart of the most 7 serious crime we have in the State of South Carolina, 8 murder.

9 And the reason I'm going to ask you to do that is 10 because there is absolutely no question that Thomas 11 Jeffery Stewart killed Bellany Clyburn. No, he didn't 12 kill her. Her butchered her in front of her two children.
13 One of whom was his own. Thirty-nine wounds, ladies and 14 gentlemen. Thirty-nine wounds is what the doctor 15 testified to that were found all over her body from the 16 waist up. To her chest. To her back. To her arms. To 17 her hands. To her head.

18 He slaughtered the mother of his child in cold blood 19 on New Years Day of 2010. He stands before your accused 20 of that crime, and I submit to you that the State has done
21 its job. We have met our burden. We have proven our case
22 beyond a reasonable doubt. We're asking you to find him
23 guilty. And because the State bares the burden of proof I 24 unfortunately bare the duty of take you back through some 25 of this evidence. I know you've heard it. I know we've

1 talked about it. But, unfortunately, we've got to cover 2 it.

3 But in order to cover it adequately, and in order for 4 you to do your jobs as the Judge has said you have to do
5 your job you have to apply the law to the evidence. So 6 let's go back and briefly talk about the law and what the 7 State's burden of proof is in this case.

8 I'm asking you to convict for murder which is proof
9 beyond a reasonable doubt that the Defendant killed 10 another person with malice aforethought. And as you heard 11 malice is hatred, ill will or hostility towards another 12 person. An intentional doing of a wrongful act without 13 just cause or excuse and with an intent to inflict an 14 injury under circumstances that law will infer an evil 15 will.

16 Now, malice doesn't have to be formed way in advance.
17 The Judge told you that. He said, "Malice aforethought 18 was not required if malice exists for any particular time
19 before the act is committed." Ladies and gentlemen, you 20 can find that malice was formed at any point up until 21 Thomas Jeffery Stewart began striking the fatal blows with 22 a knife to Bellany Clyburn.

23 It can be expressed or inferred. That means it can 24 be through spoken words or it can be shown through actions 25 or most importantly it can be inferred from the use of a

1 deadly weapon. . And that is what we have here. We have 2 the use ---

3 MR. YOUNG: Your Honor, object to that.

4 THE COURT: Objection noted.

5 MR. FOARD: Thank you, Your Honor. It can be 6 inferred from the use of a deadly weapon. Now, we've got 7 multiple instances of malice in this case. I'm not 8 addressing the killing. No one is disputing the killing.
9 They said it in their opening, he killed Bellany Clyburn.
10 The question is did he do it with malice.

11 Here, the Defendant borrowed a car that was unknown
12 to the victim. The State would say that she didn't know 13 that car. He borrowed a car that was unknown to the 14 victim. By his statement, if you believe his statement, 15 he made a motion signifying slitting his throat when he 16 approached the victim. By his statement again, if you 17 choose to believe it, he threatened to kill her if she 18 didn't let him use her phone.

19 He laid in wait for her that morning. And most 20 importantly by the very first statement he made that day
21 closest in time to the incident he told Deputy Joey Carnes
22 that he went there with a knife. Only later does he say 23 he armed himself with a knife when he got into the 24 apartment. He told Joey Carnes he went there with a 25 knife. And that, ladies and gentlemen, is critically

1 important because at the end of the State's case you heard
2 the videotaped statements of Bellany Clyburn's two 3 children.

4 You saw them sit in the squad room at Pageland P.D.
5 and tell what they saw. And say said they saw Thomas
6 Stewart come there with a knife and attack their mother.
7 There is malice everywhere you look, ladies and gentlemen.
8 It's not hard to find. It's right here just like the 9 Defense said. It's from that witness stand. It's all 10 around us.

11 That's just the express malice. Let's talk about 12 inferred malice. Inferred malice is shown by a total 13 disregard for human life or by use of a deadly weapon.
14 We've already covered that. He armed himself. And by 15 disregard for human life we're talking about all of this.
16 By the fact that he didn't stop. He kept stabbing and 17 stabbing and stabbing. You see it on the video. He makes 18 a motion when he talks about it, ladies and gentlemen.
19 Thirty-nine times.

20 A complete and total disregard for human life. We 21 can stop right there. He killed a human being. We've got 22 instances of malice. He is guilty of murder. Said and 23 done. He's not guilty of voluntary manslaughter. He is 24 guilty of murder. However, if you decide that you want to 25 consider voluntary manslaughter, if he's guilty of murder

1 he's most definitely guilty of voluntary manslaughter.

2 But I'm not asking you to do that because voluntary 3 manslaughter, although it is a lesser included offense of 4 murder, it's designed for a different set of circumstances 5 than what we have here.

6 Voluntary manslaughter, the State must prove beyond a 7 reasonable doubt that the Defendant took the life of 8 another in sudden heat and passion based on sufficient 9 legal provocation. All right. He took the life of 10 another. We don't even have to talk about that. So let's 11 talk about sudden heat of passion and sufficient legal 12 provocation. Sudden heat of passion may for a time affect 13 a person's self-control and temporarily disturb a person's 14 reason. It must be the type they would make an ordinary 15 person unable to coolly reflect on his actions.

