Re: Wilson vs State
2018-000693

Dear Clerk,

We file A direct Appeal December 5, 2014.
ON November 3, 2015 My Appellate Attorney
Submitted AN ANDER'S BRIEF.

We submitted A pro se BRIEF AND MY ATTORNEY place A MOTION to be Relieved AS MY COUNSEL.

ON JUNE 22, 2016 My direct Appeal was dismissed. After consideration of My PRO SE BRIEF
AND REVIEW pursuant to ANDER'S VS CALIFORNIA.

The court granted My Attorney Motion to be Relieved AS MY COUNSEL. The CASE was Remitted to A Lower court of Common plea.

I was told we waited too late to go back to the county on a direct Appeal. If I had a paid Attorney to represent me in the lower court and prevail I could have been released on a direct Appeal.

I just want to know is that true? Because I'm an indigent inmate in prison and don't know much about the legal system.

The court of Appeal could have upheld or deny or remanded for a new trial. But the court of Appeal dismissed Appeal, and remitted it's decision to a lower court because of rule 22(b) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rule.

If the court of Appeal reverse my conviction and sentence can I represent myself?

Thank you for your service and we all hope for a favorable result.

Sincerely,

A. B. Wilson Jr
