

THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA
In The Supreme Court

APPEAL FROM Spartanburg COUNTY
Court of Common Pleas
R. Lawton McIntosh, Circuit Court Judge

Appellate Case No. 2019-002421

Katie Wheeler Harris, Petitioner,

v.

State of South Carolina, Respondent.

Petition to Dismiss Appeal

Katie Wheeler Harris moves this Court for an order dismissing this appeal of the Circuit Court order denying her application for post-conviction relief (“PCR”). Undersigned counsel has explained to Ms. Harris that she is entitled to an appeal of the order dismissing her post-conviction relief application, entitled to the assistance of undersigned counsel or an attorney from the S.C. Office of Appellate Defense (if I declared indigent), and the decision to drop the appeal is a final waiver of the issues that could be raised on appeal. Undersigned counsel believes Ms. Harris decision to dismiss this appeal is freely and voluntarily made. See attached statement of Katie Harris.

IT IS SO MOVED.

Statement of Katie Harris

Katie karris states the following is true:

1) I am the appellant in the above-captioned case. Charles Grose is my lawyer. He represented me during my post-conviction relief hearing. He filed this appeal. Mr. Grose and I have discussed my case, and I have decided not to appeal.

2) I understand that I am entitled to an appeal of the order dismissing my post-conviction relief application. I understand I am entitled to the assistance of Mr. Grose or an attorney from the S.C. Office of Appellate Defense if I am declared indigent. I have been informed that if I drop my appeal that I forever waive those issues that could be raised.

3) I have made this decision on my own, with a full understanding of all the possible consequences of this action. I do not wish to appeal.
