

Motion for Additional Time and for order regarding Client File.

Comes Now Defendant John Singletary request this Honorable Appellate Court to grant a 30 da extention to submitt final documents. Defendant, John Singletary, delivered to former Attorney McMullen a USB stick with all documents and Attorney McMullen as failed to return the USB stick with documents as requested. In addition Attorney McMullen in his last submittal in conjunction with opposing side submitted fraudulent and fabricated documents to this Appellant Court which Defendant Singletay will prove. Defendant Singletary has secured an attorney who is willing to proceed with the case on his behalf however he want to have a copy of the USB stick information and a copy of all documents submitted by former attorney McMullen. Attorney McMullen again has failed nad refused after request to turn over Defendant's complet file. Thirty days following the surrender of the complete file from attorney McMullen will not prejudice the opposing sides case particular given they in conjunction with attorney McMullen have fabricated and submitted fraudulent documents to this Honorable Appellate Court.

Defendant also makes it known that this is a criminal case in which at no time has Defendant been given the opportunity to appear before a Judge, Jury, or been given his right to be heard in a meaningful way. The state provides no documentation of notice of trial, the state admits to alering evidence submitted to this honorable court, and the state fails to provide proof of requisite actions necessary for a trial in absentia for which it says it conducted.

Defendant request this Honorable Court to order attorney McMullen to surrender Defendants complete file, with all submissions, and 30 days following for new attorney to submit required documents.

Respectfully Submitted

John Singletary