16 So if you take the Defendant's or one of the 17 Defendant's multiple stories. He says that he lost it 18 because she wouldn't let him look at the cell phone. Is 19 that sufficient law -- sufficient legal provocation. Does 20 he have the right ---

21 MR. YOUNG: Your Honor, I'm going to object to the 22 continued finger pointing.

23 THE COURT: Overruled.

24 MR. FOARD: Does he have the right to murder another 25 human being because she wouldn't let him look at a cell

1 phone? There is no sudden event here. He laid in wait
2 for her. He approached her. He forced her back into that 3 apartment, if you believe his version of the story. And 4 he came there with a knife. There is nothing sudden about 5 that, ladies and gentlemen. Sufficient legal provocation 6 must be the type to make a person of ordinary reason and 7 caution become enraged and to lose control temporarily.
8 The provocation needed for voluntary manslaughter must 9 come from some act related to the victim. Words alone are 10 not enough. And the exercise of a legal right no matter 11 how offensive is never sufficient legal provocation for 12 voluntary manslaughter.

13 All right. He pepper sprayed her or maced her.
14 Whatever you want to say. We're not disputing that. We 15 know that. We've got the container of pepper spray. It's 16 there. We've got testimony from a credible law 17 enforcement officer that says he was exhibiting symptoms 18 of pepper spray. I'm not disputing that at all. She was 19 in her own home. She was there with her two children. If 20 he was threatening to her she had the right to defend 21 herself. And the exercise of a legal right is never 22 sufficient legal provocation. Voluntary manslaughter
23 doesn't work. Murder, yes. Voluntary manslaughter, no.
24 Possession of a weapon during the commission of a 25 violent crime. Not going to belabor the point, ladies and

1 gentlemen. As you heard murder and manslaughter are both 2 violent crimes in South Carolina. He admits to having a
3 knife. He told law enforcement he brought the knife 4 there. In order to have it you must be in possession of 5 it. He used it to murder Bellany Clyburn. He is guilty
6 pf possession of a weapon during commission of a violent 7 crime.

8 The Defendant has raised the defense of self-defense, 9 and the Judge talked to you about the fact that there are 10 three elements of self-defense. And it's not one or the 11 other. All three elements of self-defense must be present 12 in order for Thomas Jeffery Stewart to be found not 13 guilty. What are the three elements?

14 He must be without fault in bringing about the 15 difficulty.

16 He must be in imminent danger of death or serious 17 bodily injury or the belief that he's in imminent danger 18 of death or serious bodily injury.

19 And, finally, he must have had no other probable way 20 of avoiding the danger of death or serious bodily injury.

21 Without fault in bringing about the difficulty. If 22 anything he is the cause of the difficulty. He went to 23 her house. He approached her with a knife. He forced her 24 back in. He caused the difficulty, ladies and gentlemen.
25 Prong One doesn't work. Self-defense is not applicable.

1 Prong Two, imminent danger. Was he in actual 2 imminent danger of harm. He would like to say that he 3 was, but he said a lot of things. He gave one version of 4 events when he was arrested. He gave another version of 5 events when he was interviewed later that day. He gave a 6 third version of events this morning here in this 7 courtroom that you witnessed with your own eyes.

8 You have to judge the credibility of the witnesses
9 that come before you. And I submit to you that Thomas 10 Jeffery Stewart is neither credible nor honest.

11 Finally, he must have had not other way of avoiding 12 the danger. That was interesting to me because let's just 13 suspend reality for a minute and decide that we take 14 everything that the Defendant said in his video statement 15 at face value. He says he was maced. He says that 16 Bellany Clyburn ran outside. He says that she was yelling 17 for him to come outside, and he says that he saw a large, 18 unknown black man standing in the doorway of the apartment 19 and he was afraid for his life.

20 So he goes to the kitchen to wash his eyes. To wash 21 the mace or the pepper spray from his eyes which 22 ironically enough is the same kitchen that has an exterior
23 door that -- wait a minute. Is the door that he stated 24 all along is the door that he typically uses to come in 25 and out of the apartment so he wouldn't be seen. So

1 you've got Bellany out front supposedly screaming for him
2 to come out. You've got a black man at the front door, 3 and he's in the kitchen. And yet he feels the need to run 4 through the front door past this phantom black man that 5 nobody can identify to where Bellany is.

6 Why didn't he turn around? Why did he not turn
7 around and go out the back door? According to his version 8 of the story that's the same door he used the night before 9 to escape when the police showed up, and Crystal Clyburn
10 was there. It's because none of what he says is true, 11 ladies and gentlemen. And to find that he had no other 12 way to avoid the danger would mean you would have to 13 believe his lies.

14 And lies have become an interesting thing in this 15 trial towards the end because Thomas Stewart self-admits 16 that he is a professional gambler. And that's so 17 interesting to me because when I think of a gambler I 18 think of someone with a visor or hat pulled down and 19 sunglasses and sitting at a table with a deck of cards and 20 a hand in front of him. What's he doing. He's looking 21 across the table at people, and he's bluffing. He's 22 lying. He is deceiving. And that is what Thomas Stewart
23 has done since the moment he was apprehended at Piggs Park
24 in Pageland on January the 1st of 2010.

25 He's tried to deceive law enforcement. He's tried to

1 deceive you. He's tried to deceive everyone associated 2 with this case because he doesn't know any difference.
3 His life is built around lies. He lies to his wife. By 4 his admission had, quote, baby mommas. All these children
5 out here by all these different women. He lies. He lies
6 to the women. He holds them by a string. He keeps them 7 coming. He teaches his children to lie for him. His 8 words, ladies and gentlemen, "we taught them to lie." His 9 words, ladies and gentlemen.

