During criminal proceeding in the summary court March 5, 2013, the State of South Carolina represented by Chesterfield County Animal Control Jim McGonigal and Chesterfield County Deputy Jay Lewis and defendant and Fritz Timmons were present.

A search warrant was executed on the property at 1827 Tabernacle Church Road in the McBee area of Chesterfield County based on an anonymous tip of poor conditions for more than 30 canines on property and several of those dogs is varying degrees of poor health in plain view of officers.

County animal control and deputies testified the conditions of the property were not suitable conditions for the numerous animals on the property. Officers testified there was half a bag of dog food on the property, puppies being housed inside a partially dilapidated mobile home with feces covering interior flooring and at least two canine carcasses believed to be a food source for remaining dogs.

The defendant testified he has purchased 100 pounds of food for the animals the day of but prior to the search warrant being executed. He testified the feces-covered floor inside the mobile home on the property was in the process of being cleaned and puppies inside were being housed their until they could be released outside in spring.

IT IS ORDERED under Chesterfield County Ordinance 11-12-14 Section 10(B) that all animals at 1827 Tabernacle Church Road shall be taken into custody of Chesterfield County until the duration of a criminal case against him.

Magistrate, Chesterfield County

1 --- well, let me look a little further.

2 MR. FOARD: Your Honor, the e-mail he is
3 referencing is on the second page of the magistrate's
4 return in the third paragraph. It is referenced
5 there.

6 THE COURT: All right. Now, let me just make 7 sure, this was not in part a civil case, this was 8 criminal only, am I correct?

9 MR. FOARD: Your Honor, yes it was. It was a
10 combination of violations of the State law and county
11 ordinance.

12 THE COURT: Very good. And you say the emails
13 are on what page?

14 MR. FOARD: The first couple of pages of the 15 return are the inventory and signature of the 16 magistrate. In the actual return itself, it is on 17 the second page, third paragraph. I will hand that 18 up to the Court if it would be quicker.

19 THE COURT: It would help me if you would 20 please.

21 MR. FOARD: Yes, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: I see the e-mail.

23 MR. FOARD: The e-mail is not actually
24 contained in the return that is actually the only
25 reference to the e-mail.

26 THE COURT: All right, very good. Thank you.

1 I have that document. Let's do this. I don't have 2 that e-mail in my possession to give to you. But,
3 rather than getting hung up on that procedural
4 issue right off the bat, let me hear from you on the 5 basis of your appeal, and then we will make a decision
6 about evidence, and about law. Go ahead, sir. Tell
7 me what you believe happened below that would entitle
8 you to have this decision set aside.

9 MR. TIMMONS: Well, first of all my driveway
10 is a tenth of a mile long of which you cannot see
11 nothing in my yard. Therefore, any possible evidence
12 that could have been seen would have been conducted
13 under the constitutional intrusion, or by somebody
14 trespassing. Or, possibly completely tort in nature,
15 which animal resources using that as a probable
16 cause to --- for their search warrant. And then the 17 affidavit also does not support the search warrant.

18 THE COURT: Pull the microphone closer to you
19 so we can all hear. Thank you.

20 MR. TIMMONS: All right. Can you hear me
21 now?

22 THE COURT: A little bit better.

23 MR. TIMMONS: All right.

24 THE COURT: Okay. So, if you raise the issue
25 of trespass as you say, go ahead.

26 MR. TIMMONS: Well, that would be considered

1 as constitutional intrusion for the probable cause
2 that they are using. Second of all, the affidavit
3 that they used does not support their search warrant.
4 And, the tickets that were wrote was not filled out
5 and stuff at the time of the search.

6 THE COURT: All right, sir. Is there anything
7 else?

8 MR. TIMMONS: So they basically used ---
9 violated several violations of code, §17-13-141
10 several times in conducting the search and seizure,
11 which led to my reluctant release of custody of my 12 dog under unconstitutional conditions.

13 THE COURT: All right, sir. Is there anything
14 else?

15 MR. TIMMONS: I believe the supposed e-mail
16 was made up after the search warrant. Because, the 17 order that was given by the magistrate's court that 18 states, anonymous tip of poor conditions for more
19 than thirty canines of which only fifteen of the 20 canines were outside. All the others were inside,
21 and since I am the sole person that has been in my 22 house in the past four years, the only way that 23 anyone would have known of any other dogs would 24 have been after being inside my house, which the 25 only ones that would have would have been animal
26 services.

1 THE COURT: Yes sir. So, the only issue that
2 you raise is constitutional, that there was not
3 sufficient probable cause.

4 MR. TIMMONS: That, and the affidavit does not
5 support a search warrant.

6 THE COURT: So, you have no response then to 7 this very damning evidence which is in this file, of 8 pictures of dog carcasses, and unfed dogs, and 9 severely non-hygienic conditions. You have no
10 response to the evidence against you?

11 MR. TIMMONS: Now, the evidence for the no
12 food and no water, that is a false statement made by 13 animal control and the sheriff's department, in which 14 the pictures themselves shows where there is food and 15 water.

16 THE COURT: All right. Let's hear from the 17 State as to what your position is.

18 MR. FOARD: Thank you, Your Honor. I would 19 like to just first point out that we are in 20 possession of the notice of civil appeal filed by Mr.
21 Timmons on March 25, 2013.

22 However, we are not in possession of any motion
23 here today outlining exactly what relief he is 24 seeking in this matter, Your Honor, other than just 25 the general notice of appeal questioning the judgment
26 of the magistrate. But that being a side, Your Honor,

Sims v. Aherns, 271 SW 720 (1925) B. Platsky v. CIA, 953 F.2d 25, 26 28 (2nd Cir. 1991), "Court errs if court dismisses pro se litigant without instruction of how pleadings are deficient and how to repair pleadings."

