SC Court of Appeals

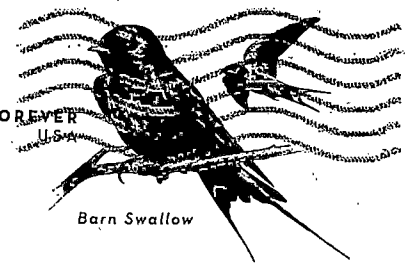

I wrote the court asking for an extension of time, and to appoint me an attorney because I am indigent and in need of help in these matters. I received a letter back giving me another extension, but I didn't receive an attorney. The letter stated that I have until September 26 to write telling arguable basis that there are issues preserved for appeal. The letter also stated that this will be my last extension. Right all I know is ineffective assistance of counsel. My lawyer didn't represent me to his best ability. Also I pleaded to 7 to 25 years for all my charges, but I received 40 years ~~and~~ when I went to court. It is more reasons for me to come back on appeal, but I don't have an attorney to help me describe these reasons. It would be helpful if I could be appointed an attorney to help me with my case.