10 This entire farce of a defense is based on lies. And 11 like the cards that he uses to make his living that house 12 of cards is crumbling because the truth is right here.
13 And the truth came from that stand from the mouths of the 14 witnesses, but the truth sure didn't come from him. And 15 that was shown to you today by all of the things that he 16 said and all of the ways he changed his story yet again.

17 He says in a prior statement he was in Marshville
18 playing cards after me left Bellany's house that night, 19 and he called Bellany. There is even a back and forth
20 exchange about Bellany's phone number. Law enforcement 21 asked him, "How did you get Bellany's phone number?" He 22 says, "Oh, I sweet talked her. I did it when I sweet 23 talked her." Today he said he called [REDACTED] phone and 24 [REDACTED] answered.

25 He said today that between 3:30 and four o'clock on

1 the morning that Bellany died he called Bellany and 2 conversed with her about Crystal and that Bellany was 3 upset. And then he said she let him in the house, and 4 that was the beginning of when his testimony went off the 5 road, ladies and gentlemen. Because that is not what he 6 said before. He said she didn't let him in the house. He 7 said she wanted to smell him and that she had a knife, was 8 threatening him. And he was trying to prove to her that 9 he didn't go home to his wife; that he in fact went to 10 Marshville. Never mentioned in the statement, in the 11 video statement.

12 He says when his exchange with Bellany ended at that 13 point he went to Brenda's. No mention of Brenda's in the 14 previous statement. He said this morning that he went to 15 the car wash when he left Brenda's. Well, that's kind of 16 in the prior statement because at one point in the 17 statement he says that he went to the car wash. And in 18 another point in the statement he says he went to the car 19 wash. Then he went to Jefferson and rode around, but 20 there was no mention of Jefferson this morning.

21 And then he says that after he came back he went up 22 and he knocked on the door. Ladies and gentlemen, there 23 is no prior mention of that. No never said in his prior 24 video that he knocked on the door. He said that she was 25 coming out the door and he approached her. He says that

1 [REDACTED] came to the door in his drawers. There is no prior 2 mention of that either.

3 He says that she packed his stuff and threatened to 4 cut his clothes. Not on the video he didn't say that. He 5 said she threw an Army jacket and pants at him. No prior 6 mention of that. He says that there was this trip out to 7 the car, and then a trip back inside. And then he starts 8 talking about the fact that she maced him and she stabbed 9 him or stuck him in the chest. There is none of that.
10 None of that is in his prior statement. He made it all up 11 as he sat in that chair right there this morning. He put 12 on a show, ladies and gentlemen.

13 I can't even recite to you all the rest of the 14 differences because they go on and on and on. But what's 15 not going to go on and on and on is this closing cause I'm 16 going to wrap it up for you. And I'm going to wrap it up, 17 and I want to end with somewhere that I typically wouldn't 18 end in a closing like this. Because ordinarily I would 19 want to take you back to the victim because she's what 20 we're really here for. It's her life that was lost.

21 But rather than talking about Bellany any more,
22 because I believe that Bellany has had a proper reflection 23 upon, I want to close with the children because they are 24 the walking, living, breathing victims in all of this.
25 They saw something that no child should ever have to see.

1 A horrible, horrible scene that I hope and pray to God in 2 heaven that they don't remember. Maybe they do. I hope 3 if they do remember it that one day they're going to be 4 able to forget it because to lose their mother in such a 5 violent and horrible manner I can't think of anything 6 worse for children of such a tender age.

7 And despite the fact that they've lost one parent I
8 still have to stand before you and ask that you convict 9 Thomas Stewart of killing Bellany Clyburn. Bellany 10 deserves justice. Those children deserve justice. Our 11 community deserves justice. Thomas Stewart doesn't 12 deserve anything.

13 MR. YOUNG: Object to that comment.

14 THE COURT: Overruled.

15 MR. FOARD: I ask you to find him guilty of murder
16 and possession of a weapon during a violent crime. I
17 thank you for your attention. And I wish you well, ladies 18 and gentlemen, in your very hard endeavor that comes 19 before you. Thank you very much.

20 COLLOQUY

21 THE COURT: All right, ladies and gentlemen, in 22 response to the objection that was just posed by the 23 Defense and the comment by the State as to what the 24 Defendant may or may not deserve I will tell you that I 25 think we all agree, counsel, and certainly the Court that

1 the Defendant is entitled to his constitutional rights 2 being afforded to him. And that was not a reference at 3 least in this Court's perception that the State was 4 making. Now, let me talk with you if I may about the 5 verdict form. And you can't see if from where you are, 6 but it basically has three questions. And that's because 7 there are two charges here and then a third lessor 8 included offense which comes up to a total of three.

9 And, Madam Forelady, what the verdict form says I'm 10 just going to publish the first question to you. Read it 11 to you. It says, "As to the charge of murder we the jury 12 unanimously find the Defendant, Thomas Jeffery Stewart, 13 beyond a reasonable doubt." And then I have two choices 14 to give you on the piece of paper. Well, any time you 15 have two choices on a piece of paper you cannot -- you 16 can't give them both the same point.

17 So one becomes in front of the other not because 18 there is a priority of some sort. But one simply must be 19 listed in the of the other. The first choice, again not 20 by priority, is not guilty, and the second choice is 21 guilty. Whatever the unanimous decision of the jury is 22 please record that and move forward because after each one 23 of those -- because if you choose not guilty to the 24 greater offense then it says, "Go to Question Two" which 25 asks you about the lessor included offense.