Rabin v. Dep't of State, No. 95-4310, 1997 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 15718 - "The court noted that pro se plaintiffs should be afforded "special solicitude."

Sherar v. Cullen, 481 F. 2d 946 (1973) - "There can be no sanction or penalty imposed upon one because of his exercise of Constitutional Rights."

Picking v. Pennsylvania Railway, 151 F.2d. 240 - Third Circuit Court of Appeals The plaintiff's civil rights pleading was 150 pages and described by a federal judge as "inept". Nevertheless, it was held "Where a plaintiff pleads pro se in a suit for protection of civil rights, the Court should endeavor to construe Plaintiff's Pleadings without regard to technicalities."

Jenkins v. McKeithen, 395 U.S. 411, 421 (1959); Picking v. Pennsylvania R. Co., 151 Fed 2nd 240; Pucket v. Cox, 456 2nd 233 - Pro se pleadings are to be considered without regard to technicality; pro se litigants' pleadings are not to be held to the same high standards of perfection as lawyers.

Aetna Life Ins. Co. v. LaVoie, 475 U.S. 813 (1986) Bias or prejudice of an appellate judge can also deprive a litigant of due process.

Tumey v. Ohio 48 - 273 U.S. 510 (1927) Bias or prejudice either inherent in the structure of the trial system or as imposed by external events will deny one's right to a fair trial.

1 therefore, it does not support the search warrant.
2 Second of all, as to canines that were found, I
3 informed the magistrate that they was dug up, since
4 they died in 2012. They was either dug up by my own
5 dogs or by wildlife, and drug into the yard. And that
6 --- let's see. Also, the search warrant has duality
7 to it. So, it not known if they were going for 8 abandoned animals or neglected animals.

9 THE COURT: And just to make sure that I
10 understand, Mr. Timmons, you've received these 11 guilty verdicts and a fine, but you were not given
12 any active jail time; am I correct?

13 MR. TIMMONS: Correct.

14 THE COURT: All right, sir. Just one moment
15 please.

16 (PAUSE)

17 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Timmons, this is 18 the decision of the Court, sir. I am going to 19 respectively deny your appeal and dismissed it for 20 the following reasons.

21 First. I find that it is in artfully plead.
22 It is on a civil appeal form. It is not a criminal
23 appeal. This of course is a criminal case from below.
24 The exceptions to the judgment are not appropriately
25 stated.

26 But, based on what I have in your arguments today,

1 you have raised an issue of probable cause.

2 I find that there was sufficient probable cause
3 here. And that I have not been presented either
4 facts or law today which would require this Court to 5 reverse the decision below.

6 I would simply say to you though, sir,
7 respectively, that you are fortunate that you were 8 not sent to active prison time as a result of the 9 evidence that is here in this file. And, a better
10 result here would be simply to pay the fine and 11 proceed forward, and avoid this type of situation
12 for any animals in the future.

13 And that is the decision of the Court. Good
14 luck to you, and you may leave.

15 This appeal is dismissed.

16 MR. FOARD: Do you want me to do a form order?

17 THE COURT: Yes, I have written on the form
18 that the appeal is dismiss an appropriately plead,
19 and without merit. Have a good day.

20 Thank you.

21 (Whereupon, this hearing was concluded
22 at 11:43 a.m. on Wednesday, May 8, 2013.)

A partial carcass and skull were presented on 3/11/13 from Chesterfield county Animal Services for species identification. Both specimens were severely decayed. Both were canines based on dentition and structure of skulls. The partial carcass consisted of a canine skull, decayed hide which appeared to have been black, and a pelvis. Much of the ribs and front limbs were absent. The second specimen was a canine skull by itself. Neither the lone skull nor the partial animal corpse had sand or dirt in the teeth or other small crevices that would normally be present if the animal had ever been buried.

Defendant's Exhibit number 2 (bowl of water continuation of Defendant's Exhibit number 1) has been removed to comply with Court Order of July 7, 2014 of which did not considered or permit the amendment of the Designation of Matter for clerical error. Record page has been kept to prevent unnecessary burden of correcting citations in Appellant's Final Brief served on February 13, 2014

Sims v. Aherns, 271 SW 720 (1925) B. Platsky v. CIA, 953 F.2d 25, 26 28 (2nd Cir. 1991), "Court errs if court dismisses pro se litigant without instruction of how pleadings are deficient and how to repair pleadings."

Rabin v. Dep't of State, No. 95-4310, 1997 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 15718 - "The court noted that pro se plaintiffs should be afforded "special solicitude."

Sherar v. Cullen, 481 F. 2d 946 (1973) - "There can be no sanction or penalty imposed upon one because of his exercise of Constitutional Rights."

Picking v. Pennsylvania Railway, 151 F.2d. 240 - Third Circuit Court of Appeals The plaintiff's civil rights pleading was 150 pages and described by a federal judge as "inept". Nevertheless, it was held "Where a plaintiff pleads pro se in a suit for protection of civil rights, the Court should endeavor to construe Plaintiff's Pleadings without regard to technicalities."

Jenkins v. McKeithen, 395 U.S. 411, 421 (1959); Picking v. Pennsylvania R. Co., 151 Fed 2nd 240; Pucket v. Cox, 456 2nd 233 - Pro se pleadings are to be considered without regard to technicality; pro se litigants' pleadings are not to be held to the same high standards of perfection as lawyers

Aetna Life Ins. Co. v. LaVoie, 475 U.S. 813 (1986) Bias or prejudice of an appellate judge can also deprive a litigant of due process.

Tumey v. Ohio 48 - 273 U.S. 510 (1927) Bias or prejudice either inherent in the structure of the trial system or as imposed by external events will deny one's right to a fair trial.
