Dear Ms. Masmahan,

Your office recently returned the enclosed documents, and advised me to file the original documents with the Court of Appeals. (see attached). By way of explanation, I only file original documents out of abundance of caution. In other words, I do not file copies in order to avoid having documents rejected that require a timely filing. Therefore, I am respectfully requesting again, that you please clock stamp the enclosed motion to proceed in Forma pauperis and return the clock stamped copy to me, as I was instructed by the Court of Appeals.