1 If you choose guilty to the greater offense you don't 2 consider the lessor included offense because you found 3 him guilty of the greater offense. And then the third 4 question has to do with the possession of a weapon during 5 the commission of a violent crime as to guilt or innocent.
6 Now, what I'm going to ask you to do, and before you leave 7 I want to just say a word of thanks to our alternate 8 jurors who served in this case.

9 And thank you for the leadership you provided to the 10 jury, Mr. Sellers and Mr. Gainey, as you've assisted them 11 in choosing our foreperson as well as it is comrade and 12 the shared experience you have had with all of the jurors.

13 I want to say to you that many times alternate jurors
14 when you reach this point and you -- we determine that you 15 will not deliberate with the 12, you say, "Well, my 16 goodness. I have wasted my time." Well, I hope you don't 17 feel that way. But I certainly do not feel that way for 18 this reason: Under our system you must have 12 jurors, 19 and if we had only 12 here.

20 If you two were not present, and if one of our jurors 21 even now on the fourth day of the trial got sick, had an 22 emergency, had to leave, and we were down to 11, without 23 an alternate we would have to declare a mistrial and this 24 case would be retried again. Your presence here has 25 prevented that should it happen. I feel like our jurors

1 are going to hold their health here for the next two to 2 three minutes while we organize the exhibits and send them 3 in. But I just want to thank you in their presence for 4 your service.

5 Now, what would I like to do is have all of you go
6 back to the jury room and say your good byes or chat for a 7 moment. Not about the case, and then when we send in the 8 exhibits -- it's not until then cause it just takes us a 9 moment to make sure their all organized and send them in 10 to you. Then we will bring our alternates back out and 11 I'll have the opportunity to speak to you again. And at 12 that point you may begin your deliberations.

13 Now, for the last three plus days you've been waiting 14 on us. And now it reserves. We will wait on you. You're 15 under no time compulsion. You're in no hurry. You take 16 your time and do what you need to do. If you need to take 17 a break, ladies and gentlemen, the room is a little bit 18 close sometimes. If it gets to a point where some need to 19 leave and just step out for a few moments we'll 20 accommodate that. Just knock on the door.

21 And if that happens and you separate then please 22 cease deliberations until you're all back together because 23 you could reach two inconsistent points, conceivably, at 24 two different places which would not be a good thing to 25 do. Just wait until you're all back together.

1 And when you reach a verdict, after you've filled out 2 this form, knock on the door, and we will be here to 3 receive your verdict. Now, if you kindly would return to 4 the jury room. We'll be with you in just a moment, and 5 thank you for your patience.

6 (WHEREUPON, the jury panel was excused from the 7 courtroom at 3:18 p.m.)

8 THE COURT: Now, let's go first to the charge. Is 9 there object -- are there objections or exceptions to the 10 charge as given by the Court from the State?

11 MR. FOARD: None from the State.

12 THE COURT: And from Defense?

13 MR. SECOR: No, sir.

14 THE COURT: All right. Let's broach one objection 15 that occurred during the argument. There are actually 16 two. The last one I discussed with the jury and gave what 17 I felt to be a curative instruction which I believe was 18 sufficient.

19 But the first one was an objection over counsel's 20 reference to the fact that the malice may be inferred from 21 the use of a deadly weapon. The Court did not charge 22 that. I deleted that from my charge. You may have had it 23 in your printed version, but it was removed. But that 24 does not mean -- the fact that the Court doesn't charge it 25 the Court does not perceive that that takes away the

1 ability of the State to argue that from a factual
2 standpoint. We simply did not provide that law, but 3 nevertheless that doesn't change the factual inference 4 that I believe the State is entitled to argue.

5 Your objection, of course, is preserved, but the 6 Court determine not to stop the arguments and consider it 7 further or discuss it on the record.

8 Now, counsel, what I would ask you to do is would you
9 come up, please. Go with our Clerk and Court Reporter, go 10 through the exhibits. Look at the verdict form in 11 finality. Let's finish that as soon as you can so we can 12 take it all into the jury. Please come forward.

13 MR. YOUNG: Your Honor I don't think that we need to 14 renew our directed verdict and all that stuff after we 15 rested.

16 THE COURT: All right. Let's for the record, 17 however, counsel, let's go ahead at the close of all the 18 testimony, and we will consider you have renewed your 19 objections and I have denied each and every one of them as 20 I have previously. Thus, your position on this record is 21 protected, and the Court has also ruled on the issue.

22 MR. YOUNG: Thank you, Your Honor.

23 MR. REDMOND: Thank you, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Please come forward and look at the 25 exhibits. All right. Ladies and gentlemen, let's remain

1 in session. We re going to talk with our alternates a 2 moment. And please go ahead and take the evidence into 3 the jury.

4 (WHEREUPON, the jury panel was excused from the 5 courtroom to begin deliberations at 3:24 p.m.)

6 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Sellers, Mr. Gainey, 7 first of all I want to thank you for -- again, for your 8 service. And, Mr. Sellers, particularly you waived -- you 9 kindly waived your exemption to serve in the first place, 10 and we're grateful for that. We are going to, rather than 11 just release you to leave us we're going to ask you to 12 remain with us for just a little while to make sure that 13 everything is all right in the jury room. Because if we 14 should have to, for some reason, choose an alternate still 15 and replace a juror, well, if you're gone we're unable to 16 do that.

17 And also would not be appropriate for us to allow you 18 to mix with witnesses and others who may have an interest
19 in the case. So we are politely going to ask you if you
20 would join Ms. Lear. She's going to take you to the jury 21 assembly room where we're going to ask you just to remain 22 for a little while and then we'll see how we're doing 23 here, and we will be back with you at some point, all 24 right. Thank you for that courtesy.

25 All right, ladies and gentlemen. We are going to

1 stand down now subject to the call of the jury. Court is 2 in recess until we have either further business from the 3 Solicitor or a response from the jury.

4 (WHEREUPON, Court was in recess at 3:27 p.m.)

5 (WHEREUPON, Court's Exhibit No. 3 was marked for 6 identification and received into evidence.)

7 (WHEREUPON, Court reconvenes at 5:01 p.m.)

8 VERDICT OF THE JURY

9 THE COURT: All right. We are advised that the jury 10 has reached a verdict.

11 MR. YOUNG: I don't know if Your Honor wants to put 12 my objection on the record about that note?

13 THE COURT: Go ahead. We'll do that at this time.

14 MR. YOUNG: Your Honor, the jury sent out a note 15 requesting the charge for murder and malice. Your Honor 16 sent back the portion of the charge. The Defense 17 requested that the entirety of the charge be sent back.

18 THE COURT: All right. And we have marked the note 19 from the jury as an exhibit, and the Court simply 20 responded by sending in the portion of the charge that 21 dealt with murder and defined murder which also defined 22 malice. And although your objection is noted it's 23 overruled as the Court believes the response was 24 appropriate.

25 Now, ladies and gentlemen of the jury -- no, excuse

1 me, of the courtroom, let me just say to you that this has 2 been a hotly contested case. It has been one that, of 3 course, goes to some very core issues for all of us and 4 loss of life and division of the community. But whatever 5 this verdict is it's out of respect for this jury who has 6 come here, not of their own desire, but brought into this, 7 come forward and served their civic duty, whatever their 8 verdict is let's maintain decorum, be respectful. And the 9 Court would intend to, of course, enforce the rules of 10 decorum and thank you in advance for cooperating with 11 that.

12 All right. Now, Madam Clerk, you will publish the 13 verdict?

14 CLERK OF COURT: It doesn't matter.

15 THE COURT: All right. So then when the jury comes 16 in if you would take the verdict form and then hand it to 17 me and I'll give it to the Clerk to publish. All right.
18 Very good. Then let's everyone be at ease. Please, bring 19 in the jury.

20 (WHEREUPON, the jury panel enters the courtroom at 21 5:03 p.m.)

22 THE COURT: All right. Welcome back, ladies and 23 gentlemen of the jury. And, Madam Forelady, I'm am 24 advised that the jury has reached a verdict; is that 25 correct.

1 JURY FOREPERSON: Yes, sir.

2 THE COURT: All right. Would you please give your 3 verdict form to Ms. Hurst. Thank you. Let the record
4 reflect that the verdict form is appropriately filled out
5 and has been signed by the Foreperson. Defendant, please 6 rise, and Madam Clerk, please publish the verdict.

7 CLERK OF COURT: State of South Carolina v. Thomas
8 Jeffery Stewart. Case Numbers 2010-GS-13-192 and -263.
9 As to the charge of murder we the jury unanimously find 10 the Defendant, Thomas Jeffery Stewart, beyond a reasonable
11 doubt guilty.

12 As to the charge of possession of a weapon during the 13 commission of a violent crime we the jury unanimously find 14 the Defendant, Thomas Jeffery Stewart, beyond a reasonable
15 doubt guilty.

16 Foreperson is Michelle Kennedy. Today's date is 17 December 6th 2012. Madam Forelady, is this your verdict
18 and still your verdict?

19 JURY FOREPERSON: Yes, ma'am.

20 CLERK OF COURT: Is it still the verdict of all 12?

21 THE COURT: All right. Let's let the record reflect 22 then that the jury has responded affirmatively to the 23 Court's question, as to the Clerk's question. Mr.
24 Stewart, you may be seated. And, now, counsel, while we 25 are in the presence of the jury are there motions for 1 which a jury response would be necessary?

2 MR. YOUNG: Yes, sir.

3 THE COURT: And what would that motion be?

4 MR. YOUNG: Your Honor, the Defense requests that the 5 jury be polled.

6 POLLING OF THE JURY

7 THE COURT: All right. Then there is a request that 8 the jury be polled. And let me explain this process to 9 you, ladies and gentlemen. Madam Clerk, I have a copy of 10 the -- okay. Do you need this or do you have one?

11 CLERK OF COURT: I don't have that one.

12 THE COURT: You're welcomed to use this if you wish.
13 Whatever is most convenient for you. Our Clerk is going 14 to ask each of you two questions. And what we're going to 15 do is our Clerk will call your name, and when your name is 16 called would you please stand. And the first question is 17 going to be was this your verdict, and then you answer.
18 And then this next question will be is this still your 19 verdict, and then you answer. And we'll do that 20 individually. It's a process we call polling the jury 21 individually. So please follow our Clerk's instructions.

22 CLERK OF COURT: Number 110, Slone L. Perdue. Is 23 this your verdict?

24 JUROR: Yes.

25 CLERK OF COURT: It's still your verdict?

1 JUROR: Yes, ma'am.

2 CLERK OF COURT: Okay.

3 THE COURT: You may be seated. Thank you.

4 CLERK OF COURT: Number 89, Danny R. McManus. Is
5 this your verdict?

6 JUROR: Yes, ma'am.

7 CLERK OF COURT: And still your verdict?

8 JUROR: Yes, ma'am.

9 CLERK OF COURT: Joshua C. Woods, 147. Is this your 10 verdict?

11 JUROR: Yes, ma'am.

12 CLERK OF COURT: And still your verdict?

13 JUROR: Yes, ma'am.

14 CLERK OF COURT: Number 46, Alvin Gainey, Jr. Is 15 this your verdict?

16 JUROR: Yes, ma'am.

17 CLERK OF COURT: And still your verdict?

18 JUROR: Yes, ma'am.

19 CLERK OF COURT: Thank you. Eighty-two, Tammy A.
20 Lowery. Is this your verdict?

21 JUROR: Yes, ma'am.

22 CLERK OF COURT: And still your verdict?

23 JUROR: Yes.

24 CLERK OF COURT: Okay. Ninety-five, Freddie M.
25 Miller. Is this your verdict?

1 JUROR: Yes, ma'am.

2 CLERK OF COURT: And still your verdict?

3 JUROR: Yes, ma'am.

4 CLERK OF COURT: Thank you. 133, Tammy H. Usher. Is
5 this your verdict?

6 JUROR: Yes, ma'am.

7 CLERK OF COURT: And still your verdict?

8 JUROR: Yes, ma'am.

9 CLERK OF COURT: Number 59, Sandra L. Haggins. Is 10 this your verdict?

11 JUROR: Yes, ma'am.

12 CLERK OF COURT: And still your verdict?

13 JUROR: Yes, ma'am.

14 CLERK OF COURT: Thank you. Seventy-six, Michelle B.
15 Kennedy. Is this your verdict?

16 JUROR: Yes, ma'am.

17 CLERK OF COURT: And still your verdict?

18 JUROR: Yes, ma'am.

19 CLERK OF COURT: Number 116 is Ronnie Register. Is 20 this your verdict?

21 JUROR: Yes, ma'am.

22 CLERK OF COURT: And still your verdict?

23 JUROR: Yes, ma'am.

24 CLERK OF COURT: Thank you. Number 88, David R.
25 McLain. Is this your verdict?

1 JUROR: Yes, ma'am.

2 CLERK OF COURT: And still your verdict?

3 JUROR: Yes, ma'am.

4 CLERK OF COURT: Number 80, Kenneth A. Lowe. Is this 5 your verdict?

6 JUROR: Yes, ma'am.

7 CLERK OF COURT: And still your verdict?

8 JUROR: Yes, ma'am.

9 CLERK OF COURT: Thank you.

10 THE COURT: All right. Are there any jurors
11 whose name was not called? If your name was not called 12 please raise your hand. Thus all 12 jurors have been 13 polled and have responded affirmatively to both questions.
14 Now, still, while we're in the presence of the jury, are 15 there any motions from either side for which a jury 16 response would be necessary? From Defense?

17 MR. YOUNG: No, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: And From the State.

19 MR. FOARD: No, Your Honor.

20 COLLOQUY

21 THE COURT: All right, then, ladies and gentlemen, 22 that concludes your portion of service in this case. Just 23 one moment, please. Madam Clerk. In a few moments our 24 clerk is going to give you a check for your per diem which 25 is not going to be enough for anybody to retire on, but

1 it's going to be the County's expression of gratitude for 2 your service. But as you leave the box, ladies and 3 gentlemen, I'm going to come down, if you will permit me.
4 I'm going to shake your hand for a job well done. A 5 verdict that is fair, and that will be my expression of 6 gratitude and appreciation for your service.

7 Now, what happens next is we're going to have a 8 sentence proceeding. We're going to go ahead and do that 9 this afternoon. And it will not take very long, but what 10 I would like to do is give you the opportunity to be here
11 for that if you wish, but not seated in the jury box. I'm 12 going to let you be seated out in the audience. Where you 13 sit in the audience, there is no alignment. Anywhere, you 14 just sit back there if you wish or you may leave if you 15 wish.

16 But what I would ask you first to do is to come back 17 to the jury room so our Clerk can give you your check for 18 your service and then we'll let you leave. And if you 19 choose to be seated, please, do. If you choose not to and 20 you wish to leave, please, do. If you choose to be seated 21 and then decide you want to leave after hearing for a 22 minute or two, go right ahead. Whatever your preference 23 is because we're grateful for your service for a job 24 that's well done.

25 Now, if you give me just a moment I'm going to come

1 over there, and as you go back to the jury room I'm going
2 to shake your hand. But I'm actually going to step away 3 from you because I don't want to call attention away from 4 the fact that you have to step down. So I'm going to 5 stand right here. Please, just come right back this way.
6 Thank you for your service.

7 (WHEREUPON, the jury panel was excused from the 8 courtroom at 5:11 p.m.)

9 THE COURT: All right. Now, while we're outside the 10 presence of the jury, are there motions for which a 11 Court's response would be necessary? If so go ahead.

12 MR. SECOR: Your Honor, may I confer real quick?

13 THE COURT: Yeah, go ahead.

14 MR. SECOR: Just renew the motion we made pursuant to 15 South Carolina Rule of Criminal Procedure 19(a) at the 16 close of the State's case and also after closing arguments
17 and move for a new trial based on all objections overruled 18 throughout the course of the trial and before trial.

19 THE COURT: All right. The Court is prepared to rule 20 on that. The Court's perception is that this trial has 21 been fair; that the matter was submitted to the jury which 22 is the strength of our system. The jury -- both sides had 23 their full say. The jury has made their decision. The 24 Court finds there is ample evidence in the record to 25 support that decision. And also finds that the rulings

1 taken in their entirety were fair and appropriate for the 2 parties. And I'm going to deny those motions and confirm 3 the jury verdict.

4 SENTENCE OF THE COURT

5 At this time we'll have a sentencing proceeding, but 6 we'll give the jury a moment if they wish to come out and 7 join us or if they wish to leave we'll give them that 8 opportunity. So let's all just be at ease for a moment.
9 They can come right out and be seated or depart if they 10 wish.

11 All right. What we would like to do at this time, I 12 realize Mr. Young has stepped out. He will be right back 13 in a moment, but I'd like to hear from the State. If you 14 have a representative of the victim's family that you wish 15 to speak we'll be glad to hear from them as well. And 16 would ask enter your recommendations for sentencing as 17 well as we will hear from the Defense on those issues.

18 MR. FOARD: Would you like for us to stay at the 19 table or come to the rail?

20 THE COURT: No, you can stay at the table and be 21 fine, but I'd ask you please be sure that everyone speak 22 up so that those in the courtroom can hear the 23 proceedings.

24 MR. FOARD: Your Honor, would you like to hear from 25 the victim's representative first or the State?

1 THE COURT: I'd like to hear from the State first and 2 let's -- we'll give Mr. Young a moment to join us and then 3 hear from State's counsel and then the representative of 4 the family who wishes to speak and then we'll turn it to 5 the Defense side.

6 MR. FOARD: Thank you, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Mr. Foard, are you going to be conducting 8 the hearing?

9 MR. FOARD: I am, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: I'll be glad to hear from you, sir.

11 MR. FOARD: Thank you, Your Honor. I believe you 12 having sat through this entire proceeding, you have -- you 13 aer well versed with the facts of this case. Well versed 14 in the nature of the wounds that were sustained by 15 Miss Bellany Clyburn, and in the heinous manner in which 16 she was killed, Your Honor. So I'm not going to belabor
17 that point, however, I wanted to address the Court
18 specifically, and I believe Mr. Redmond wants to briefly 19 say something also.

20 But I felt like I needed to speak to you, Your Honor, 21 because it's no secret around here. I knew Bellany
22 Clyburn, I grew up with her. We marched in marching band 23 together. I'm not going to presume to say that we were 24 close friends because I wouldn't characterize it as that.
25 But we did spend some time together when I was younger,

1 when she was younger. And I will tell Your Honor that I
2 took this case very personally.

3 I am glad to see that justice, as I believe justice
4 is, has been done here today, Your Honor. And I
5 respectfully request that on behalf of the State, given 6 the nature of the offense, given the finding of the jury, 7 and given all of the circumstances surrounding the crime
8 that the Court impose the maximum penalty possible which I 9 believe would be life in prison for the murder as well as 10 five years for the crime of possession of a weapon during 11 the commission of a violent crime.

12 THE COURT: Mr. Redmond, you want to address?

13 MR. REDMOND: Briefly, Your Honor. I just wanted to 14 address the -- just to make it clear as far as the family.
15 I've had a chance to meet with several of them and talk to 16 several of them over the course of this time. I did not 17 know Ms. Clyburn, as you can probably tell from my 18 cross-examination of the Defendant's wife.

19 I was in Court during the term in which Miss Clyburn 20 pled to the incident involving the Defendant's wife. In 21 fact that was my very first term here in Chesterfield 22 County. I can say that at that time I was also aware of 23 the fact that Mr. Foard knew Ms. Clyburn. And that was 24 something that we talked about. And I also remember how 25 affected he was at the time that she was so violently

1 killed.

2 But to the family I just want to say thank you for 3 your patience. We've had lots of discussions over the 4 course of these years, and we hadn't always agreed, 5 obviously, on the course. Which was natural because 6 you've got a lot of people, a big family, and everybody 7 doesn't always agree on the course that we should take.
8 But thankfully we got to where we all wanted to get and 9 seeing this Defendant convicted of murder.

10 And I am delighted for you as a family that you're 11 able to have the opportunity to get justice for your 12 daughter, granddaughter, cousin, friend, loved one. So I
13 just want to say that. And the last thing I want to say I 14 want to congratulate all the other lawyers involved in the 15 case. Mr. Jones, especially Mr. Foard and the role that 16 they took in helping prepare this case for prosecution.

17 As the Court may know I've had a family tragedy in 18 the last few weeks, and I was not able to be as involved
19 in the preparation of this case as I had been previously.
20 And thanks to them for basically taking up the load and 21 letting me fall behind in their coat tails in the 22 presentation and the preparation of the case.

23 And, finally, to the Defense attorneys who I've known 24 both for a while and think the world of and respect them
25 greatly. I think this is an example of how the system

1 should work in that you don't have -- even though it's 2 adversarial, it doesn't have to be personal. And they did 3 their jobs to the best that they could with what they had 4 to work with. And I think the professionalism exhibited 5 by all of these lawyers is to be commended. And I just 6 felt compelled to say that for the record.

7 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, Mr. Redmond. And 8 then did you have a representative of the family that 9 wishes to speak?

10 MR. FOARD: Yes, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: All right. And, ma'am, please tell us 12 your name.

13 MS. TYSON: My name is Beverly Tyson.

14 THE COURT: All right. Ms. Tyson, I'm going to ask 15 you if you would to follow our Clerk's instructions, 16 please. We're going to place you under oath where you 17 stand and just raise your right hand, ma'am.

18 BEVERLY TYSON, after being duly sworn, testified 19 as follows:

20 THE COURT: All right, Ms. Tyson, tell us what you 21 have to say, please.

22 MS. TYSON: I just wanted to address Thomas. I
23 hadn't had a chance to talk to him. It's been three years
24 ago since he murdered my child, and it's just some things 25 that I'd like to get off my chest on behalf of me, my 1 grandchildren, my mother and the rest of the family.

2 THE COURT: Go ahead, ma'am.

3 MS. TYSON: This is about justice for Bellany. You
4 killed her in cold blood. You took her away from us. You
5 caused is so much pain. I want to know what she did so 6 bad to you. You played her judge, her jury and her 7 executioner. Now it's your turn.

8 Your wife said during her testimony that she loved 9 you no matter what. We loved Bellany no matter what. And 10 tonight about seven o'clock or so [REDACTED] has a basketball
11 game. [REDACTED] has a school play, and you know, their mother
12 won't be there to see that. She won't be there to see a 13 many things that will happen in their lives. When they 14 grow up and have children and get married.

15 Their children will never know their grandmother
16 other than the stories that will be told. And I think 17 you're a very selfish person.

18 THE COURT: Thank you, ma'am. And you may be seated.
19 Now we will hear from counsel for the Defendant if you 20 wish to speak before sentence is imposed. We will give 21 you that opportunity, Mr. Young.

22 MR. YOUNG: Your Honor is also familiar through the 23 highly publicized and talks between myself and counsel for 24 the State. And I think even in the paper at one point in 25 time the State requested or offered -- not requested a 35

1 year sentence to Mr. Stewart. I don't think that this is 2 a life without parole case, and would request leniency on 3 behalf of Mr. Stewart.

4 THE COURT: All right. And so that those in the 5 courtroom will be clear let me ask the State, and I will 6 say to those who are present. None of this happens in a 7 vacuum. There are often discussions concerning potential 8 settlements, guilty pleas, resolutions of the matter to 9 avoid the trial and the difficulty of trials for the 10 families and all involved.

11 And tell me what offer had been made to Mr. Stewart 12 prior to this matter going to trial.

13 MR. FOARD: Your Honor, Mr. Young is correct. There 14 had been an offer to plead guilty to murder and possession 15 of a weapon during commission of a violent crime with a 16 State's recommendation of 35 years. That was not accepted
17 by the Defendant, Your Honor.

18 That was largely made, as you pointed out, for the 19 purpose of avoiding having to put this family through a 20 trial, avoiding having to take up the State's resources, 21 and given the fact that those situations changed and Mr.
22 Stewart chose not to take that route, we believe that the 23 State is under no -- nothing compelling us to support that 24 that would have been the recommendation. But, of course, 25 it's not now.

1 THE COURT: All right. Very good. Thank you. All
2 right. Mr. Stewart, the Defendant, again, please rise.
3 Mr. Stewart, now after a full and fair trial by a jury of 4 your peers as accorded to you under our State constitution 5 as well as the protection of your constitutional and legal 6 rights you have been convicted by your peers of murder.

7 It will tell you that not matter what sentence this 8 Court should impose upon you it will not be as long as the 9 sentence that you in fact imposed upon your own children
10 and other children and other family members who for a 11 lifetime will have the suffer the consequences of what 12 really was a reprehensible act of tremendous selfishness 13 as it was just by Ms. Tyson.

14 What concerns the Court is that there has been a lack 15 of remorse. There has been multiple explanations which 16 had little credibility to them. Again, this was for the 17 jury to determine, and they have made that determination.

18 I find based upon the fact that this was a public 19 crime that shocked the conscious of this law abiding 20 community that the Court's appropriate response to that is 21 to sentence you to the Department of Corrections for a 22 period of your nature life. Plus a consecutive five years 23 for the carrying of a weapon during the commission of a 24 violent crime. And that is the decision of the Court.

25 MR. YOUNG: Your Honor, may I be heard?

1 THE COURT: You may.

2 MR. YOUNG: Your Honor, I believe imposing the 3 consecutive -- the possession of a weapon during the 4 commission of a violent crime require that it be 5 consecutive unless, of course, the Defendant is sentenced 6 to life.

7 THE COURT: All right. And the Court exercises the 8 option, though, to make that a consecutive sentence. But 9 the result of the sentence is that you will be confined to 10 the Department of Corrections for the remainder of your 11 nature life, sir.

12 I take no pride in that, but I believe it is, based 13 upon what we have before us, the appropriate response for 14 this Court and this community. And, thus, it is so 15 ordered. I will remand you now to the Department of 16 Corrections, sir. Good luck to you.

17 MR. FOARD: Thank you, Your Honor.

18 MR. YOUNG: Thank you, Your Honor.

19 MR. REDMOND: Thank you, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: All right. Ladies and gentlemen, for the 21 families who are hear. Ladies and gentlemen, this Court
22 will remain in order. For the families who are present -- 23 all right. Just one moment. Let's go ahead and take the 24 Defendant at this time. Mr. Young, we're going to ask Mr.
25 Stewart to depart the premises.

1 All right. Ladies and gentlemen for the families
2 that are here, there is nothing that we can do that can 3 change what has happened and the history that has brought 4 this about. But today, from this moment forward, I
5 encourage you. This is a small community. We all know 6 one another; that you will to the best of your ability 7 make peace with the other side of this case and all move 8 forward for the sake of the children. And for the good of 9 the community. And to that end I declare this term 10 adjourned.
